SUSPEND THE BOYCOTT

(SEE PAGE 2)

FACULTY TO MEET FRIDAY TO CONSIDER RECOMMENDATIONS OF COMMITTEE OF 26

LIBERATION OF STUDENT CENTER ENTERS FOURTH WEEK

Rally Held In
1500 Students Attend

BY ROBERT BARRETT

Yesterday started out like the other days during the boycott — there was the usual picketing, and student leaders on both sides were barking announcements about a 10 o'clock rally in the auditorium. But somewhere along the line, there was a decisive difference. The auditorium was jammed — packed — overflowing — with students and faculty. Some 1,500 people came to hear and see what was going on.

Steve Hornberger led the speakers by outlining the day's program. Three topics were to be discussed: the CUNY-wide strike, the student-faculty issue, and five tactics for the next few days.

Mark Citrin spoke about the university-wide strike. He informed the audience of those schools which were closed, and of those which were moving towards such action. He predicted that "every school by the end of the week will be closed down." Citrin also made note of the fact that high schools were involved in the CUNY strike, and that they too are acting.

Steve Bernstein discussed Cambodia. He stated that Nixon's plans for the war in Vietnam was just to "move the war 25 miles west," and that it was time to "stand tall against Nixon."

A report on the faculty was given by Howie Glasser. He read a list of those teachers who are taking attendance. The names were met with boos and cat-calls.

The microphone was turned over; once more, to Steve Hornberger. He told the audience that the Registrar's Office decided not to collect fees. In order to register, one need only to show identification. He also told of a suggestion, that will be presented at a meeting this Friday, for a grading system. Under this system — students will receive grades of A, B, D or J-no credit; there would be no failures. This was (Continued on Page 3)

By John Scherbrood

By a vote of 117 to 28, the Baruch College faculty voted to let President Weaver appoint the 13 faculty members to the Committee of 26.

Earlier in the week, after the last faculty meeting, President Weaver announced the appointment of thirteen faculty as temporary representatives to the Committee of 26. After the vote was taken at the meeting, it was announced that those appointed as interim members would become the permanent members, with the following changes: Professors van Leeuwen and Gunter were no longer on the committee, and Professors Leibowitz and Benowitz have been appointed to take their places.

During the meeting, after a motion by Professor John Bauer, concerning the disenfranchised faculty, was ruled out of order by President Weaver, the non-tenured (disenfranchised) faculty, who had been sitting in the rear of the auditorium, got up together and walked out of the meeting.

The walkout caused a commotion among the assembled faculty, and Lester J. Rosner, Dean of Administration, then got up and made a motion that President Weaver appoint a committee of five, to report in one month, on what can be done to give the vote to those faculty members who now cannot exercise that right. It was unanimously approved by the faculty.

For the record, the official Committee of 26 consists now of these people: DAY SESSION: Tom Swift, Alan Shoenberg; Leon Yancey, Mark Cohen, and Steve Hornberger; EVENING SESSION: Stanley Pomerantz, Elmo Surey, Frank Hodges, Robert Beaumont and John Richberg; GRADUATE DIVISION: Herb Beilman, Janet Roterd and Val Cavaller; FACULTY: Professors Beilman, Keveral, Elbert, Manners, Lowenstein, Lowenstein, Leibowitz, Halbstein, Parryear, Frazier, Gayle, Dennis and Benowitz.

The committee has been meeting regularly, every day, since last Friday. Their recommendations will be presented at the next general faculty meeting, which will be held this Friday at 2:15 PM in room 4 North.
Suspend The Boycott

Three Events

FACULTY MEETING

FRIDAY, MAY 8th – 2:10 P.M.
IN MEMORY OF THE
FOUR STUDENTS
MURDERED
BY THE
NATIONAL GUARD
AT
KENT STATE UNIVERSITY