BRUSE'S APPEAL DENIED; REVIEW COMMITTEE GETS CASE

Student Government Holds First Meeting

Flanders Elected Business V.C.

Motion Passed Citing Bruse

By Kevin Howard Dubrow

Day Session Student Government held its first meeting of the year last Tuesday evening. The 22 Senators in attendance, led by Chairman Billy Fox, passed five major motions and a subsequent Committee of the Whole appointed to advise the Senate on the Bruse case.

After opening speeches expressing broad goals for the year by Chairman Billy Fox and Treasurer Robert Ziegler, the legislative body appointed Isaac Rizzasani as Sophomore Senator for the School of Liberal Arts by a vote of 15-Yes, 6-No, 4-Abstentions, and 0-Present but Not Voting. (Mr. Rizzasani placed fourth in the Business Student Senate race and took the vacant third Liberal Arts seat.)

Mr. Fox's nominee for Vice Chairman of Business School James Flanders was elected by a vote of 15-Yes, 6-No and one PNV. The Fees Committee is in charge of dispensing student monies to clubs (subject to approval by Senate) and activities consisting of Mr. Robert Ziegler, Ms. Pulchin, Mr. Joel Stillman and Ms. Donna Sullo. Mr. Sullo is the college's Central Treasurer. The 10 week syllabus for Freshman Seminar this semester includes sessions devoted to orientation to various college facilities; a library video-tape followed by a guided walking tour of the library; study skill experiences; discussion of academic and personal problems and college goals; program and curriculum planning sessions, etc. The formal sessions will end late in November. They will be followed by 25 weeks of optional workshops for which Freshmen will be able to register. These too, will be offered by students, staff and faculty of Baruch. A future report will list the workshops to be offered this semester to the freshmen and to new transfer students.

The next meeting, positively affirmed by the council, stated that the Committee on Committees Function is to set up and coordinate all other Student Government Committees, open to Senators and non-Senators with an ad appearing in TICKER to notify students of the positions available; this passed by a 17-Yes, 2-No vote. A further motion was passed making the Committee on Committees composed of five members approved by Senate (Veto 12-Yes, 0-No, Abstentions, 2, and 1 PNV. A subsequent motion passed read "All candidates for the Committee on Committees shall submit no more than one typed page and/or make an oral presentation to Senate." A member of Student Government Affairs announced that next meeting will be held in two weeks, again on a Tuesday evening, at 5:00.

This fall, 1,700 entering Freshmen are involved in a ten (10) week Orientation Program, under the aegis of the Department of Student Personnel Services. They meet in groups of 20-30 students (there are 50 groups) at practically every hour of the school day, 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Group leaders are all either trained upper classmen students or faculty from the college at large. Specifically, there are 18 leaders of the ten groups. The orientation will end its re-consideration to President Wingfield, who will then make the final decision on the case.

As reported in the editorial in last week's TICKER and THE REPORTER, Mr. Bruse, a member of the Student Activities Office and who is the Coordinator of Evening Session Activities, was recommended for tenure by the Appointments Committee of the Department of Student Personnel Services. However, when the case was presented to the Liberal Arts Personnel and Budget Committee, it was voted down.

Education Workshop

This Thursday

On October 25, the School of Education will sponsor workshops for Education majors to plan their programs. To be held between 12 p.m. and 2 p.m., workshops will take place in the following locations: Room 114, 24th Street Building for elementary education majors, Room 4 South in the Main Building for secondary education majors.

Prior to the workshops, all students should fill out worksheets, available from your teachers, or from the Secretary on the tenth floor of the 515 Park Avenue South Building. These must be made out in duplicate. All information must be filled in or student programs cannot be approved. It is important that students follow the printed directions extremely carefully. The purpose of the workshops is to help students fill their programs, and to be sure that each education major knows his or her requirements. Students must be prepared to hand in their worksheets at the workshops (students, do NOT have to attend BOTH; one will suffice). Any questions can be answered at the School of Education.

Nov. 2 is the last day to resign from class.

With the Theater Department's current production of "Up to Date," the cast and crew have been immersed in the story and the characters, dedicating their time and energy to bring it to life. The production, which is set in the 1930s and 1940s, explores themes of family, love, and the complexities of life during that era.

The director, Steve Tesich, has been working closely with the cast to prepare for the performance. The actors have been rehearsing for weeks, learning their lines and perfecting their delivery to ensure a smooth and engaging production.

The story follows a family living in New York City, where the father, Bruno, is a professional football player, and the mother, Goya, is a homemaker. The family is faced with various challenges, including financial struggles and personal conflicts, which they must navigate throughout the course of the play.

The cast includes John April, Olympia Dukakis, and Pegi Schaffer, among others, who bring their talents to the roles of Bruno, Goya, and Lita, respectively. The performances are expected to be captivating, with the characters' interactions and the unfolding events keeping the audience engaged.

The production will be staged at the university's theater, with tickets available for purchase. Attendees can expect a powerful and thought-provoking experience, as the cast and crew strive to bring the story to life.

For more information on the production and ticket availability, please visit the Theater Department's website or contact the box office. Don't miss out on this opportunity to witness a compelling and emotionally charged story unfold on stage.
A Question of Fairness

To Students...

Last week, the College Committees on Personnel and Budget rejected Ron Bruse’s appeal, thereby not granting him a raise. Ron Bruse’s appeal was rejected because the Committee did not feel that his work warranted a raise. The Committee felt that Ron Bruse had not done enough to justify a raise.

The College Committees on Personnel and Budget are responsible for making decisions on personnel matters. They are composed of students and faculty members who are elected by the students and faculty of the college. The Committees are charged with the responsibility of making fair and impartial decisions on personnel matters.

Charlie O., the male, probably has more credibility than Charlie O., the sub-human baseball exec. As a matter of fact I'm having a hard time delineating between the two. Right now...

On the subject of poor executives, this is a good time to ask M. Donald Grant why Yogi Berra hasn't been rehired yet (as of Thursday, October 18).

All around the league managers have been fired or fired. And yet the manager of the National League Champs is still dangling out there waving the pleasure of the Mets board of directors. What nonsense. What poor taste. Maybe by the time you're reading this the Mets are winners again. Or maybe the Oakland A's are the winners this time, in spite of Charlie Finley. Either way Yogi may be rehired.

Just remember this: When the Mets were spending more time in Roosevelt Hospital than at Shea Stadium their dugouts were closed mouthed amidst the flurry of rumors about the fate of Yogi. Berra in the victorious dressing room after the Mets won the National League crown, there in M. Donald Grant standing next to Berra, trying to be calm amidst Yogi's moment of glory. Grant had his hand around Yogi's shoulders.

All that time I was looking to see if Grant had a dagger in his other hand. I figure Yogi Berra is lucky not to have any back wounds. It's never too late, though.

Get on the stick, Grant. If you don't rehire Yogi Berra this town won't be big enough for the two of us!
