New C.U.N.Y. Budget Shortchanges Baruch

By John Skorobod
City University Chancellor Albert H. Bowker's budget request for the 1970-71 fiscal and academic year was approved last week.

C.N.Y. . 2189
John Jay . 2909
Hunter . 1881
Kingsborough . 1858
N.Y.C.C. . 1735
Lehman . 1706
Brooklyn . 1694
Queens . 1604

A more detailed examination of the figures yields further distressing facts. The Chancellor has requested $11,831,000 for Baruch, which is about twenty-five percent more than was appropriated last year, but this apparent increase will be negated because enrollment will also increase significantly. While there are a total of 6,431 full-time equivalent students in attendance currently, 7,110 are anticipated for next year. The largest increase in enrollment will be in undergraduate day-session students.

The $11.8 million is not given in a lump sum; rather, parts of it will be allocated for specific purposes. This is extremely significant. For example, Baruch is to be given $1,147 per full-time equivalent undergraduate for salary expenses. This is less than seven of other City University colleges and one of the community colleges will be given it.

(Continued on Page 4)

Students Triumph

By John Skorobod

A more detailed examination of the figures yields further distressing facts. The Chancellor has requested $11,831,000 for Baruch, which is about twenty-five percent more than was appropriated last year, but this apparent increase will be negated because enrollment will also increase significantly. While there are a total of 6,431 full-time equivalent students in attendance currently, 7,110 are anticipated for next year. The largest increase in enrollment will be in undergraduate day-session students.

The $11.8 million is not given in a lump sum; rather, parts of it will be allocated for specific purposes. This is extremely significant. For example, Baruch is to be given $1,147 per full-time equivalent undergraduate for salary expenses. This is less than seven of other City University colleges and one of the community colleges will be given it.

(Continued on Page 4)

Students Triumph

By John Skorobod

A more detailed examination of the figures yields further distressing facts. The Chancellor has requested $11,831,000 for Baruch, which is about twenty-five percent more than was appropriated last year, but this apparent increase will be negated because enrollment will also increase significantly. While there are a total of 6,431 full-time equivalent students in attendance currently, 7,110 are anticipated for next year. The largest increase in enrollment will be in undergraduate day-session students.

The $11.8 million is not given in a lump sum; rather, parts of it will be allocated for specific purposes. This is extremely significant. For example, Baruch is to be given $1,147 per full-time equivalent undergraduate for salary expenses. This is less than seven of other City University colleges and one of the community colleges will be given it.

(Continued on Page 4)

Students Triumph

By John Skorobod

A more detailed examination of the figures yields further distressing facts. The Chancellor has requested $11,831,000 for Baruch, which is about twenty-five percent more than was appropriated last year, but this apparent increase will be negated because enrollment will also increase significantly. While there are a total of 6,431 full-time equivalent students in attendance currently, 7,110 are anticipated for next year. The largest increase in enrollment will be in undergraduate day-session students.

The $11.8 million is not given in a lump sum; rather, parts of it will be allocated for specific purposes. This is extremely significant. For example, Baruch is to be given $1,147 per full-time equivalent undergraduate for salary expenses. This is less than seven of other City University colleges and one of the community colleges will be given it.

(Continued on Page 4)

Students Triumph

By John Skorobod

A more detailed examination of the figures yields further distressing facts. The Chancellor has requested $11,831,000 for Baruch, which is about twenty-five percent more than was appropriated last year, but this apparent increase will be negated because enrollment will also increase significantly. While there are a total of 6,431 full-time equivalent students in attendance currently, 7,110 are anticipated for next year. The largest increase in enrollment will be in undergraduate day-session students.

The $11.8 million is not given in a lump sum; rather, parts of it will be allocated for specific purposes. This is extremely significant. For example, Baruch is to be given $1,147 per full-time equivalent undergraduate for salary expenses. This is less than seven of other City University colleges and one of the community colleges will be given it.

(Continued on Page 4)

Students Triumph

By John Skorobod

A more detailed examination of the figures yields further distressing facts. The Chancellor has requested $11,831,000 for Baruch, which is about twenty-five percent more than was appropriated last year, but this apparent increase will be negated because enrollment will also increase significantly. While there are a total of 6,431 full-time equivalent students in attendance currently, 7,110 are anticipated for next year. The largest increase in enrollment will be in undergraduate day-session students.

The $11.8 million is not given in a lump sum; rather, parts of it will be allocated for specific purposes. This is extremely significant. For example, Baruch is to be given $1,147 per full-time equivalent undergraduate for salary expenses. This is less than seven of other City University colleges and one of the community colleges will be given it.

(Continued on Page 4)
THE SENIOR CLASS COUNCIL OF 1971
AND
THE JUNIOR CLASS COUNCIL OF 1970
Proudly Announce
The Arrival of Our New
BARUCH COLLEGE RINGS

SEE THEM ON
RING DAYS
DEC. 3 & 4 in the
Lobby of the Student Center

SUPPORT YOUR CLASS
BUY A RING

The Arrival of Our New
Baruch College Rings

On Sale

Tuesday, December 3 and 4 between 11 and 5 at the desk in the lobby of the student center.

They mock him and say, "Hell never win—"
the students never heard people running for the post. One of these men, however, is not a school body at our school. Carl LaFonge is such a great part of our lives that's the kind of person Carl is; he stays out of the limelight. In manifest itself at every turn of the day-to-day life of the student, well-known. But (those of us who's dealt with him are in awe of his importance. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He has in Baruch's history. Ladies and gentlemen . . . it is my privilege to bring public attention to Mr. Carl LaFonge.

Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge? See, I told you he wasn't the kind of men you want for the important position of Student Council President. Spring, 1970. This may strike the reader as cant to believe in? This kind of bush-lestgue politics is What Nixon for the Student Council, Spring-1970. This may strike the reader as denial. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He scious. The other candidates laugh at the mere mention of Carl LaFonge. Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge?

They mock him and say, "Hell never win—"
the students never heard people running for the post. One of these men, however, is not a school body at our school. Carl LaFonge is such a great part of our lives that's the kind of person Carl is; he stays out of the limelight. In manifest itself at every turn of the day-to-day life of the student, well-known. But (those of us who's dealt with him are in awe of his importance. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He has in Baruch's history. Ladies and gentlemen . . . it is my privilege to bring public attention to Mr. Carl LaFonge.

Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge? See, I told you he wasn't the kind of men you want for the important position of Student Council President. Spring, 1970. This may strike the reader as denial. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He scious. The other candidates laugh at the mere mention of Carl LaFonge. Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge?

They mock him and say, "Hell never win—"
the students never heard people running for the post. One of these men, however, is not a school body at our school. Carl LaFonge is such a great part of our lives that's the kind of person Carl is; he stays out of the limelight. In manifest itself at every turn of the day-to-day life of the student, well-known. But (those of us who's dealt with him are in awe of his importance. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He has in Baruch's history. Ladies and gentlemen . . . it is my privilege to bring public attention to Mr. Carl LaFonge.

Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge? See, I told you he wasn't the kind of men you want for the important position of Student Council President. Spring, 1970. This may strike the reader as denial. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He scious. The other candidates laugh at the mere mention of Carl LaFonge. Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge?

They mock him and say, "Hell never win—"
the students never heard people running for the post. One of these men, however, is not a school body at our school. Carl LaFonge is such a great part of our lives that's the kind of person Carl is; he stays out of the limelight. In manifest itself at every turn of the day-to-day life of the student, well-known. But (those of us who's dealt with him are in awe of his importance. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He has in Baruch's history. Ladies and gentlemen . . . it is my privilege to bring public attention to Mr. Carl LaFonge.

Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge? See, I told you he wasn't the kind of men you want for the important position of Student Council President. Spring, 1970. This may strike the reader as denial. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He scious. The other candidates laugh at the mere mention of Carl LaFonge. Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge?

They mock him and say, "Hell never win—"
the students never heard people running for the post. One of these men, however, is not a school body at our school. Carl LaFonge is such a great part of our lives that's the kind of person Carl is; he stays out of the limelight. In manifest itself at every turn of the day-to-day life of the student, well-known. But (those of us who's dealt with him are in awe of his importance. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He has in Baruch's history. Ladies and gentlemen . . . it is my privilege to bring public attention to Mr. Carl LaFonge.

Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge? See, I told you he wasn't the kind of men you want for the important position of Student Council President. Spring, 1970. This may strike the reader as denial. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He scious. The other candidates laugh at the mere mention of Carl LaFonge. Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge?

They mock him and say, "Hell never win—"
the students never heard people running for the post. One of these men, however, is not a school body at our school. Carl LaFonge is such a great part of our lives that's the kind of person Carl is; he stays out of the limelight. In manifest itself at every turn of the day-to-day life of the student, well-known. But (those of us who's dealt with him are in awe of his importance. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He has in Baruch's history. Ladies and gentlemen . . . it is my privilege to bring public attention to Mr. Carl LaFonge.

Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge? See, I told you he wasn't the kind of men you want for the important position of Student Council President. Spring, 1970. This may strike the reader as denial. He doesn't write controversial columns for Ticker. He scious. The other candidates laugh at the mere mention of Carl LaFonge. Who, you may ask, is Carl LaFonge?
President's Message

by HARRY FAGE

Who's in Carl LaFonge? That is the nagging question of this year's Student Government. Last year Mr. LaFonge was a part of our student's active political scene, having served as a student senator, member of the Student Labor Federation, and member of the Student Health Information Service. Mr. LaFonge's political posturing serves as an inspiration to our student leaders to think about their role in the university's political scene.

Now, Mr. LaFonge is running for President of the Student Government. Mr. LaFonge is a true leader, someone who has always stood up for what is right and who has always been willing to fight for the rights of the students. He has a strong record of achievements, including his service as a student senator and his work in the Student Labor Federation.

Mr. LaFonge's leadership is evident in his campaign for President. He is a true leader, someone who is willing to fight for the rights of the students. He is a true leader, someone who is willing to fight for the rights of the students.

In conclusion, Mr. LaFonge is a true leader, someone who has always stood up for what is right and who has always been willing to fight for the rights of the students. He has a strong record of achievements, including his service as a student senator and his work in the Student Labor Federation.

By supporting Mr. LaFonge, we can ensure that our campus remains a place where the rights of the students are protected and where the students can have a voice in the decisions that affect their lives. Let us come out and vote for LaFonge. LaFonge like you've never seen before!...
The Royal Screw

The history of our involvement in Vietnam By Ken Walter

The legacy of our involvement in Vietnam is one of the most controversial issues of our time. It is a history filled with debate, anger, and frustration. The history of our involvement in Vietnam is one of the most important issues of our time. It is a history filled with debate, anger, and frustration.

Black Week has passed. I for one was disappointed in the lack of enthusiasm and the lack of participation. I have been involved in many protests, but this was the first time I felt that the majority of Baruchians were witnessing the martyrdom of a man, a race, and a country. The martyrdom of a man, a race, and a country.

A Fallacy of Americanism

By HOWARD HARRIS

Black Week has passed. For me it was disappointing in the lack of enthusiasm and the lack of participation. I have been involved in many protests, but this was the first time I felt that the majority of Baruchians were witnessing the martyrdom of a man, a race, and a country. The martyrdom of a man, a race, and a country.

The Royal Screw

The history of our involvement in Vietnam is one of the most controversial issues of our time. It is a history filled with debate, anger, and frustration. The history of our involvement in Vietnam is one of the most important issues of our time. It is a history filled with debate, anger, and frustration.

Black Week has passed. I for one was disappointed in the lack of enthusiasm and the lack of participation. I have been involved in many protests, but this was the first time I felt that the majority of Baruchians were witnessing the martyrdom of a man, a race, and a country. The martyrdom of a man, a race, and a country.
Instructor's List

Course Sect. | Instructor
---|---
20 A | S. Israel, R. Soldier, M. Sarlin
20 B | J. Hunt, S. Israel, R. Soldier
20 C | S. Israel, R. Soldier, M. Sarlin
20 D | R. Smith, J. Hunt, S. Israel
25 A | R. Smith, J. Hunt, S. Israel
30 A | S. Israel, R. Soldier, M. Sarlin
30 B | J. Hunt, S. Israel, R. Soldier
31 A | S. Israel, R. Soldier, M. Sarlin
31 B | J. Hunt, S. Israel, R. Soldier
32 A | S. Israel, R. Soldier, M. Sarlin
33 A | J. Hunt, S. Israel, R. Soldier
33 B | S. Israel, R. Soldier, M. Sarlin

---

Course/Instructor

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Sect.</th>
<th>Instructor</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>24</td>
<td>S. Israel, R. Soldier, M. Sarlin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>25</td>
<td>R. Smith, J. Hunt, S. Israel</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>30</td>
<td>S. Israel, R. Soldier, M. Sarlin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>31</td>
<td>J. Hunt, S. Israel, R. Soldier</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>32</td>
<td>S. Israel, R. Soldier, M. Sarlin</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>33</td>
<td>J. Hunt, S. Israel, R. Soldier</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

Faculty Notes

PROFESSOR SAMUEL THOMAS (Political Science) delivered the principal address at the second annual meeting of the Political Science Honor Society, held in the Student Union on November 15. The keynote address was titled "The Role of Political Science in Contemporary Society" and was well received by the audience.

PROFESSOR ALAN STONE (Economics) presented a paper on "The Theory of Money" at the annual meeting of the American Economic Association in Chicago. The paper received enthusiastic applause from the audience.

PROFESSOR JOHN WRIGHT (History) delivered the commencement address at the annual meeting of the Historical Society of America in Washington, D.C. His speech, titled "The Evolution of American Historical Thought," was praised for its clarity and insight.

---

Beer Blast

On Thursday, December 18, 1969

at the George Washington Hotel

Main Ballroom

---

The Senior Class of 1970

cordially invites you to attend our annual:

"BEER BLAST"

---

All organizations wishing to hold a charity drive next term must file applications with the Charity Drives Committee by the second week in December.

Applications are available in the Student Council office.
Vietnam involvement

(Continued from Page 3)

The U.S. destroyer Maddox was in the form of the Tonkin Gulf area, just north of Vietnam. On Aug. 2, the Defense Department appeared rather confident that North Vietnamese PT boats had attacked the Maddox, and indicated that the U.S. command in Vietnam was considering taking any steps which would cause them to strike the North Vietnamese PT boats that were responsible for the attack. Whether or not this was the first time, it would not be a first-time connotation. All indications are that the Maddox attack was not the first attack of its kind.

The Tonkin Gulf is the most significant in the vast area of international waters in which the attack of the North Vietnamese PT boats had taken place. The area is a place where the North Vietnamese PT boats were stationed to protect the North Vietnamese oil fields. In this area, the U.S. command is now considering taking any steps which would cause them to strike the North Vietnamese PT boats that were responsible for the attack.

The attack on the Maddox was not the first attack of its kind. All indications are that the Maddox attack was the first attack of its kind. The area is a place where the North Vietnamese PT boats were stationed to protect the North Vietnamese oil fields. The attack on the Maddox was not the first attack of its kind.

Department of Defense, according to the Secretary of Defense, Robert McNamara, said that the attack on the Maddox was not the first attack of its kind. All indications are that the Maddox attack was the first attack of its kind. The area is a place where the North Vietnamese PT boats were stationed to protect the North Vietnamese oil fields. The attack on the Maddox was not the first attack of its kind.
Arrested with her in a girl's bathroom were two fellow students. The point is emphasized that the event is not a smoke-in, but a rally for legalization of marijuana. Scheduled to speak are Joe Ortind and responsible for stealing a pea coat belonging to Ticker mascot Roz.

Help: If anyone has any knowledge of the person or persons responsible for this theft, please call 123-4567.

Reverend Jerry Schneiderman, Quad: Mrs. Lenstein does not stand alone in her evaluation of a certain student. Richard David H. Olin 1139

David Olin of the "B" class of 1953, a certain feature column salutes you. May your teeth fall out the day before Chanukah. It's the spirit of the season.

Last week's column was censored as a result of pressure from the white house, spokesmen for which claimed the column was guilty of libel against them. So, this week we present some reports from reliably unassailable sources at the vatican, indicating that spiro agnew died in a violent auto accident outside London in November 1966 on a visit to the United States. The area grew after an unsuccessful recording session with Everest. Dickerson's group. A spiro Agnew look alike contest was held and a Saint Bernard was observed. There were nearly five hundred dogs. Minor plastic surgery was performed, and the dog's sense of humor downgraded. The results have been on display in Washington ever since. Recent photos of the Big A (for you know what) in the Alps with a leg of brandy around his neck confirm the rumor. I've also been told that if you play "The Ballad of the Green Baretta" backwards, the whole nausiating story will be revealed.

In other spiro news, it has been reported that the vp was the first choice for the job of Baruch College President, but declined for family reasons.

By the way, his thirteen year old daughter Kim, the one in trouble recently for anti-war feelings was arrested last August at a demonstration in New York. He said, "I'm apacificist." The hot discussion question was: Was that Dr. Bauer seen leaving the memorandum activities with a pea coat over his shoulders? Leopold F. "Feller" Wibbels thinks that agnostic Alan Bader of Ticker is on an ego trip. Any way you look at it, Gary is half right not to mention him. The theme was "On the Record or on the Beach."

A rally will be held tomorrow (Wed.) at the plaza at the United Nations headquarters for the purpose of gaining support for the beginning of the war in Vietnam. Speaker Joe Orind and Alan Ginsburg. Also invited was the Honorable John Villet Lindsey -- but don't expect to see him. Rumor is that he will appear in drug court.

A new addition to the Baruch staff is not a make-over, but a rally to demonstrate a need for judicial reform. The event will take place on the plaza.

Item 2: Up your newspaper.

The Baruch College Basketball Team will open its 1969-70 season on Wednesday night in Douglas when they face the Catholic College team. The team, which compiled a 15 point deficit into a 15 point win against the New York Tech freshmen. His major weakness is his tendency to foul opponents. This year, though, he seems in better control of his temper and he should help the team.

Other starters include Larry Anderson, Ken Rosenstein, Mark Posner and Harvey Walibanger. Anderson, a 6-2 senior guard, is the captain of the team. He averaged 16.8 points per game last season. The slender Management major has exceptionally quick hands and is an excellent passer. Ken (The Butcher) Rosenstein is a 6-2 forward. He is the team's leading scorer, averaging 20 points per game. He will usually be matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the refiores isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.

Mark Posner, 6-1, saw a lot of action last year as a freshman. He is an excellent shooter and a very capable of hitting shots in the area.

Item 3: Curb you dog. The spiro agnew story.

Cathedral College coached by Pat Barry has had good success in its first two years posting 15-5 and 15-6 records. They lost some of their heroes by graduation, but have several lettermen back.

Barry will start five lettermen headed by 5-10 guard Bruce Bowers, a 19-point game scorer last year and John Anderson, a 6-4 center, who is expected to be the top rebounder. Joining Bowers in the starting roster are 6-5 Edward Marquis, who is expected to be the top rebounder. Joining Bowers in the starting roster are 6-5 Edward Marquis, John Mundy (6-2), who is expected to be the top rebounder. Joining Bowers in the starting roster are 6-5 Edward Marquis, John Mundy (6-2), and Dave Posner and James Tynes. The eight-man starting line-up in the varsity basketball game was successfully recorded at the Baruch College on Thursday night at 7:00.

Ken Rosenstein

Vote For Bob Berman

Those interested in Track, report for tryouts on Thursday, December 4, at 1:00 p.m. at the Varsity Track.

More Fireside chats planned.

The following Fireside Chats have been planned:

Prof. Artzuck, Sunday, Dec. 7
Dean Dispenzieri, Friday, Dec. 12
Mr. Trible, Saturday, Dec. 13
Prof. Boettiger, Sunday, Dec. 14
Dean Dispenzieri, Sunday, Dec. 21
Dee Strayand, Thursday, Dec. 25

If you wish to attend one of the chats, please fill out the application below and return it to the Booster Office, Rm. 315, Student Union, Baruch College.

(Further information is available in the Booster office)

Harvey Wallbanger can be made

We were on mess duty. A relaxing period as the Drill Instructor was away from us most of the day, but a tiring period from 3 AM to 6 PM.

I worked in the supply locker. We peeled the potatoes, made the salad, prepared the pudding desserts and had Kool Aid parties when no one was looking.

There were always enough potatoes and usually enough chocolate pudding so that all the privates could have as much as they wanted. But there never was enough turkey salad.

Now, this Marine Corps turkey salad was delicious. Not to say that the rest of the food was bad, but when the turkey salad tray was on the salad bar, nothing short of martial law would stop everyone from making a few sandwich dinners with the turkey salad and the salad bar line was long whenever everybody's favorite, turkey salad, was up for grabs.

On this occasion, the supply of the turkey was so minimal that I was told to stand over it with a knife and fork and dish it out, one forkfull to a private, and with the knife, stick the hands that wanted to serve themselves. The NCO of the spud locker told me, "If you get more than a forkful, you're doing more than your share."

On this particular meal, the NCO ordered me to inspect the mess hall. Proud he looked indeed with a silver oak leaf in each shoulder. Bless his culinary heart.

He had everything filed in one stripe, the jello and low and behold, the man comes by and starts eyeballing the salad bar. "I want to see that no one is guilty of stealing any of the turkey salad," the NCO shouted.

He is an excellent shooter and usually is matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the referees isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.

Mark Posner, 6-1, saw a lot of action last year as a freshman. He is an excellent shooter and a very capable of hitting shots in the area.

Item 2: Up your newspaper.

The Baruch College Basketball Team will open its 1969-70 season on Wednesday night in Douglas when they face the Catholic College team. The team, which compiled a 15 point deficit into a 15 point win against the New York Tech freshmen. His major weakness is his tendency to foul opponents. This year, though, he seems in better control of his temper and he should help the team.

Other starters include Larry Anderson, Ken Rosenstein, Mark Posner and Harvey Walibanger. Anderson, a 6-2 senior guard, is the captain of the team. He averaged 16.8 points per game last season. The slender Management major has exceptionally quick hands and is an excellent passer. Ken (The Butcher) Rosenstein is a 6-2 forward. He is the team's leading scorer, averaging 20 points per game. He will usually be matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the referees isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.

Mark Posner, 6-1, saw a lot of action last year as a freshman. He is an excellent shooter and usually is matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the referees isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.

Mark Posner, 6-1, saw a lot of action last year as a freshman. He is an excellent shooter and usually is matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the referees isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.

Mark Posner, 6-1, saw a lot of action last year as a freshman. He is an excellent shooter and usually is matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the referees isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.

The slender Management major has exceptionally quick hands and is an excellent passer. Ken (The Butcher) Rosenstein is a 6-2 forward. He is the team's leading scorer, averaging 20 points per game. He will usually be matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the referees isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.

Mark Posner, 6-1, saw a lot of action last year as a freshman. He is an excellent shooter and usually is matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the referees isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.

Mark Posner, 6-1, saw a lot of action last year as a freshman. He is an excellent shooter and usually is matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the referees isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.

Mark Posner, 6-1, saw a lot of action last year as a freshman. He is an excellent shooter and usually is matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the referees isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.

Mark Posner, 6-1, saw a lot of action last year as a freshman. He is an excellent shooter and usually is matched up against the opposition's high scorer. He earned his nickname because of his propensity to karate chop opponents when the referees isn't looking. He uses his bulk (305 lbs.) to box out under the boards so that other Baruch players can snare rebounds.