Dean Rosner Dies

Dean Lester J. Rosner of Baruch College died Nov. 24 at age 80. He was pronounced dead at Columbus Hospital at 4:30, less than an hour after he had collapsed at a faculty meeting. He had been Dean of Administration at Baruch since March 1949.

Prior to that, the Dean, who was a career administrator with a broad and diverse background in public management, had served for two years as Assistant Regional Administrator for the New York State Department of Housing and Urban Development, serving New York and the New England states. Before that he had been Assistant Commissioner for Management at the City of New York Department of Health.

At Baruch, part of City University, he was responsible for a project against compulsory operations at the college, which has recently undergone substantial growth in programs, faculty, and students.

Following graduation from City College in 1938 where he was Phi Betta Kappa, the dean served until 1954 as research director of the City Affairs Committee of New York. He also served in the military service in 1943 as a volunteer Officer Candidate, and served as chief administrative officer of the 1st Armored Division, stationed at Birmingham, Alabama, separating from service in 1946 with the rank of Lieutenant. Mr. Rosner was Assistant Regional Counsel of the National Housing agency, and in 1947-48 he engaged in private law practice in Little Rock, Arkansas. In 1949 to 1954 he was a management consultant and partner in Survey InstruBments, an engineering firm specializing in surveys of public and nonprofit agencies.

Prior to becoming Dean, Mr. Rosner was Captain of the City College LaCrosse Yeoman in 1956 having being commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the Army Reserve in 1954. He was a member of several alumni organizations. He died Nov. 24 at age 80. He was pronounced dead at Columbus Hospital at 4:30, less than an hour after he had collapsed at a faculty meeting. He had been Dean of Administration at Baruch since March 1949.

Dean Rosner was the daughter of two brothers and two sisters. He resided at 60 Gramercy Park.

Here comes Christmas

Faculty To Look Ahead

Dean Lavender said that if no unwriting of the Liberal Arts School were to be had, the

Peace Corps

As the Peace Corps of this in its 10th birthday, a survey reveals that since its inception, 22 volunteers from 1956 to 1960, and held by the Peace Corps, has been significant national values in volunteer enrollment have been posted in such academic skill categories as business administration.

Parents Day

Parents Day is the time when parents of Baruch's freshmen come to the school to learn about the college. It is a time when the questions that are in their minds—things that they don't understand or that they want to find out—are answered.

Mr. Tribble outlined the day's procedure. The parents would be directed into the auditorium for an hour long program, consisting of speeches by President Lavender, the Baruch College Student Association who will direct parents to the rooms that they will speak with a faculty member and student leader. A Parent's Day booklet was given to each person in the Baruch College Student Association.

The schudual was followed, all went well, and Parent's Day was over by 5:00.

The questions of the parents that the parents had been of general interest, such as campus facilities, dormitories, and the grading system. Others were more personalized, pertaining to specific courses, curriculum, procedure, and individual problems.

Present Cohen said it was "an extremely successful Parents Day. We had the largest turnout of faculty. He congratulated Mr. Tribble on an "excellent job," and expressed his sincere thanks to all of the faculty and student leaders for "giving up a private day."

Dean Lavender, ad did other faculty members, "found it to be a very valuable, exciting day." He was "encouraged that students and parents have as much to offer each other as it is possible to offer them." Dean Saidel was "encouraged that faculty members have shown an interest in the College, and that they were enthused about the college."

The Boosters did an excellent job of seeing to it that refreshments were devoured quickly and had to be replaced. He said, "We had to break into the Oreo cookies."

Interview with John Bal

John Bal is perhaps better known as the cop who is being thrown off the force because of the length of his hair. He is currently a Business Major at Baruch College, having attended American Vocational High School, and Queensborough Community College. In 1956 he received an honorable discharge from the Navy, and was appointed as a patrolman in the New York City Police Dept. on Oct. 25, 1956. Since that time, he has received a medal for meritorious duty and two medals for excellent police service. He was a member of the police department that year.

George: You have been identified mainly with young people in terms of support. Do you feel this image hurts you?

John: No! Youth holds the hopes of everyone for the future. I identify with young people—not cops. I do see a deeper need for a new type of policeman. The present image of a cop is attracting people to become policemen who want to meet the image. I welcome support from any person, student to hardened, who is willing to give. Both sides would like to see things better.

George: What led you to join the force?

John: I saw it as a challenge. Did you ever think of all the information that passes through the police department? I was a

Under the strain of numerous rumors concerning the Peace Corps program and the College itself, the General Faculty has formed a committee to investigate the future of the College.

With so much information dealing with funding and BHE plans unavailable for public consumption, as Prof. Benewitz stated, "Right On," or Peace. So far about five members of the faculty, the opinion of many committees that without the power to act great deal of time and conclude nothing.

Dean Lavender said that if no unwriting of the Liberal Arts School were to be had, the

Peace Corps

As the Peace Corps of this in its 10th birthday, a survey reveals that since its inception, 22 volunteers from 1956 to 1960, and held by the Peace Corps, has been significant national values in volunteer enrollment have been posted in such academic skill categories as business administration.

Parents Day

Parents Day is the time when parents of Baruch's freshmen come to the school to learn about the college. It is a time when the questions that are in their minds—things that they don't understand or that they want to find out—are answered.

Mr. Tribble outlined the day's procedure. The parents would be directed into the auditorium for an hour long program, consisting of speeches by President Lavender, the Baruch College Student Association who will direct parents to the rooms that they will speak with a faculty member and student leader. A Parent's Day booklet was given to each person in the Baruch College Student Association.

The schudual was followed, all went well, and Parent's Day was over by 5:00.

The questions of the parents that the parents had been of general interest, such as campus facilities, dormitories, and the grading system. Others were more personalized, pertaining to specific courses, curriculum, procedure, and individual problems.

Present Cohen said it was "an extremely successful Parents Day. We had the largest turnout of faculty. He congratulated Mr. Tribble on an "excellent job," and expressed his sincere thanks to all of the faculty and student leaders for "giving up a private day."

Dean Lavender, ad did other faculty members, "found it to be a very valuable, exciting day." He was "encouraged that students and parents have as much to offer each other as it is possible to offer them." Dean Saidel was "encouraged that faculty members have shown an interest in the College, and that they were enthused about the college."

The Boosters did an excellent job of seeing to it that refreshments were devoured quickly and had to be replaced. He said, "We had to break into the Oreo cookies."

Interview with John Bal

John Bal is perhaps better known as the cop who is being thrown off the force because of the length of his hair. He is currently a Business Major at Baruch College, having attended American Vocational High School, and Queensborough Community College. In 1956 he received an honorable discharge from the Navy, and was appointed as a patrolman in the New York City Police Dept. on Oct. 25, 1956. Since that time, he has received a medal for meritorious duty and two medals for excellent police service. He was a member of the police department that year.

George: You have been identified mainly with young people in terms of support. Do you feel this image hurts you?

John: No! Youth holds the hopes of everyone for the future. I identify with young people—not cops. I do see a deeper need for a new type of policeman. The present image of a cop is attracting people to become policemen who want to meet the image. I welcome support from any person, student to hardened, who is willing to give. Both sides would like to see things better.

George: What led you to join the force?

John: I saw it as a challenge. Did you ever think of all the information that passes through the police department? I was a

Continued on Page 4
PLACEMENT

On Saturday, December 12th, 1970, the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences of Baruch College will sponsor the first Placement Fair of the year. This is an opportunity for students in the area to view a variety of jobs, and for students to find out more about fields of study and careers that are available to them. The event is open to all students, and will be held from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM in the College auditorium, 17 Lexington Ave. (at 23rd St.).}

Minority grads

On Saturday, December 12th, 1970, the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences of Baruch College will sponsor a Study on the Graduation Experience of Minority Students. This is an opportunity for students in the area to view a variety of jobs, and for students to find out more about fields of study and careers that are available to them. The event is open to all students, and will be held from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM in the College auditorium, 17 Lexington Ave. (at 23rd St.).}

Charity

On Saturday, December 12th, 1970, the College of Agriculture and Applied Sciences of Baruch College will sponsor a Study on the Graduation Experience of Minority Students. This is an opportunity for students in the area to view a variety of jobs, and for students to find out more about fields of study and careers that are available to them. The event is open to all students, and will be held from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM in the College auditorium, 17 Lexington Ave. (at 23rd St.).}

Tax Seminar

A half-day series of lectures on technical and practical aspects of tax strategy, with the following schedule: 12:00 noon-1:00 noon, Baruch College; 1:00 noon-2:00 noon, Baruch College; 2:00 noon-3:00 noon, Baruch College; 3:00 noon-4:00 noon, Baruch College; 4:00 noon-5:00 noon, Baruch College. The program, sponsored by the New York City Bar Association, will provide a review of recent changes in tax laws and regulations. Tickets are $5.00 each, and may be purchased at the door. The seminar is open to the public.}

French Week

- French Club
- French Film Festival
- French Week '71
- French Festival

New Club

The "UNIVERSITY OF CHRISTIAN STUDENTS" will be having a free film screening on Tuesday, Dec. 5th, 1970, in the College auditorium, 17 Lexington Ave. (at 23rd St.).}

Geology

- GEOLOGY FIELD TRIP
- A Geology field trip will be conducted via bus to the Catskill Mountains, and will start at 9:00 AM on December 20, 1970. The bus will leave from the College auditorium, 17 Lexington Ave. (at 23rd St.).}

FRANCY

French Week will mark the end of the week at Baruch. During the week there will be three French week concerts. The first will be held on December 19th at 5:15 PM, in the College auditorium, 17 Lexington Ave. (at 23rd St.). The second will be held on December 20th at 12:15 PM, in the College auditorium, 17 Lexington Ave. (at 23rd St.). The third will be held on December 21st at 5:15 PM, in the College auditorium, 17 Lexington Ave. (at 23rd St.).}

Reward

If you see a woman between 21 and 35 years of age, with a blonde hair, blue eyes, and a blue dress, please contact the French Week committee. The reward for information leading to the location of these women is $500.00.}

Learn KARATE

For Self-Defense & Fitness of Mind and Body
at S. HENRY CHOS
KARATE INSTITUTE, INC.
135 W. 23rd St.,
NEW YORK CITY

Packaged Ski Weekends!
The original Zilzmark Ski Tours, Inc. have finally come to New York. Now is your chance to get the special six-weekends you've been hoping for. Call 212-266-5304.

ITALIAN'S
THE WORLD OVER
KNOW THEM!
Movie
at 12 Noon Rm 1303
Thurs. 12-3
DANTE SOCIETY
ALL WELCOME

BEER BLAST

Thursday Dec. 17, 1970
2 PM-4PM
AFTER CONVOCATION
Dancing to live rock music
Tickets are $2
See Mrs. Ross
Student Center Lobby
Interview with John Bol

Continued from Page 1

Dear Aunt Eva,

You will be asked to participate in the Blood Drive very soon. You will be asked to help save the life of your fellow Baruchians.

Peace Corps

Continued from Page 1

Peace Corps

Dear Aunt Eva,

You are a very knowledgeable person, and I hope you can help me with something. I am considering joining the Peace Corps, but I am unsure about what to expect.

Peace Corps volunteers serve in countries around the world, helping to address pressing issues such as poverty, hunger, disaster recovery, and promoting peace and stability. Volunteers work alongside local communities, helping to build their capacity to address these issues. Peace Corps programs focus on three areas: economic development, community development, and environmental conservation. Volunteers work in a variety of areas, including education, health, agriculture, and more.

The Peace Corps offers a unique opportunity to live and work in a different culture, learn new skills, and make a meaningful contribution to the world. Volunteers also have the opportunity to travel to other countries, which can be a great experience.

Peace Corps volunteers receive a monthly stipend to cover living expenses, and they are provided with housing and other support. The Peace Corps also offers health insurance, and volunteers receive a small educational stipend upon completion of their service.

I am interested in learning more about the Peace Corps, and I would appreciate your advice on whether it is a good fit for me. Please feel free to share any information or experiences you have had with the Peace Corps.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
an eye for an ear

the incredible string band after a short acoustic set Norman Greenbaum did some more numbers music that everybody was getting off on the audience loved it; they...

they were impressed: "back home again" the Incredible String Band, much of the audience and signed him to a contract later professional that he is, gave up the—Iren; for the School of the Deaf—on Wednesday, December 2

please give generously

if you are graduating in June your picture must be taken now.

Senior Pictures Free

at Lorstan Studios From now until Dec 18
1503 Third Ave Mon-Sat 9:30-5pm (at 83rd street) Thurs 9:30-6pm

Division of Counseling
DEPT. OF STUDENT Personnel Services

A SYMPOSIUM
"Where Am I At?"
(The Search For Identity)

Thursday Dec. 3rd at 12 and 5:15
FRENCH CLUB presents
The Popular Pacific String Trio
Student Center French Food

BOOSTERS
Cheerleader Drive SENORS
for the School of the Deaf on Wednesday, December 2

SINDONING ROOM 522

CALL JEFF for office sports 446-6944 or 446-2087

Lowest Prices
Compare

Every Top Brand
Huge Discounts

As well as factory returns, plus 10% more 5 day money back guarantee

the phoenix in remixing our way into a new age...