Like Father, Like Son

By Bob Lepori

TODAY Belgium will have a direct hand in the making of a new political force in world politics. And it is in Brussels, the political capital of the world, that the United States will be playing a major role. The United States will be sending three American senators to the opening of the new Belgian political force, to be represented by the Belgian Communist Party. The American delegation will be headed by Senator John F. Kennedy, who is expected to be named the party's leader. The other senators are Senator David B. Ellroy and Senator Alben W. Barkley.
