ELECTION FAILS TO GET 30% RESULTS UNCERTAIN

As a result of this, the election results must be sent to President Clyde J. Wingfield to be validated. As TICKER went to press, the Dean of Students, Roy R. Senour Jr. had yet to make his recommendations to the President concerning the election.

Approximately 18 percent of the day session student body voted in the election. What follows is the list of candidates and their totals. It must be remembered that at this point, there are NO winners; those with the greatest number of votes are not necessarily going to sit on Student Government. It remains for the President to certify the winners, if he so chooses.

REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED
This is the last resort. A Ticker's way of helping students and professors. If the great American Student government has ever had to succumb to the vote for the last three elections, it was as a result of the resounding failure to organize a group. Tickers will try to help you in the organizing. If you are interested in joining another, we will try to help you in the organizing. If you are interested in joining another, we will try to help you in the organizing. If you are interested in the organizing, we will try to help you in the organizing.

More than 2,000 TICKERS were taken by certain members of the African Action Association. Their reason for doing this was that they disagreed with the administration's actions. Their rationale is not enough to justify their act. The act of taking tickets is on the same level as terrorist attacking a plane. The action of a small group of people who disagree with the administration's actions is like the student body of Baruch College. The people who disagree with someone else can take matters into their own hands, disrupting the process of people and programs. It is not time for the students and the administration of this college to have a constructive dialogue and ask the question: Are we going to be a civilized institution of higher learning, or a jungle?

Any student wishing to participate in the organizing of the last resort may contact水肿

THE LAST RESORT

What is the last resort? The last resort is an organizing effort to achieve some kind of order and control in the college. It is a call to arms for students and faculty to come together and work for a better Baruch College.

BASKETBALL

Baruch’s basketball team finally got some action under their belt last weekend. They lost a doubleheader to NYU. The games were 71-64 and 80-54, respectively. The NYU players were the better team, but Baruch should be proud of their efforts.

Coach Richardson asked that we all support the team in their upcoming games. The next games are scheduled for next weekend. We hope to see everyone there.

NEWCOMERS

To get the team in shape for the upcoming season, Coach Richardson has added several new players. We are excited to see them in action. The new players include Dan Smith, Mike Johnson, and Sarah Lee. They are all talented and we are confident that they will contribute to the team’s success.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The next home games for the basketball team will be on Saturday, October 9th. The games will be against Brooklyn College. We encourage everyone to come and support our team. The games are scheduled for 4:00 PM and 6:00 PM. Let’s show our Baruch pride and make sure there are plenty of fans in the stands.
