One To One Day At Baruch

By Michael G. Agranoff

Last Sunday, December 14, there was a Christmas party at Baruch for the mentally retarded. This party was sponsored by Sigma Alpha, a group that measures how well was the jaundice. Nielsen goes about its huge task, into several groups—gift wrapping, gigantically random sampling administration. After all the gifts were delivered, the children might appreciate. The A.C. Nielsen Company has the biggest undertaking. Ms. Zidovsky and Mike Hudak of the for the mentally retarded. This party was sponsored by Sigma Alpha at Baruch College held its annual Convocation last Thursday, December 14, in the auditorium. Appearing were Frankie Dante with Orchestra Flamboyan, Bulldog, and Earth, Wind, and Fire. The groups played a full set. Everyone went down to the cafeteria for the arts and crafts session where they made puppets out of cardboard cutouts where they put their heads. This last action was commented on by Ms. Zidovsky, who mentioned specifically the pot smoking in the lower left part of the auditorium. The atmosphere at Convocation was generally a cheerful one, enhanced by the usual passing of wine bottles, incense burning, and marijuana smoking. This last action was commented on by Ms. Zidovsky, who mentioned specifically the pot smoking in the lower left part of the auditorium.

The first group to play, Orchestra Flamboyan, started their set with the title song from their forthcoming album, El Presidente. While they played, members of the audience got up to dance in front of the stage. Following their performance, the audience clapped in time to the music. The last group was Bulldog, who played, among other songs, their new single, "No." They were well received by the audience, who on occasion clapped in time to the music.

The biggest hit of the afternoon proved to be Earth, Wind & Fire. The atmosphere at Convocation was generally a cheerful one, enhanced by the usual passing of wine bottles, incense burning, and marijuana smoking. This last action was commented on by Ms. Zidovsky, who mentioned specifically the pot smoking in the lower left part of the auditorium. About the only bad side to Convocation was its length. At the beginning people crowded the aisles but towards the end there were a few empty seats, presumably because people were not able to stay through the whole show.

As tradition dictates, Convocation was followed by a Beer Blast. Sponsored by Student Government and the Senior Class, it was held at the Headrest, 36 East 22nd St. The biggest hit of the afternoon proved to be Earth, Wind & Fire. Puerto Rican Week Is A Hit

By Robin Laughlin

After about two months of preparations, Puerto Rican Week in New York City was a hit. The week concluded on December 11, with a celebration that included parades, festivals, and concerts.

The purpose of Puerto Rican Week was to promote cultural awareness and to highlight the achievements of Puerto Ricans in the United States. The week was a success, with thousands of people participating in the various events.

Tuesday's program consisted of a parade and a festival. The parade was a colorful spectacle, with floats, music, and dancers. The festival was a celebration of Puerto Rican culture, with food, music, and entertainment.

Wednesday's program was a concert featuring Puerto Rican musicians. The concert was held at the State University of New York at Purchase, and it was a great success.

The week concluded with a huge celebration on Friday night. The celebration included a parade, a festival, and a concert. The concert featured many Puerto Rican musicians, and it was a great way to end the week.

...with the current committee system of Student Government. The Fall '72 term will end in three weeks and there are still some committees that have not organized themselves. Only three committees have been functioning since their inception—BCCC, Senior Class Affairs Committee and Marketing Committee. A special meeting of all appointees was called on December 8 in the Student Union to consider the problems of committees which do not exist.

There are serious problems with the way committees have been functioning. This is due to a lack of leadership, communication and purpose. The committees that have been functioning have been functioning in order to cater to the needs of the students. CRITIC

"CHILD'S PLAY" is Not For The Kiddies

By Steven Rabin

The film is about a Catholic boy's search for identity in a time of personal and family crisis. The movie is a poignant exploration of the complexities of childhood and adolescence, and it's a Journey that the viewer is taken on a trip of discovery and growth.

The film is directed by Robert Marasco and starsamentals are remarkable. The performances are powerful and moving, and the cinematography is stunning. The film is a beautiful representation of the human experience and what it means to be a child in today's world.

The plot of the film revolves around a young boy who is struggling with his identity and his place in the world. He is forced to confront his inner demons and face the challenges of growing up in a turbulent and confusing time.

The film is a touching and thought-provoking piece of cinema that will resonate with audiences of all ages. It is a must-see for anyone who is interested in exploring the complexities of childhood and adolescence.

The only name that springs to mind is Zim Lines, which is by far the largest Zim Line ship. Zim Lines is an Israeli shipping company that operates a fleet of container ships around the world. It is one of the largest container shipping companies in the world, and it is also one of the most successful.

Zim Lines' ships are equipped with the latest technology, and they are designed to be as efficient as possible. Zim Lines is also known for its commitment to sustainability, and it is one of the few shipping companies that has a carbon footprint that is below the average for the industry.

In terms of safety, Zim Lines has a very strong record. It is one of the few shipping companies that has not had a major accident in recent years. Zim Lines is also known for its customer service, and it is one of the few shipping companies that is willing to go the extra mile to help its customers.

Zim Lines is a great company, and it is definitely worth considering if you are looking to work on Zim Line operations in Israel. Zim Lines is a company that is interested in finding talented and dedicated individuals to join its team. If you are interested, you should definitely look into it.
Basketball Team's Biggest Victory

This is the biggest victory in Baruch history," stated Coach Bobby Sand after his team had just upset Hunter College, 70-67, on the Hawks court Saturday night.

The impressive triumph capped Baruch's best week ever. Last Tuesday the Statesmen rolled over NYU, 82-67, and on the Thursday in a one-sided win over an undermanned faculty team.

The victories over NYU and Hunter gave Baruch a 4-1 record, the second best of any City University team. Only Lehman with a 6-0 mark tops Baruch and the Statesmen take on the Lancers in February.

In both games the Baruch zone press took the oppositions out of the game early. NYU was forced into a record 17 turnovers while Hunter the defending Knickerbocker Conference champs, committed 14 turnovers in the first half as they fell behind by 20 points.

Sand cleared his bench against the wilting Violets and all 11 players scored. John Adams took scoring honors with 27 points in both games the Baruch zone the wilting Violets and all 11 Conference champions, committed in with a 6-0 mark tops Baruch and University team. Baruch's best week ever. Last Tuesday bounced back with a run of 12 Bobby Sand after his team had just upset Hunter College, 76-67, on the court. Baruch then held the ball forcing Hunter out of its zone. Clever ball handling by Holman and Adams killed most of the clock. With two minutes left the lead was back to 13.

Adams finished with 18 points followed by Jordan robinson with 15 each, Stein with 10 and Conboy and Holman with 8 each. Stein was the top rebounder with 6 before fouling out 6 minutes from the end.

After four straight road games the Statesmen return home Thursday night for a game against Hawthorne College at the 69th Regiment Armony, 32nd St. and Lexington Ave., starting at 7:30.

The Statesmen, although not too well known in this area has been one of New England top small college teams. Last year they win 16 games.

Baruch never trailed in the meet until that final bout. Led by Steve Smith, Arthur Sundre, Al Mira, Steve Kursar and Barry Portney, they won the first round 5-4 and the second round 6-3 to gain a 11-3 edge. Brooklyn showed its class by rallying when the chips were down. In the final bout Portney, who had won in the first two rounds, matched his opponents at four touches each. However, his opponent succeeded in gaining the final touche to win the match.

Steve Smith won all three of his sabre bouts, but Brooklyn took five of the other six. Brooklyn also won foil 5-3. Baruch did win epee 6-3 as Sundre, Mira and Kursar each took two of three bouts.

The loss dropped the fencers record to 1-3. All of the losses have been to quality teams. The previous two losses were to Newmark Rutgers, 18-4, and they are ranked nationally; and to William Patterson, 21-6 a team which has beaten powerful Columbia this year.

In its opening match Baruch defeated John Jay, 22-5. Steve Smith led that victory by putting three 50 wins.

This afternoon at 4:00 the fencers meet Brooklyn Poly in the Baruch gym.

Fencing Team Upset's Almost

The fencing team came within one touch of upsetting powerful Brooklyn College last Saturday in the Baruch gym.

The Kingsmen, who have had two undefeated duel meet seasons in recent years, had to win the final two dual bouts to pull out a 14-12 victory.

Track Team's Second Meet

The track team competed in the second AAU Development Meet of the season Friday night at the 102nd Armory in Washington Heights.

Top finisher for Baruch was Mario Church who placed third in the finals of the 500-yard dash with handicap in a time of 57.1. Church came in third in the preliminary heat with teammate Paul Tait fifth.

Larry Szemyi took fourth in the 70-yard dash with handicap after gaining third in the opening heat. He was timed in 7.8 both times.

Hal Ramsey was fourth in the 200-yard dash for novices with a clocking of 2:09.3. Carlow Tait was fifth in the 300-yard dash with handicap after placing third in the trial heat. His top time was 7.8.

Walter Cantey and Tony Chanura ran the two-mile run posting a time of 10:08 and 11:11 respectively.

Church was also the top runner in the opening meet. He was barely edged out for first place in the 600-yard dash with handicap in 31.5. Carlos Tait was fifth in the 60-yard high hurdles.

Derek Graham ran 1:16 in the 800-yard run with handicap, Larry Szemyi ran 10.8 in the 100-yard dash with handicap; Tony Chanura turned in the best time, 5.09.5, for the one-mile run and Hal Ramsey and Paul Tait ran 2:23 and 2:28 respectively in the 1.000-yard run with handicap.

"The team is coming along nicely," notes coach Howard Richter, "but I would like to see a few more runners come out to give us more depth. Any student wishing to come out for the team should contact the coach or manager Peter Ortiz in the Athletic Dept., room 725.
