The administration of Furman University has decided to close all buildings and dormitories. There is no evidence of any threat to the safety of the students. Please note that the opportunity is open to all students, faculty, and staff to return to Furman University at any time. The decision to close the buildings was made after careful consideration of all available information. The Furman University police department is also on campus 24 hours a day, and security measures are in place. Please be assured that the administration is taking all necessary precautions to ensure the safety and well-being of the entire community. For more information, please contact the Furman University police department at 864-294-7500.
