REGISTRATION FOR SPRING '72
TO BEGIN SOON

Registration for the spring '72 semester will begin within a few weeks.

Each student will receive by mail a packet containing an IBM master card, an IBM bursar card, a registration card, an alternate course card, and a letter of instruction including appointment date and time. Class schedules can be picked up at the Registrar's Office of Student Center.

Schedules will be available in the lobby of the drop-off area and closed course fliers will be available in case a student has to adjust his program. After a student checks his program he must show his Bursar's receipt to a member of the Registrar's staff, who will record the Bursar's number on the student's registration card. At this time, a legibility check will also be done. When this is completed, the program will be initialed and dated by the Registrar's staff.

The student is told on which day to pick up a computerized confirmation. It is estimated that seniors and juniors will be one day after drop-off, sophomores and freshmen, two days. This will give deans and department chairman time to analyze section tallies. The Registrar's staff will then pull course cards for the student's program. When completed, it will be checked and placed in a tray to go to the computer center that evening. If there is a problem, the alternate course will be used or another section will be substituted. If there is still a problem, the program will be put into pending for the student.

At the end of the day, all completed programs will be brought to the computer center. The computer center will produce a course and section tally report, a student program confirmation, and a closed course listing which will be on stencil paper for distribution in the main building student center.

Wingfield, Senour
Meet with Students

President Clyde Wingfield and Dean of Students Roy Senour met with students last Wednesday, November 22, from 12 to 2 p.m., in the Oak Lounge. "They chatted with students about the ups and downs of Baruch over tea, coffee, punch, and cake. Some students had specific problems and interest to discuss with the gentlemen. Deans and department chairmen will be supplied with the course and section tally report and the closed course listing so that decisions to open additional sections and close others will then be accomplished on a daily basis.

On the appropriate day, the student will go into a separate area to pick up his confirmation. He will be able to verify his program and, if any corrections are necessary, they will be done immediately. If the student's program could not be completed, he will be aided to complete his program.

Faculty members and curriculum counselors will be available at all times.

I can't study.

What do you think about... TICKER using condom ads?

Dear Editor,
The recent copy has been quite stimulatingly written. We may not have agreed, but it's a start. How about those college professors—don't they have a problem with politics stepping into their private life in their classrooms and helping them to teach? This is a question of questions, so it is well worth it.

Best wishes,

So much for your self-appointed moral or legal authority. Anybody who looks at the history of the world, and the history of human society, and then asks the question of what is 'right,' 'just,' or 'good,' will find the answer in the reality of human life and progress. Any form of authority that is not based on the consent of the governed is inherently illegitimate. That is why I say that the system of law as we know it is a sham and a fraud.

Graduate "Special Students" Get New Financial Aid

A new student aid fund especially designed to help graduate "special stu­ents" who have voluntarily migrated to New York for higher education has been established at Baruch College by a gift from the Jewish Defense League.

The new fund will be used to assist students who have voluntarily migrated to New York for higher education. Virtually all students from abroad who apply for graduate study are faced with the problem of financing their education.

Generally, a student from abroad is eligible to receive aid only if he has, Oscar Lasdon, '30, editor of The Banker's Magazine, who helped originate the article, expressed his hope that the fund would be successful.

Mr. Lasdon is a trustee of the Jewish Defense League and is the author of "The Jewish Defense League: A Plea for the Jews in America's Liberal Future." He said that the fund would be used to help students from abroad who are unable to finance their education because of financial difficulties.

Mr. Lasdon also expressed his belief that the new fund would be a great discovery for students from abroad who are unable to finance their education.

The fund will be administered by the Jewish Defense League and will be open to students from all countries.

The new fund is in addition to the existing financial aid programs available to students from abroad.

Baruch Bowling

This past week at Bowl Mor Lanes, 110 University Place, here in Manhattan, in the Eastern Intercollegiate Bowling Conference, saw Baruch's top team, the Bowling Team, meet the perennial conference champs, Pace College. Bowling only draws only drab and weary crowds when the pest are around, but it seemed like they were all here. Baruch Bowl during the match between Baruch and Pace. Pace has the team with the highest league average, Baruch is second, having the highest number of percentage points, and leads the conference, Pace was second. It seemed that the whole league was waiting for that day. In what should have been the match of the century, Baruch turned out to be very, very well-prepared. Pace seemed out of their league. This was Baruch all the way, as they won 922 to 869. In the 2nd game, a strong finish, after a poor start, by the Baruchians, proved too much for the Pace College five. Baruch won game number two, 599 to 594. And in the third, history repeated itself when, in the 4th frame, the Pace team began to falter, and our team was steadfast and relentless as they went on to the sweep by winning the game, 267.

Two points are awarded for winning each game, and one point for the three-game total, seven points in all.

High for Baruch was Hiller Banoff with a 256 and 462 series, next was Captain Al Gross with 215 and 594 for three. Bernie Lubkowski hit 291 and second place overall was George Gentzen with a 198 during the same game to help the cause. The other top was Ray Hockstein, who was, however, only half-way to the games. All in all, a very good effort!

The team's advisor, was, to say the least, overwhelmed.

Baruch College soccer team closed out its season with a 2-0 victory over Brooklyn Poly, at Ralston Park in Queens Saturday. Baruch had come close before last year's loss, but this year's win set the Baruchites on top of the field. In the first half, Ktilt, a freshman forward, placed Baruch in the lead on a goal 10 minutes past halftime, for the 1-0 lead. The game continued on for one more point on the board, and the Baruchites took the lead by a final score of 2-0.

The first Baruch cross-country team ended on a high note. Coach Doc Kellar's Baruchites finished fifth in the City University Championships (CUNY Champs) and had a 3-6 won-lost dual meet season record. Sophomore Jack Haraya was Baruch's main man halfback, who played a strong game, and one point for the three-game total. He was, to say the least, overwhelmed.
