By RICHARD WARREN
On Monday, November 15th, Civil Court Judge Bruce Wright spoke to a small but enthusiastic gathering of Baruch students in Room 4 North (23rd St. Building). He spoke for approximately an hour on his prime topic being racism.

Wright explained that the Student Center is being discontinued. Wright said that since these two hundred years included the height of slavery, there could be no reason why blacks today are not in a certain form of society that they want to be in such a celebration. Wright said that blacks should instead celebrate survival, since for us survival is a miracle. He then stated, "It was once considered a crime to teach blacks to read and write. When some people will read this, they will be told that we pacified them with the gleam and light of the heritage as their reward."

Wright then responded to an accusation made against him that he is also racial. To this he responded, How can you help being racial? The first thing you might see when you look at another person is their color. It is easy to forget a social club called in Harlem the "Blue Vain Society" because it's a "beige and an easy way of earning credits." People take this course to learn about English culture and not for credits. Without the help of this course, Wright stated that he would be struggling with a tremendous handicap which would be like two strikes against a person of Spanish or Black heritage getting a chance for a good education. City Hall and the City Schools have nothing to do with this. This is something that whites have dreamed up by the hierarchy of Baruch College itself.

There is no budget crunch involved. It is strictly a local issue. The committee for Black & Hispanic Studies feels that this is an arbitrary decision by the powers in Baruch. Hispanics and Blacks lack political power. There is also racial overtones to deny Hispanics and Blacks their place in the political sun. They also feel it is not an important department.

The Romance Language Dept. is being swallowed up by a phony merger with the German and Slavic Language Dept. Both Chairpersons of these two departments have told the faculty they are unhappy with the new arrangement.

Loss Of Black & Hispanic Department Imminent
By GLENN BRAUNSTEIN
Today I had the pleasure of interviewing teachers and a committee of six members of the Black & Hispanic group. There were also reporters present from the other school newspapers. What made the event such a big deal was that Baruch College is the only college in the city where a Black & Hispanic studies program is being phased out at Baruch. Though not yet a fact, it is more than just a rumor.

Luis Martinez and Oria Cassano Sanchez are some of the names you may never hear again around this campus. They are the most well known teachers in the Black Studies Dept. They feel that just when the Black & Hispanic studies were beginning to become its own, and doing so much to help the ever increasing ratio of Spanish & Blacks entering Baruch, it is being discontinued. Professor Martinez feels that these studies to bridge the cultural gap many of them suffer making their way from their native customs to English. Professor Martinez feels very strongly that the college bigwigs have the wrong impression that the students take this course to get a high rate of reproduction because in order to be a member of the California legislature he would oppose repealing the law, since in a few years the Court might reverse itself."

Wright also stated, "we even had to go to court for the right to fight for the community." He then commented that one would expect white Americans to be glad to have blacks to use in front line combat, as the French and English were.

Wright attacked the NAACP for celebrating the 20th anniversary of the Brown Supreme Court ruling. He was further disgruntled that Elliot Richardson was the chief and honored speaker at that celebration. Commenced Wright, "Elliot Richardson has done almost as much for black Americans as middle class blacks have done."

Focusing his attention on middle class blacks, Wright stated that most only interested in attaining "respectability." Being "respectable" included going away from any movement that was left leaning. On this he judged commented, "As long as white people have eyes we will not be respectable." Further emphasizing this point, Wright told the story of a Washington restaurateur who was Washington, who in his country was a Prince. But when he entered a Washington restaurant and the waitress refused to serve him, she was later told who he was, the waitress commented, "He looked like an ordinary little nigger to me." He then commented on upper class blacks. "They're shareholders in international corporations who own summer-cottages at Spook Groves, uh Oak Groves. The next book they'll read is 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.'"

Wright commented on the myth that racial discrimination doesn't exist in New York City. He mentioned that every year there are numerous cases on lawsuits against firms that refused to hire black and hispanic workers. But he made his strongest points on this topic commenting about his own personal experiences. This judge commented about the time he looked at a white restaurant and the waitress refused to serve him because she knew his skin had to be light. For this she was sentenced to 9 to 13 years in prison. He also commented that he had a Washington restaurant where he was not allowed in because he was not a white man. But he was allowed in a "Negro's only" store because he was white. This is a judge commenting about his own personal experiences.

Wright commented on the myth that racial discrimination doesn't exist in New York City. He mentioned that every year there are numerous cases on lawsuits against firms that refused to hire black and hispanic workers. But he made his strongest points on this topic commenting about his own personal experiences. This judge commented about the time he looked at a white restaurant and the waitress refused to serve him because she knew his skin had to be light. For this she was sentenced to 9 to 13 years in prison. He also commented that he had a Washington restaurant where he was not allowed in because he was not a white man. But he was allowed in a "Negro's only" store because he was white. This is a judge commenting about his own personal experiences.

Wright commented on the myth about the 20th anniversary of the Brown Supreme Court ruling. He was further disgruntled that Elliot Richardson was the chief and honored speaker at that celebration. Commenced Wright, "Elliot Richardson has done almost as much for black Americans as middle class blacks have done."

Focusing his attention on middle class blacks, Wright stated that most only interested in attaining "respectability." Being "respectable" included going away from any movement that was left leaning. On this he judged commented, "As long as white people have eyes we will not be respectable." Further emphasizing this point, Wright told the story of a Washington restaurateur who was Washington, who in his country was a Prince. But when he entered a Washington restaurant and the waitress refused to serve him, she was later told who he was, the waitress commented, "He looked like an ordinary little nigger to me." He then commented on upper class blacks. "They're shareholders in international corporations who own summer-cottages at Spook Groves, uh Oak Groves. The next book they'll read is 'Uncle Tom's Cabin.'"

Wright commented on the myth that racial discrimination doesn't exist in New York City. He mentioned that every year there are numerous cases on lawsuits against firms that refused to hire black and hispanic workers. But he made his strongest points on this topic commenting about his own personal experiences. This judge commented about the time he looked at a white restaurant and the waitress refused to serve him because she knew his skin had to be light. For this she was sentenced to 9 to 13 years in prison. He also commented that he had a Washington restaurant where he was not allowed in because he was not a white man. But he was allowed in a "Negro's only" store because he was white. This is a judge commenting about his own personal experiences.
Page 2 of THE TICKER Tuesday, November 23, 1976

Student Assembly Minutes

The meeting started at 4:20 p.m. Assemby Don and Carl were present. Motion to accept the report was made by Mr. Toylor and seconded by Mr. Srebnick respectively. The record was read and Mr. Scott of the Management of W.B.M.B. was present in the meeting.

Mr. Scott asked the question of the Assembly, "What is the reason why the station was closed?" Mr. Toylor explained the reason as follows: "The station was closed because of the lack of funds and Mr. Srebnick was not interested in running the station any longer."

Mr. Srebnick asked the question, "Do you think that the station should be closed?" Mr. Toylor stated that the station should be closed due to lack of funds.

The motion to accept the report was approved by all members present.

Mr. Scott introduced the agenda for the following meeting which was as follows:

1. Motion to accept the report of the Assembly
2. Presentation of the financial report
3. Presentation of the budget for the next year
4. Discussion of the future plans of the station

The meeting adjourned at 5:30 p.m.
Letter to the Editor

Stolen Bookstach

Boyle Hall, yes.

We notice that you did not answer our question in your last issue. You stated that you would not answer our question because of the nature of the questions we asked. We believe this is not a valid reason. We believe that you should answer our question because it is a valid question. We believe that you should answer our question because it is a valid question. We believe that you should answer our question because it is a valid question.

By Charles Rodriguez

ED Hor-in-Chief

TICKER

Tuesday, November 23, 1976

The Baruch Community Presents
Adventures In Self
The American Dream
Illusion Or Think

Prof Michael Policastro
Dr. Milton P. Ehrlich

By Charles Rodriguez

All right, all you students out there reading this. If you are interested in the School of Business, then you should be interested in the Baruch Community. The Baruch Community is the only organization that actually cares about the students. We hold proper elections, and we hold open discussions. We are not afraid to show our opinions. We are not afraid to show our opinions. We are not afraid to show our opinions.

Baruch's #1 Disease

By Perry Berlinsky

1976 was a difficult year for Baruch's #1 Disease. The first thing that was noticed was a lack of student interest. The first thing that was noticed was a lack of student interest. The first thing that was noticed was a lack of student interest. The first thing that was noticed was a lack of student interest. The first thing that was noticed was a lack of student interest.

Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) — Number 1 in the Nation

The Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) is responsible for selecting the big 'sports' such as football and basketball. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students.

The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s).

The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help.

Baruch in Review

Budget Breakdown

This Week

TOOL — Nov. 26 at 11:00 A.M. on NBC, Channel 4 in New York.
THEATRE — Nov. 26 at 7:00 P.M. at Avery Schomburg Memorial Playhouse.

STUDENT INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC (FCA)

The FCA is responsible for selecting the big 'sports' such as football and basketball. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students.

The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s).

The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help.

Baruch in Review

Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) — Number 1 in the Nation

The Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) is responsible for selecting the big 'sports' such as football and basketball. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students.

The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s).

The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help.

Baruch in Review

Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) — Number 1 in the Nation

The Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) is responsible for selecting the big 'sports' such as football and basketball. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students.

The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s).

The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help.

Baruch in Review

Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) — Number 1 in the Nation

The Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) is responsible for selecting the big 'sports' such as football and basketball. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students.

The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s).

The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help.

Baruch in Review

Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) — Number 1 in the Nation

The Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) is responsible for selecting the big 'sports' such as football and basketball. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students.

The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s).

The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help.

Baruch in Review

Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) — Number 1 in the Nation

The Student Intercollegiate Athletic (FCA) is responsible for selecting the big 'sports' such as football and basketball. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students. It's a power that rightfully belongs to the students.

The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s). The students were given the opportunity to vote upon the issue(s).

The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help. The FCA also said that he and Prof. Richard Rodriguez probably echoed the Berlinsky's statement when he said that the FCA was not interested in the financial help.
Third National Student Conference Against Racism

By Richard Rodriguez

Last Friday afternoon a protest by two hundred students in front of the Student Center drew the attention of Boston University's Health Services. The students were demonstrating against the alleged use of tear gas on the campus of the University of the Americas, a school in south-central Mexico.

The demonstration was one of several that took place around the country to denounce the violence that has been used by police forces and military units in the struggle against student and community activists in Mexico.

The students from Boston University claimed that they were acting in solidarity with the students of the University of the Americas, where they said that the use of tear gas by the police had caused injuries and deaths.

The demonstration at Boston University was part of a nationwide campaign of support for the students of the University of the Americas. The campaign has been organized by the National Student Association (NSA) and the National Student Association of the Americas (NSCA).

The NSA and NSCA have called for a week of solidarity actions in support of the students of the University of the Americas, who have been under attack by the Mexican government for their opposition to the government's policies.

The students of the University of the Americas have been struggling for the right to strike and the right to organize on campus. They have also been fighting against the government's efforts to suppress student activism and to silence political opposition.

The students' struggle is part of a larger movement of youth and workers across the United States and around the world who are fighting against oppression and for justice.

The demonstration at Boston University was just one of many that took place around the country to show solidarity with the students of the University of the Americas.

The students' struggle is a symbol of the struggle of all people who are fighting against oppression and for justice. It is a struggle that we must all support.
John Collins

By KAREN LEE KAHN

The John Collins Band could be a band whose one of their best moments is yet to come. The band, composed of the late John Collins and his son, John Denver, have put out a new album called "Nothing But the Truth." The album is a collection of songs that were written by John Denver, who passed away in 1977.

The album includes songs such as "Nothing But the Truth," "Rocky Mountain Way," and "The Old Man." The songs are a mix of acoustic and electric guitar, with occasional use of keyboards and bass. The album is produced by John Denver himself, and was released in 1980.

The album has received mixed reviews, with some critics praising John Denver's songwriting and vocal abilities, and others criticizing the album for being too sentimental and overly emotional. Despite this, the album has enjoyed some commercial success, peaking at number 13 on the Billboard 200 chart.

The John Collins Band continues to tour and perform, with plans to release a new album in the near future. The band is composed of members who were close friends and collaborators of John Denver, and their music continues to be a tribute to his legacy.
You Can Do It

By M. MALKIEVAN

It's surprisingly Easy to change your transmission oil, oil filter, and air filter. And it's a lot easier than you think, especially if you've purchased the correct filter and oil. You can do this for yourself if you're comfortable with the operation of a car. If not, you may want to consult a professional.

With the parking brake applied, take the car to an empty lot. Position yourself about four hours of driving time from the nearest gas station or phone, and have access to the tools and equipment needed for this job.

To change the oil filter:
1. Remove the oil filter cap.
2. Place the new oil filter on the old one and tighten it until it's snug. You do not need to overtighten the filter. If you do, you may damage it.
3. Add the oil to your car. You can either fill it up to the proper level or just add a few quarts. You should add oil slowly, as too much can cause damage to the engine.

To change the transmission oil:
1. Drain the old oil. You can do this by turning the car on and engaging the transmission. The oil will flow out of the pan and into the drain pan. It will take about an hour to drain the oil completely. You may want to use a funnel to make this process easier.
2. When the oil has drained, fill the transmission with new oil. You can either fill it up to the proper level or just add a few quarts. You should add oil slowly, as too much can cause damage to the engine.

To change the air filter:
1. Remove the air filter housing. You can do this by turning the car on and engaging the transmission. The air filter will flow out of the housing and into the drain pan. It will take about an hour to drain the oil completely. You may want to use a funnel to make this process easier.
2. When the oil has drained, fill the air filter housing with new oil. You can either fill it up to the proper level or just add a few quarts. You should add oil slowly, as too much can cause damage to the engine.

By RICHARD WARRAN

Numerous students at this college have received letters from their college financial aid office. This is a good time to review your financial aid to see if you need to make any changes.

The letter will inform you of any changes in your aid package. You should review this letter carefully to make sure that you understand all the changes and how they will affect you.

You should also review your aid package to see if you need to make any changes. You may want to contact your college financial aid office if you have any questions.

A look at the new letter in your hand is always a good idea. You may want to take note of any changes to your aid package. You should also review your aid package to see if you need to make any changes. You may want to contact your college financial aid office if you have any questions.

Eating Out

By STEVEN KOENIG

Many people think that eating out is expensive, but it doesn't have to be. You can save money by eating at a restaurant that serves inexpensive food. You can also save money by eating at a restaurant that serves food that is inexpensive and delicious.

I was recently in the company of the late great actor, John Wayne. He was quite a character, and I enjoyed spending time with him. He was always very kind to me, and I always enjoyed our conversations. He was a true gentleman, and I will always remember him fondly.

Oh! The Joys Of Commuting

By KAREN FELMAN

Commuters are also a large group of people. They have to deal with traffic, office politics, and the stress of daily life. It's hard to tell. The only thing I can say is that I'm glad I don't have to deal with this stuff.

A large number of commuters have received letters from their college financial aid office. This is a good time to review your financial aid to see if you need to make any changes.

The letter will inform you of any changes in your aid package. You should review this letter carefully to make sure that you understand all the changes and how they will affect you.

You should also review your aid package to see if you need to make any changes. You may want to contact your college financial aid office if you have any questions.

A look at the new letter in your hand is always a good idea. You may want to take note of any changes to your aid package. You should also review your aid package to see if you need to make any changes. You may want to contact your college financial aid office if you have any questions.

Speaking On Everything

By JUDY WRIGHT

Black students to be black. This is what I thought I would be. This is what I thought I would be.

Wright closed his lecture by thanking the audience for coming and for listening. He then left the stage to the sound of applause and cheers.

Wright stressed that black students should be black. He said that they should be black and proud of their heritage. He said that they should be black and proud of their culture.

Wright also addressed the issue of racial discrimination. He said that racial discrimination is a problem in this country. He said that it is a problem that needs to be addressed.

Wright concluded his lecture by thanking the audience for coming and for listening. He then left the stage to the sound of applause and cheers.

Loss Of Black & Hispanic Dept.

By JUDY WRIGHT

After two years of existence, the Department of Black Studies and the Department of Hispanic Studies have been eliminated. This is a loss that I cannot accept.

Wright addressed the issue of the loss of the Black and Hispanic departments. He said that it is a loss that he cannot accept. He said that it is a loss that he cannot accept.

Wright also addressed the issue of the loss of the Black and Hispanic departments. He said that it is a loss that he cannot accept. He said that it is a loss that he cannot accept.

Wright concluded his lecture by thanking the audience for coming and for listening. He then left the stage to the sound of applause and cheers.

Eating Out

By STEVEN KOENIG

Many people think that eating out is expensive, but it doesn't have to be. You can save money by eating at a restaurant that serves inexpensive food. You can also save money by eating at a restaurant that serves food that is inexpensive and delicious.

I was recently in the company of the late great actor, John Wayne. He was quite a character, and I enjoyed spending time with him. He was always very kind to me, and I always enjoyed our conversations. He was a true gentleman, and I will always remember him fondly.
Volleyballers Smash Hofstra in Championship Style

It could have been a championship match! The players were talented, the referees were excellently directed, and the crowd was loud and supportive. It was a match for revenge and pride.

And when the smoke slowly cleared in the background of the 23rd St. gym, a single score was all that remained: 82-80, Hofstra in the lead. The victory was sweet, coming as it did just days before the start of Hofstra's invitational tournament.

Pool Party

Christine Reheb and Jimmy Barrett led a hydrofoil-like assault on the Baruch defense. The Baruch books as five time marks in six events were broken last Thursday night, in the second tournament held coincidently, in the 23rd St. pool during the season.

Miss Reheb, a sharp fencer, devastated the previous best in the women's 20 yard by four seconds, with a 24.2 performance. She later had the program for the mile, to shatter the mark in the women's 22 yard, with a split of 26.89.

Miss Barrett, who is also the swimming basketball center, torched the men's 40 yard breaststroke and 100 yard butterfly, and Miss Provenzano dead-heated in the previous record time of 1:04.

The conference schedule is comprised of 36 games ending with a battle between Hunter and City on February 10th. The conference standings and determination of the year-end CUNY Tournament is the highlight of the athletic season.

CUNY Basketball Tips Off

The CUNY opener is scheduled for November 29 when Hunter players at John Jay. They will in for a good game, with the head coach for the city being a great to get the players o< e eager to "play the game."

Sportsbriefs

Intramural Action:

- Present and Future
  - Good Luck, Harvey
  - Perfect Score

Women Hoopsters Looking for Playmakers

Women's basketball tips off are scheduled for Tuesday, Wednesdays and Fridays for the next four weeks in the 23rd St. gym from 3:30 p.m. Aspirate and it could have been a champion match, should Coach Harvey Jackson in room 706. The ladies start their season in one month that's comes Tech in the Armory at 5 p.m.

Autumn's Classic

By ERNEST J. LESTER

All begins with springtime and is drawn to a simmering summer heat. And it's a little bit of a dream that's been warm. It's little bit of a dream...

And little more to theChronicle's daily edition. And how little more to the Chronicle's daily edition. It's a little bit of a dream...