Basketball Team Ends 5 Game Winning Streak

After winning five straight games, the Baruch Basketball Team ended its winning streak by losing its sixth game of the season.

The Baruch basketball team ran its season-opening winning streak to five games with a 90-79 victory over Williams College of Rhode Island before encountering its first loss, 68-66, to New Hampshire College.

Both teams came into the Baruch game with a 3-1 record with only one point loss to New Hampshire marring their ledger. For the first eleven minutes it was a close game.

Each had early leads of 8-3 and 12-12. Two consecutive three-point plays by Ralph Roberts and Curtis Strickland gave the Hawks an 8-3 advantage. With just under nine minutes left in the first half Williams held a 24-22 lead. Then Baruch exploded.

During the next seven minutes Baruch scored 19 straight points, a school record, to take a commanding 43-24 lead. Baruch's fullcourt press and zone defense forced Williams into numerous turnovers. The visitors hardly got off a shot and missed all three free throw attempts while Baruch was pulling away.

Aldrich Carnegie started the streak with a driving basket. Bill Robinson's layup put the home club ahead to stay. Mark Sparks sank a jumper shot from the foul line and Jordan Wiseman put the finishing touches on the surge.

Baruch led 49-31 at the half, and Wilkerson began an 11-0 run for Baruch after trailing by only 17-15 midway through the first half. After trailing by two points at the basket, the Baruch defense forced two turnovers and Hart had 11 points before fouling cut.

New Hampshire College ran its record to 3-1 with a victory over Baruch. "We came here to win," New Hampshire's head coach said. "We came here to win..." He then added, "We will not be much of a problem for Baruch."

Baruch hit a jump shot and Jordan Wiseman landed a 13-point drive that made it 46-38. Baruch closed within five points, but some excellent free throw shooting and some important defensive stops by Baruch's guards did the trick.

Williams and Wilkerson had 9, Taylor 8 and Stein, who also had three free throw attempts while were by a total of 12 points—four to York, six to Williams—led the way.

Baruch after trailing by only 38-32 in the first half wound up with a 2-point lead. Then Baruch exploded.

Friday night Old Westbury State is the opponent at the Baruch gym, starting at 7:30. Old Westbury is a relatively new school only in its second year of basketball, but still has 5-4 Reggie Speights, the league's Most Valuable Player.

Hunter rebuilt itself this year with several new junior college transfers. They have been involved in several close games while running up a 3-3 record. Their three losses were by a total of 13 points—four to York, six to New Hampshire, and one to Westbury.

Hunter has beaten Baruch the last two years and the home club will be out for revenge this time.

Baruch will stay active during January, a 19-game schedule including seven home contests. The Baruch basketball team will play New Hampshire, not a major, at 8:00 p.m. in New York City.

courses in religion to be offered

At last Liberal Arts Faculty meeting the faculty, by a show of hands, adopted 25 new undergraduate courses in religious studies, which, taken with almost 20 existing courses in many departments here, constitute a new program called "Religion and Culture." Many of the new courses treat of Jewish and Christian studies, although the program includes unspecified group of 10 "Special Studies in Religion," as well as others focusing on atheism, agnosticism, and oriental religion.

The program is under the continuing guidance of its founding committee, which consists of Dean, Clark, W. E. L., Henry L. Feingold, History, Thomas R. Bruse, and Mr. Neal Bergman, the Society planned what they considered to be a fine agenda.

The Workshop will take place at the Deer Park Farm in Oldhambury, N.Y.

NEW STANDARDS SET

Undergraduate Courses of Study Bulletin, p. 10, "Scholarship Requirements," stating: "A student may, without warning, be dismissed from the college if: 1) his cumulative average drops to 15 or fewer grade points on 0-32 credits earned.

2) his cumulative average is 15 or fewer quality points on 26 or more credits earned.

3) his overall average is 15 or fewer quality points on 26 or more credits earned.

The Workshop will take place at the Deer Park Farm in Oldhambury, N.Y.

Koromantee Presents Black Night

The Society of Koromantee presented Black Night on Thursday, December 15. The evening consisted of a performance by the Kuumbira troupe of dancers and drummers, poetry readings by Eric Glade, Rilla Jackson, and Diane Ritter, a film and discussion on Angola by Raymond Nhala, a jazz and rock dance, and a talk by Addison Gayle, Jr.

Mr. Gayle, Jr., an Assistant Professor of English here at Baruch College, and author and editor of several books on Black Expressions, talked about oppression in "a new and different light." The Workshop will take place at the Deer Park Farm in Oldhambury, N.Y.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT REFERENDUM

Read it and VOTE

In the 1st floor lobby of the main building,

The Student Senate will soon present a referendum to the student body. The referendum must be defeated.

There is no reason for this referendum. It is argued that students are on "strike" and that would not be sensible. Century students will not be re-elected due to the poor performance of this semester's Senate. If the Senate asks that the referendum be defeated, then it should make that decision.

The Senator Study has the right to elect its representatives. The Senate is trying to deny them this right. The Senate must be defeated. The referendum must be defeated.

A Letter From
Roberto Rodriguez,
Chairman of the Student Government

To the Editor:

We are students who are in favor of this referendum. We feel that the referendum will benefit the student body and help to improve the academic programs at the school. As Chairman of the Student Government, I urge you to support the referendum and vote yes.

Sincerely,
Roberto Rodriguez
Chairman of the Student Government

OPEN LETTER

To the Editor:

I am a student at Baruch College and I want to express my disappointment with the recent events. The university administration has failed to address the concerns of the students and has made decisions without consulting them. This is unacceptable and I urge you to take action.

The Outsider

Student Government in Action

(Hal Hal)

by Mike Young and Mitch Greenwald

On the eve of December 13, 1971, the Student Senate attempted to pass a resolution to the faculty which would, if the resolution was in effect, be nullified by the faculty. The resolution was in effect, the faculty would have the right to pass the resolution and it would be nullified by the faculty.

However, all is not bleak—there's light on the horizon. The Faculty Senate has already begun meeting and it is hoped that your resolutions will reach them.

There is an urgent need for this information to be distributed to all students. The Student Senate has already begun meeting and it is hoped that your resolutions will reach them.

Fugitive 1138 (Three Stars) • Released by Warner Brothers

Directed by George Lucas

It's not easy to make a film that is both entertaining and controversial. Fugitive 1138 is a perfect example of this. The film is both entertaining and controversial, and it is a perfect example of how difficult it is to make a film that is both entertaining and controversial.

The film is about a group of people who are trying to escape from a government facility. They are being hunted by the government, and they are trying to avoid capture. The film is a perfect example of how difficult it is to make a film that is both entertaining and controversial.

The film is both entertaining and controversial, and it is a perfect example of how difficult it is to make a film that is both entertaining and controversial.
