Dr. Charles K. Wingfield, President, Baruch College

Dear President Wingfield:

I am writing this letter in response to the recent切削.cut to the Department of Marketing at Baruch College. During my stay in the States, I have seen the tremendous need for qualified marketing professionals. As such, I am writing to urge the value of the Marketing Department at Baruch College.

I would like to express my appreciation for the opportunities I have had to work with the Marketing Department at Baruch College. The faculty members are dedicated and knowledgeable, and the curriculum is up-to-date and relevant to the current marketing landscape.

I hope that you will reconsider the cuts to the Marketing Department and continue to support the education and development of future marketing professionals.

Sincerely,

NOTES ON MUSIC

Dr. Charles K. Wingfield, President, Baruch College

Dear President Wingfield:

I am writing to express my concern regarding the recent cuts in the Music Department at Baruch College. As a former student of the Music Department, I have seen the value that the department brings to the Baruch community.

I believe that the Music Department plays a crucial role in the development of students' creativity and critical thinking skills. It also provides a valuable opportunity for students to explore their musical interests and talents.

I urge you to reconsider the cuts to the Music Department and continue to support its offerings.

Sincerely,
