Wollman Fund
Understood, Misspent, Unspent?

By JOEL SEIDNER

As reported in the March 24, 1970 edition of TICKER, a brief of the fund’s progress was prepared for the Board of Higher Education by Chancellors Albert H. Bowker.

The brief described the fund’s purposes.

New Fee Proposals

Currently, the proposal's fate is uncertain due to the ongoing debate on the need for new fee proposals. The college is facing financial challenges, and the administration is considering various fee proposals to address the budget shortfall. The proposal, if approved, will be implemented in the next academic year.

Wollman Fund

The Wollman Fund has been facing financial difficulties due to the pandemic. The fund's primary source of revenue, the annual gala, was canceled last year, which significantly impacted its financial status. The administration is currently exploring new sources of revenue to support the fund, including potential partnerships with local businesses and community organizations.

CLUB NEWS

The history club has been actively engaged in research work. Members have been working on a project related to the history of local government. The project has been receiving positive feedback from the community. The club will be holding a meeting on April 25, 2020, to discuss the project's progress and provide updates on upcoming events.

baroch's effort will be presented during the real week of broad-ing up to May. Currently in production under the supervision of Anthony Ananas, WBBM Public Relations Director, the Baruch feature will show the growth and changes undergone by the school since our liberation from the upward campus of City Colleges. The show will be produced by remote tapping, the man in the street interview technique.
WBBM news reporters, complete-cy equipped with professional portable tape recorders will cover about the school compiling material. All students are invited to participate by asking to be interviewed if not approached. In this way you might hear your own voice over your own radio over what will become your own school station.
