We endorse the principles stated in this New York Times editorial.

The Next Four Years

It is less than six months, we, the American people will have a new President and Vice President. In these last months of the Administration of President Nixon, we have been watching the Administration of President Nixon. In America, many are waiting to see how the Administration of President Nixon will continue. The Administration of President Nixon has been taking some very important steps towards the betterment of America. In America, many are waiting to see how the Administration of President Nixon will continue. The Administration of President Nixon has been taking some very important steps towards the betterment of America.

The Administration of President Nixon has indeed had its spectacular triumphs; it seems to us, in many respects, it seems to us, the Presidency of President Nixon has indeed been the most important of the last four years. But we also need to remember that, for all its success in certain areas, is essentially a country under threat. By the end of this 4-year period, we will have had the presidency of President Nixon for four years. President Nixon has been accused of not living up to his promises. The Administration of President Nixon has been criticized for not living up to its promises, especially in the areas of the economy and foreign policy.

It is clear that Mr. McGovern, the Democratic nominee, is going to be the new President for the next four years. I have been asked to return a letter that you wrote, and I have no memory of ever writing it. I believe that it was due to a miscommunication on my part, and I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you.

It's nice to see you all once again. I've been busy, like 'grave. They walk and walk but they can't find it ... through out the days. They are lazy, they are losers, etc. The question is, are these the answers? We have learned from practical experience that the surplus grain produced here in America is much better. The same is true in other parts of the world. It's nice to see you all once again. P've been busy, like 'grave. They walk and walk but they can't find it ...

Eastern's Leisure Class.
Sometimes it's Coach, Sometimes it's First Class.
Sometimes it's Free.

Usually you pay Youth Fare and you get a seat in Coach.
After you buy a Leisure Class ticket at the regular Youth Fare, any of these things can happen.
Since Leisure Class is a Conditional Reservation, it's possible you won't get on the flight you made a reservation for. But, if you do, you'll usually get a seat in Coach.

If Coach is full and First Class isn't, you get First Class.
You'll get a seat in First Class, Drink First Class drinks and enjoy First Class service.
And you still enjoy the Youth Fare.
1% of all the people who bought a Leisure
Class ticket last year got a First Class seat.

The Wings of Man.

If you have to wait for a flight with an available seat, it might be anywhere from several minutes to several hours. Of course, the number of Leisure Class reservations is limited per flight and not available on all our flights to all destinations or on all fares. Nor when the plane itself is grounded due to equipment, substitutions or failures or weather conditions.

Eastern Airlines at 985-5000. Or call your travel agent. They're the only ones who can sell you a Leisure Class.

Leaf Through Leaflets

By JOYCE ROSENBERG

As everyone knows, New York is full of people who are always passing on leaflets and literature. I began to feel all over about the littering of leaflets. I decided to see if I could pick up any of the discarded leaflets in the Student Union. I found that there is a tremendous amount of leaflets, some of which are actually quite interesting.

I have found a couple of ways to deal with this problem. One is to pick up some of the discarded leaflets and either throw them away or use them for something else, like homemade cards or decorations. Another way is to throw them away.

The idea of a "film written and directed by Gualtiero Jacopetti and Franco Prosperi" with music by Riz Ortolani is exciting. "North of the area" is a new film that explores the relationship between art and life in a small Italian town.

Some Questions

by EUGENIO ZAMBRANO

What do we expect from college life? What do we hope to achieve? These are questions that many students confront. How do we define "success" in college? Is it measured by grades, or by involvement in extracurricular activities? What do we expect from college life? Have we ever considered the role that college life plays in shaping our future?

QUESTION: I am an attractive young woman, having just left the junior college. I think I'm going to go to graduate school next year, and I'm working at a newspaper to save money. I'm very interested in current events, and I think I have some pretty good ideas about how things should be. I'm also a pacifist, and I believe in non-violent solutions to social problems.

QUESTION: I am 10 years old and at home having a mental breakdown from boredom. I feel that there is something wrong with my life.

Are you interested in art, music, literature, or philosophy? I think you might be interested in participating in the Jewish Awareness Workshop. The workshop is free to all students, and it will be held on campus at Baruch College. You can contact the workshop organizers for more information.

The soccer team has just completed the most successful period in its two-year history. In a span of eight days Coach Walter Kopczuk's team has picked up two victories, a tie and a loss to bring the season's record to 4-1-3.

Baruch has four games left. Tomorrow afternoon they host St. Peter's in Jersey City and then they travel to New York City to compete in the Met. Conference games against C.W. Post, Saturday; Hunter, Election Day and Kings Point, Wednesday. A sweep of the Conference games could possibly put Baruch into third place in Division 2 with a 4-3-1 record.

Baruch began its current streak by playing a 1-1 tie with Brooklyn College, the leading team in the Division. "They are the strongest team in our division commented Kopczuk, "but we played very well against them. Brooklyn took a 1-0 lead, but Brian Knott scored his fourth goal of the season to tie the game even to the score.

New York Tech dealt Baruch a 3-1 loss with Paul Kutil's goal helping the Statesmen avoid a second straight blunder by the Bears.

Baruch bounced back two days later to shutout Manhattan College, 3-0, at Van Cortlandt Park for the first win of the season in Met. Conference play. The first half was eventually played with Baruch gaining a 1-0 lead, but Brian Knott scored his fourth goal of the season to tie the game even to the score.
