R.C.A. Condemnation To Be Filled This Thursday; SC Plans ALL Action Necessary To Secure Building

A campaign to assure the acquisition of badly needed additional space for the Baruch College was begun at last Thursday’s Student Council meeting. A resolution that “strongly rebukes the Board of Higher Education” for their failure to provide badly needed additional space for the College was passed with strong support from all present.

The resolution includes the fact that the students of this College are prepared to take whatever steps are needed to provide additional space.

The motion for the all-out program was made by Board of Higher Education for their failure to provide badly needed additional space for the College will be stilled without additional space in the next few months.

The campaign will include sending letters to members of the Board, political figures and the major news media. A meeting will be sought with the Mayor and other City and State officials.

The Board of Higher Education is supposed to be meeting to acquire the R.C.A. space on East 24 Street for Baruch. However, since the Board began “action” last May the building has been stilled without additional space in the next few months.

The takeover was made 9:30 last Tuesday morning. It ended at 18:40 in the afternoon when the group voluntarily left the center.

The purpose of the SDS group was to disrupt the elections process. It is a statement made directly before Election Day James Farley, Jr., the New York State Chairman of Y.A.F., said, “I find it ironic that a group like SDS who purports to believe in ‘parliamentary democracy’ would urge a boycott of the election and democratic process.”

According to Farley, a student at Fordham University, YAF fell that more drastic steps than a news release were needed to protect the planned tactics of SDS. These plans included urging a boycott of the election, embarrassing candidates and even tampering with polling places.

Last August, on the night of the nominations at the Democratic National Convention, Farley led a similar foray into the headquarters of the National Mobilization Committee Against the War in Vietnam. Carrying signs which read “END THE WAR—BRING THE BOYS HOME FROM CHICAGO” 100 members of YAF remained in the office overnight and carried on a dialogue with some of the Peace Pikes.

The YAF group planned to remain until the group voluntarily left the center.

Petitions Are Filed For 5 Council Seats

Only 12 students submitted petitions to run for Student Council and the Ticker Association. Two of the students are running for two positions, a Freshman Representative and a Freshman Executive.

Neil Bergman is running unopposed for the Ticker Association. The T.A. acts as publisher of The Ticker and provides funds needed to print the paper.

Class of ‘70, the Vice President, and Class of ‘73, the Freshman, have both submitted excuse slips explaining their absence. Faculty members are examining these documents to determine eligibility.

There are four students running for the two seats open in the Class of ‘70: They are Polly Brown, Mark Frank, Robert Goldfarb, and Herbert Goldman.

There are five students running for the one open seat in the Class of ‘72. The five are Jay Breitler, Jack Goldberg, Michael Fuhr, Doug Rozier and Howard Zimmerman.

Two of the five, Michael Fuhr and Herbert Goldman, are the current Freshman Executive and the current Council Officer for Student Council and the Council Executive Board.

The election will be held on Wednesday, November 20th from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Students must present their S.I.S. card in order to vote.

Blood Drive To Be Held November 21

Blood will flow on the Baruch College campus November 21 — but it all will be for a good cause — another Blood Bank drive. The drive, sponsored by the Inter-Fraternity Council, runs from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Last year, more than 110 students offered to donate blood, and it is anticipated that this year’s drive will exceed that record.

All students and instructors are eligible to participate in this Blood Drive. This policy covers all donors and their immediate families for the amount of blood needed in the event of an emergency. There is no charge for this. The premium for this policy is paid by the student who donates to the Blood Bank. Donors must be in good health and between the ages of 18 and 65. Donors under 21 must have their parents’ or guardians’ signature on their pledge cards.

Donors will be examined to determine eligibility.

Students who miss part, or all, of a class in order to donate blood will have excused absences to explain their absence. Faculty members will be processed immediately to permit them to return to their classes.

The procedure is a painless and

At 12:00 on November 21 the Lexicon photographer will be present to photograph all Freshmen Colloquium leaders. The picture will be taken in North Lounge. Skirts for girls; tie and jacket for boys.

Sigma Alpha Gripe Box
To Be Located In Center

In an attempt to offer a new service to the students of the college, Sigma Alpha is setting up a gripe box in the lobby of the Student Union. Students can write their suggestions, gripes and concerns concerning the college administration. The box will be located in the center lobby and will be accessible to all students.

Rudy D. Dickerson, president of Sigma Alpha, said that the gripe box is being set up to offer a way for students to express their concerns and suggestions. The box will be monitored by the college administration and any issues that are raised will be addressed.

The gripe box is part of Sigma Alpha's ongoing effort to improve the campus environment and provide better services to students.

Letters to the Editor

On John Sckorokod

By Mr. Lewis Sturt

Mr. Lewis Sturt, October 29

The Ticker

Dear Mr. Sturt,

I was very interested in reading your letter, which was printed in the November 6th issue of The Ticker. While I agree with your argument about the need for change in the Baruch College system, I would like to point out a few inaccuracies in your letter.

Firstly, you state that Mr. Sckorokod was a distinguished guest speaker at the Baruch College. This is incorrect. Mr. Sckorokod was a visiting professor at Baruch College.

Secondly, you mention that Mr. Sckorokod’s remarks were insulting. I believe this is a misinterpretation. Mr. Sckorokod’s remarks were intended to be humorous and were not meant to be insulting.

I hope that you will take these points into consideration in your future correspondences.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Dear Mr. Sturt,

I was very interested in your letter about the film ‘The Great White Hope’. While I agree that the film was well-made and informative, I would like to point out a few inaccuracies in your letter.

Firstly, you state that the film was a biographical account of Jack Johnson. While the film does have some biographical elements, it is primarily a historical drama.

Secondly, you mention that the film was a historical drama about the life of Jack Johnson. This is incorrect. The film was a biographical account of Jack Johnson.

I hope that you will take these points into consideration in your future correspondences.

John's job is the level of people he deals with. That's why I got interested in AIM, he says. John has his MBA in 1966. He now sells IBM computers to industrial firms, banks and other financial institutions.

"It's a management consulting job," he says. "The reasons, computers affect nearly every aspect of a business. I get involved with a customer's accounting, finance, and marketing, which means I have to know something about each of these areas. So I'm constantly broadening my knowledge as the computer industry evolves.

Working at the top
Another management consulting aspect of John's job is the level of people he deals with. "Most of the time," he says, "I work with vice-presidents and the data processing managers. But I also have to deal with the president because he's the one who can give final approval.

"And when you're working with people on that level, you have to make sure they get you in graduate school. If a customer starts talking about a regression analysis, I can stay with him. Or, I might get involved in a linear programming study to determine the optimum stock mix for a portfolio. Believe me, getting on AIM was worth the extra effort!"

Career areas for MBA's
Marketing is only one of several areas for MBA's at IBM. Others include finance and engineering. MBA's in finance can work in Financial Planning and Control, Financial Analysis, Accounting, and Information Systems, in engineering, MBA's work mainly in industrial engineering and manufacturing. Whatever area you choose, you think you'll agree with John, "Getting my MBA was a decision that paid off!"

Check with your placement office
If you're interested in the opportunities for MBA's at IBM, ask your placement office for more information. Or send a letter or resume to Paul Kossow, IBM Corporation, Dept. C, 455 Park Ave., New York, New York 10022. We'd like to hear from you even if you're headed for military service.

WHERE YOU CAN HELP TO SHAPE A BETTER WORLD
Goodbye Allie

By LARRY BROOKS

(This column was written before Sunday's Giant-Dallas game)

One of the more interesting phenomena which has spread about the American sports scene in the recent past is the various college campuses, which ring from stadium to stadium across the land.

Presently the aggrieved fan in the nation makes its voice heard in Philadelphia. The great Eagle fans are in a state of affairs which could be likened to the Franklin Field week after week to see that pathetic team—are having a feud with the team's coach, Joe Kuharich. What a feud. It has been well nurtured. It has been a strange and stunted one. People are passed around with great glee. Hangings-in-effigy are performed nearly as a daily ritual. And now the Eagle fans have a boycott of a November home game. Unfortunately for Eagle boosters, Joe is working on a fifteen year contract.

New York, the Sports Center of the World, is not known to possess quiet, passive fandom. And right now there is a rumbling. It's a familiar one.

Not "Muzz Must Go", the rumbling is beginning to be heard at Yankee Stadium. It is, of course, "Goodbye Allie.

Not that a ghost out of It rang throughout 1964 (2-10-2), subsided in 1965 (7-7-0), was resumed with great fervor in 1966 (1-2-1), was forgotten about in 1967 (7-7-0), year 1 of his firing, in the latter part of 1968 seems to be picking up new steam.

If there is a reason for the Giants to rid themselves of Sherman, it would be his strange handling of Tucker Frederickson. No one seems to understand what's going on in that part of 1968 seems to be picking up new steam.

Is the same man now. He is the same coach. What is not the same is the personnel.

Sheridan did a remarkable job in 1966. He combined fading veterans with young ruckles and a tough quarterback (Earl Morrall) to come up 7-7. The year of '66, as is painfully recollected, was a flaseen. But there was nothing the coach could have done to avoid that disaster. I'd like to see Lombardi, with Tom Kennedy at quarterback and cope with 269 injuries.

But this one case is no reason for dismissal, Sherman. I'm not even going to try to guess why the team's top available running back and probably the league's best doesn't play now.

With Fran at the helm last year, the glory days seemed to be on the way back, if not immediately, then at least slowly, but surely. There were great days (38-34 over Cleveland after the Giants from three World Titles. He was N.F.L. coach of the year in both 1961 and 1962.
