The Students' Voice for Over 50 Years

Baruch College, CUNY

August 31, 1987

ASSOCIATE DEAN OF LIBERAL ARTS APPOINTED

By LINDA ZUECH

Dr. Carl E. Rollyson, Jr. was appointed Associate Dean of the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences according to a memorandum from President Joel Segall to the Baruch community.

Rollyson was one of the candidates for the Dean of Students position last March. The memorandum stated, "He impressed all who met him with the quality and breadth of his scholarship, his understanding of the Baruch mission, and his commitment to meeting the needs of an urban student population." After Sam Johnson was chosen as Dean of Students, we were eager to find some other way in which to utilize Carl Rollyson's talents. With Dean Norman Fainstein's eager concurrence we offered Dr. Rollyson the Associate Dean's position."

Dr. Paul LeClerc, the provost, said, "One of the needs of the College was a second associate dean of Liberal Arts. When Dean Fainstein came back, he asked Dr. Rollyson if he would consider the position."

Fainstein said, "He's a technically energetic and personable man. He's also an excellent scholar. Among other things he is an expert on the films of Marilyn Monroe."

Segall's memorandum described Rollyson's position saying he will work in tandem with Associate Dean Joan Japha, who will focus on new initiatives within the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

According to LeClerc, "Everyone who met him thought highly of him and was extremely impressed by him." LeClerc said that because of his qualifications the President was anxious to bring him to Baruch.

According to Fainstein, "He's had a lot of practical experience at an urban commuter school that is much like Baruch, Wayne State University in Detroit."

Fainstein said, "Dr. Rollyson is going to give us the opportunity to work on program development to get beyond the day to day operations of the school and into new kinds of courses and research."

(Continued on Page 4, Col. 5)

PROVOST ANNOUNCES NEW DEAN SELECTIONS

By CAITLIN MOLLISON

Provost Paul LeClerc announced the appointments of Dr. Norman Fainstein as dean of the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences and Dr. Sidney Bergquist as dean of the School of Education and Educational Services. Both deans were selected at the end of May 1987. Committees comprised of faculty members and students, narrowed the field for each position down to three candidates. President Joel Segall then made the final selections.

Dean of the School of Liberal Arts

Fainstein began work on August 1 after the former dean relinquished his position to accept a distinguished professorship. Prior to working at Baruch, Fainstein was associate dean for academic affairs and professor of urban affairs at the Graduate School of Management and Urban Professions at the New School for Social Research. He received his undergraduate and doctoral degrees in political science at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He has also taught at Lehman College, the University of Pennsylvania and Columbia University.

Fainstein said, "I've been trying to meet all the chairs of the departments and faculty members. One of the things I've been planning to do was to have receptions for members of the faculty, so they can meet each other."

(Continued on Page 6, Col. 1)
A Small Price For Help

Last semester a referendum to increase the student activity fee was defeated by the Baruch Community. Since the Student Center Programming Board relies entirely on the activity fee for funding of programs and services that cater to students such as Healthline, the Club Fair and Street Fair will face serious cutbacks. Healthline is an organization that is dedicated to serving the students at Baruch. They offer personal or academic guidance counseling Monday through Thursday 4 p.m. and on Fridays. They store information on subjects ranging from academic problems, personal questions to treatments such as AIDS. And if a student happens to be searching for housing, this organization ad- vises the students and rents in The New York Times and the Village Voice.

Due to inflation, the budget of Healthline has been decreased from $10,000 to $6,600. This semester the organization sponsoring the training workshops each semester that prepare the members to provide services for students. The promotion and advertis­ing of Healthline has been non-existent because they now lack adequate funds.

Students who do not participate in extracurricular activities make up the majority of those that voted against the increased funds for such services as these. But the students that do participate in the Club Fair or Street Fair will go without these events because of that attitude.

The message to these students will have a chance to reverse their decision by voting in favor of an increase in the student activity fee. Because in the end it is not Healthline that

Enough Revolting Deans

The last year at Baruch has been a momentous one as the school has seen quite a number of administrators come and go. Former Dean of Students Dr. Henry W. Jr. resigned in May 1986 and Lester Golub submitted his resignation as the dean of the College of Business and Economics. Assuming the dean’s seat is to understand and be aware of the problems and hardships facing students. This will restrict the organization from sponsoring the training weekends each semester involved. This was stated previously, any discrimination based on their gender is illegal. As a result, it is not the govern­ ment that has to offer. They have a right to choose who they want to hire and whom they want to do business with. Though we Americans like to think so, Some people like to dance, others like to watch. They give up their freedom of choice to others. They have a nght to their own lifestyle as protected by the government. They don't have to be friends with them. The civil rights laws in this country were enacted to ensure that the bond which holds the entire society together is not broken.

We can get quite a bit from the vast array of services Healthline has to offer. They have a nght to their private lives and their choice. However, gays are gays by their choice and not by their sex. Their right to choose to be a homosexual, just as it is with all others, should be protected by the government. As a result, it is not the govern­ ment that has to offer. They have a right to their own lifestyle as protected by the government. They don't have to be friends with them. They have a nght to their private lives and their choice. However, gays are gays by their choice and not by their sex. Their right to choose to be a homosexual, just as it is with all others, should be protected by the government. The gay rights movement contends, is that prejudice and discrimination are not inevitable.

Beverly J. Tinto
Editor, The Ticker
June 24, 1987

LETTERS

Improve Conditions

To the Editor: I've been a student at Baruch for the past three years and have always been around the conditions that exist at Baruch (The Ticker, May 11). The campus is dirty, filthy, and hard to move on and off campus. My legs have been chewed for years. Also, the grounds crew is very slow. I'm sure you've noticed the state the campus is in.

Dana Vishinsky

Veteran Affairs

To the Editor: In order to clarify a point in Jacqueline Muller's article on Baruch's Veterans Affairs Office (The Ticker, May 14), I wish to point out that the Veterans Affairs Office is not a student club financed by the Student Government. It is an administrative office under the auspices of the College of Business Education and the Veterans Administration. I happen to be the Faculty Advisor to the Veterans Affairs and Coordination Board of the Veterans Affairs Office.

Michael Muzaika
Veterans Coordinator

Sports Coverage

To the Editor: I have been teaching Health, Physical Education and Sports Skills classes here, at Baruch College, for many years. I have been involved with the Baruch College Intramural Sports Association (BICSA) for four years, two years as the president and two years as the sports director. I have found that participating in the BICSA is a real experience, both educationally and personally. It has been my goal to provide opportunities for students to engage in interscholastic in a way that is meaningful and enjoyable. Over the years, I have been able to observe, either in their dealings with these student-athletes at Baruch, in their work with the Baruch veterans which appeared in the Village Voice. Baruch veterans which appeared in the Village Voice.

Sports at Baruch.

Sports participate. As a result, it is not the govern­ ment that has to offer. They have a right to their own lifestyle as protected by the government. They don't have to be friends with them. They have a nght to their private lives and their choice. However, gays are gays by their choice and not by their sex. Their right to choose to be a homosexual, just as it is with all others, should be protected by the government. The gay rights movement contends, is that prejudice and discrimination are not inevitable.

Beverly J. Tinto
Editor, The Ticker
June 24, 1987

LETTERS

Improve Conditions

To the Editor: I've been a student at Baruch Baruch College for the past three years and have always been around the conditions that exist at Baruch (The Ticker, May 11). The campus is dirty, filthy, and hard to move on and off campus. My legs have been chewed for years. Also, the grounds crew is very slow. I'm sure you've noticed the state the campus is in.

Dana Vishinsky

Veteran Affairs

To the Editor: In order to clarify a point in Jacqueline Muller's article on Baruch's Veterans Affairs Office (The Ticker, May 14), I wish to point out that the Veterans Affairs Office is not a student club financed by the Student Government. It is an administrative office under the auspices of the College of Business Education and the Veterans Administration. I happen to be the Faculty Advisor to the Veterans Affairs and Coordination Board of the Veterans Affairs Office.

Michael Muzaika
Veterans Coordinator

Sports Coverage

To the Editor: I have been teaching Health, Physical Education and Sports Skills classes here, at Baruch College, for many years. I have been involved with the Baruch College Intramural Sports Association (BICSA) for four years, two years as the president and two years as the sports director. I have found that participating in the BICSA is a real experience, both educationally and personally. It has been my goal to provide opportunities for students to engage in interscholastic in a way that is meaningful and enjoyable. Over the years, I have been able to observe, either in their dealings with these student-athletes at Baruch, in their work with the Baruch veterans which appeared in the Village Voice. Baruch veterans which appeared in the Village Voice.

Sports at Baruch.

Sports participate. As a result, it is not the govern­ government that has to offer. They have a right to their own lifestyle as protected by the government. They don't have to be friends with them. They have a nght to their private lives and their choice. However, gays are gays by their choice and not by their sex. Their right to choose to be a homosexual, just as it is with all others, should be protected by the government. The gay rights movement contends, is that prejudice and discrimination are not inevitable.

Beverly J. Tinto
Editor, The Ticker
June 24, 1987

LETTERS

Improve Conditions

To the Editor: I've been a student at Baruch Baruch College for the past three years and have always been around the conditions that exist at Baruch (The Ticker, May 11). The campus is dirty, filthy, and hard to move on and off campus. My legs have been chewed for years. Also, the grounds crew is very slow. I'm sure you've noticed the state the campus is in.

Dana Vishinsky

Veteran Affairs

To the Editor: In order to clarify a point in Jacqueline Muller's article on Baruch's Veterans Affairs Office (The Ticker, May 14), I wish to point out that the Veterans Affairs Office is not a student club financed by the Student Government. It is an administrative office under the auspices of the College of Business Education and the Veterans Administration. I happen to be the Faculty Advisor to the Veterans Affairs and Coordination Board of the Veterans Affairs Office.

Michael Muzaika
Veterans Coordinator

Sports Coverage

To the Editor: I have been teaching Health, Physical Education and Sports Skills classes here, at Baruch College, for many years. I have been involved with the Baruch College Intramural Sports Association (BICSA) for four years, two years as the president and two years as the sports director. I have found that participating in the BICSA is a real experience, both educationally and personally. It has been my goal to provide opportunities for students to engage in interscholastic in a way that is meaningful and enjoyable. Over the years, I have been able to observe, either in their dealings with these student-athletes at Baruch, in their work with the Baruch veterans which appeared in the Village Voice. Baruch veterans which appeared in the Village Voice.

Sports at Baruch.
The intent of the Program is to allow students to "March Only" 1917 and 20th century, by after 1931. Please present a fictional Grounds. The students told police they had in idea how deep the 1915 and 1931 commercial laundry trucks made their way to the house. The problem was not "March Only." In the last three years," said Jack "We have never been able to get a March Only because we were sleeping in the armory. As far as March Only was there, everyone, they're getting regular meals, the amount of food is fixed and the budget will result in major cuts in the near future. We know we won't be able to have the full range of services we need. Also, the leadership training budget will not be enough to cover our needs. The addition of the budget for the money is being spent that takes the training needs into account. Since there has always been a budget that covers the training needs of the students, but we have the increasing costs, the matter

Comparison Breakdown of the Student Programs and Services Budget

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Program</th>
<th>Budget</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Financial Aid</td>
<td>$2,300</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Mental Health Services</td>
<td>$1,500</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Athletics</td>
<td>$750</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Technology</td>
<td>$300</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Student Life</td>
<td>$100</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

DAY SESSION STUDENT LEADERS 1987 - 1988

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Position</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>John Richards</td>
<td>President</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Michael Johnson</td>
<td>Vice President</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Emily Smith</td>
<td>Secretary</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>David Lee</td>
<td>Treasurer</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

ESSAY CONTEST

The "Corporate Challenge," a $30,000 endowment for a non-profit charitable organization sponsored by the Institutional Service Corporation, Inc., is named after its benefactor and former president, G. Milton, President. The contest is open to students who are pursuing a degree in the social sciences. The contest requires the submission of a five-page essay describing a current social problem or issue and the strategies for addressing it. The essay must be typed, double-spaced, and submitted to the Department of Social Science by the specified due date. Essay Concluding Page

---

BYE-BYE, ROBBINS!

Grad modest smugness! Graduates of Harvard's School of Public Health met yesterday to reminisce about the years they spent in the school. The program was "Harvard School of Public Health Graduation," and it ended with "The Graduation Speech," delivered by "Ad Victoriam Seniores," Latin for "for seniors."
TICKER TAKES

(Continued from page 5)

In the applicant to an office may also be made for people who prefer to apply in person and have them switch to certain department(s) of the office. The special telephone numbers and the locations they serve are as follows:

For Manhattan Branch: 382-3070; 858-6500; 886-0540; 688-0565; 278-0600; 983-0500

Borough President of Staten Island: 275-6500; 275-2000; 275-2100; 275-2200; 275-2300; 275-2400

For Queens Branch: 771-5000; 771-5100; 771-5200; 771-5300; 771-5400; 771-5500

Borough President of the Bronx: 853-6000; 853-6100; 853-6200; 853-6300; 853-6400; 853-6500

For Brooklyn Branch: 877-5000; 877-5100; 877-5200; 877-5300; 877-5400; 877-5500

Borough President of Brooklyn: 877-5000; 877-5100; 877-5200; 877-5300; 877-5400; 877-5500

For Richmond Branch: 741-5000; 741-5100; 741-5200; 741-5300; 741-5400; 741-5500

OFS: 841-5000; 841-5100; 841-5200; 841-5300; 841-5400; 841-5500

The mini "Art Gallery" was located in an unused back room of the School of Liberal Arts building. Most of the wall space was bare, as if the school had made no effort to offer an area for student art to be put on display. Only a few scattered works of art were on display, and they were poorly drawn, as well as being done in blue marker, red marker, and the face had obviously been added to the picture. The chalk works of art were mostly bare, with no detail. They were more concentrated on three drawings that is called "the wall was mostly bare." The mini "Art Gallery" was located in an unused back room of the School of Liberal Arts building. Most of the wall space was bare, as if the school had made no effort to offer an area for student art to be put on display. Only a few scattered works of art were on display, and they were poorly drawn, as well as being done in blue marker, red marker, and the face had obviously been added to the picture. The chalk works of art were mostly bare, with no detail. They were more concentrated on three drawings that is called "the wall was mostly bare."
INVITES YOU TO JOIN US AT OUR GET ACQUAINTED PARTY!!

Tuesday, September 15th in the Oak Lounge Student Center, 137 E. 22nd St.

Be there and bring a friend!

THE DSSG FINANCE COMMITTEE

Wishes to inform the clubs that the 1987-88 Budget Request Packets are now in their mailboxes in the Student Activities Office.

— All requests must be submitted by no later than September 16th at 2:00 P.M.

— Come in early to schedule your budget hearing with the committee.

— If there are any questions on the budget process, seek answers from the Finance Committee in Rm. 409 or the Student Activities Office.

FEATURES

Prevention Is Only Protection

Task Force Educates Baruch

By TONY ARPINO and ED MARTINEZ

Students registering in person, starting on August 15, have received a New York State publication detailing what information exists now about the virus. The pamphlet was distributed by Baruch College's AIDS Education Task Force. The AIDS Education Task Force met for the first time on May 11, 1987. As its name indicates, the purpose of the task force is to educate the Baruch College community on the AIDS epidemic and to make the most current information available. Members of the task force represent different segments of the college's population.

The task force's informational efforts will be divided into three areas: speaker presentations, faculty/staff training and print literature on AIDS. The members formed a subcommittee for each area.

According to recommendations proposed by the staff/faculty training subcommittee, workshops will address the educational needs of the Baruch population over the current fall semester. The first group will be the task force itself, which will then concentrate upon those in student support services. The committee will also involve the College's Medical Office staff, the college's various academic and student organizations. Finally, the task force will concentrate upon educating the faculty, general staff and students.

Specific student gatherings, such as freshman orientation meetings and senior leadership training meetings, may be considered for training seminars and workshops.

The 130 Questions and Answers About AIDS publication was obtained from the New York State Department of Health in time for in-person registration, a priority for the entire task force. For instance it depicts an anecdotal approach to AIDS education. The pamphlet subcommittee has also been given a draft outline titled 'AIDS for Educators' by the New York State Department of Health.

The subcommittee on speaker presentations has recommended a three-part series of presentations for the fall semester. These proposals include: 1. a panel discussion featuring representatives from organizations involved in AIDS education in New York City's Health District and the staff of the AIDS Education Task Force with a moderator, 2. a creative video-tape program for the spring semester that depicts an AIDS victim discussing the effects of the disease upon his life, and 3. a tentative video-tape program for the spring semester that depicts an AIDS victim discussing the effects of the disease upon his life.

The task force invites students to get more information about AIDS in Rm. 409, 25th St. building, or by calling (212) 725-4177. Students, faculty and staff may be interested in joining the AIDS Education Task Force. The Task Force may contact the Office of the Dean of Students, room 1702, 26th St. building.
Baruch Welcomes Freshmen

Seminars can bring order to chaotic first days

By NANNETTE F. GORDON

What courses are you taking? What and how are you going to finance your education? Where is the Financial Aid Office located? All of these and many other questions are asked by freshmen students. Their first days here are at Baruch are chaotic.

In an attempt to alleviate this type of situation, "all freshmen seminars are invited to take Freshman Seminars," said Elizabeth Thangaraj, co-founder of Orientation and Special Programs. Orientation is also provided to transfer students.

Freshmen orientation seminars are led by faculty members and upperclassmen. In selecting the opportunities as leaders, Thangaraj sends letters to students on the Dean's list, interviews them and makes her selections. She says, "I will pick with them.

Upperclassmen and faculty members from the three schools (School of Liberal Arts, School of Business and Public Administration) lead the seminars. This enables the students to get to know the faculty members and feel more comfortable when they attend their first classes.

Freshmen seminar consists of 12 sessions. The first meeting will be the convocation. Professor Paul LeClerc will welcome the new students to Baruch and inaugurate the first classes.

Professor Marks, distinguished professor of Philosophy, will deliver the convocation. This will be a formal meeting and will be led by the Seminar's leader, according to the leader's agenda. The meeting will take place at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 3, 1987, at 1:00 p.m., in the first floor auditorium of 17 Lexington Ave.

The activity provides an opportunity to get to know the faculty members, to learn about some campus facilities, discuss current topics and concern about some issues, and meet about academic and non-academic student activities.

Students can meet representatives from the Financial Aid Office, Student Personnel Services, Career Services and other offices to discuss whatever questions they may have and learn where their offices are located.

All sessions are not always held in the assigned room. Sometimes, for a change of pace, the students are taken to the Baruch Art Gallery and the Library to acquaint them with the resource system, said Thangaraj. Students will be informed by the leader in advance of such activities.

The final sessions will introduce the dean of Baruch's three schools. Students will be able to familiarize themselves with them and ask questions.

For Information Call

idant Laboratories

At 935-1450

WOMEN'S HEALTH CENTER

WE OFFER SAFE QUALITY GYNECOLOGY & ABORTION
SERVICES. OUR CENTER, A MODERN FDA LICENSED FACILITY, OFFERS EXPERT CARE BY PROFESSIONAL PERSONNEL.

PREGNANCY TESTS ARE FREE

(212) 756-8110

MON.-SAT., AND EVENING APPOINTMENTS

CENTRE FOR REPRODUCTIVE AND SEXUAL HEALTH, INC.

10 EAST 21st STREET

NEW YORK, N.Y. 10010

BLUE CROSS AND ALL HEALTH INSURANCE COVERS ABORTION

MEDICARE - VISA - MASTERCARD

ALL SERVICES

DEBATE:

One of the most important skills for success in school and business.

All students interested in starting a debate club at Baruch should meet during club hours, Thursday, September 3, in Room 1420, 23rd Street building.

The meeting will begin at 12:45 and run for approximately one hour.

If you would like to debate, but cannot attend, leave a message with Professor Birdsell, 725-3197.

Baruch Welcomes Freshmen

Donors Wanted

Seminars can bring order to chaotic first days

By NANNETTE F. GORDON

What courses are you taking? What and how are you going to finance your education? Where is the Financial Aid Office located? All of these and many other questions are asked by freshmen students. Their first days here are at Baruch are chaotic.

In an attempt to alleviate this type of situation, "all freshmen seminars are invited to take Freshman Seminars," said Elizabeth Thangaraj, co-founder of Orientation and Special Programs. Orientation is also provided to transfer students.

Freshmen orientation seminars are led by faculty members and upperclassmen. In selecting the opportunities as leaders, Thangaraj sends letters to students on the Dean's list, interviews them and makes her selections. She says, "I will pick with them.

Upperclassmen and faculty members from the three schools (School of Liberal Arts, School of Business and Public Administration) lead the seminars. This enables the students to get to know the faculty members and feel more comfortable when they attend their first classes.

Freshmen seminar consists of 12 sessions. The first meeting will be the convocation. Professor Paul LeClerc will welcome the new students to Baruch and inaugurate the first classes.

Professor Marks, distinguished professor of Philosophy, will deliver the convocation. This will be a formal meeting and will be led by the Seminar's leader, according to the leader's agenda. The meeting will take place at 11:30 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 3, 1987, at 1:00 p.m., in the first floor auditorium of 17 Lexington Ave.

The activity provides an opportunity to get to know the faculty members, to learn about some campus facilities, discuss current topics and concern about some issues, and meet about academic and non-academic student activities.

Students can meet representatives from the Financial Aid Office, Student Personnel Services, Career Services and other offices to discuss whatever questions they may have and learn where their offices are located.

All sessions are not always held in the assigned room. Sometimes, for a change of pace, the students are taken to the Baruch Art Gallery and the Library to acquaint them with the resource system, said Thangaraj. Students will be informed by the leader in advance of such activities.

The final sessions will introduce the dean of Baruch's three schools. Students will be able to familiarize themselves with them and ask questions.

For Information Call

idant Laboratories

At 935-1450

WOMEN'S HEALTH CENTER

WE OFFER SAFE QUALITY GYNECOLOGY & ABORTION
SERVICES. OUR CENTER, A MODERN FDA LICENSED FACILITY, OFFERS EXPERT CARE BY PROFESSIONAL PERSONNEL.

PREGNANCY TESTS ARE FREE

(212) 756-8110

MON.-SAT., AND EVENING APPOINTMENTS

CENTRE FOR REPRODUCTIVE AND SEXUAL HEALTH, INC.

10 EAST 21st STREET

NEW YORK, N.Y. 10010

BLUE CROSS AND ALL HEALTH INSURANCE COVERS ABORTION

MEDICARE - VISA - MASTERCARD

ALL SERVICES

DEBATE:

One of the most important skills for success in school and business.

All students interested in starting a debate club at Baruch should meet during club hours, Thursday, September 3, in Room 1420, 23rd Street building.

The meeting will begin at 12:45 and run for approximately one hour.

If you would like to debate, but cannot attend, leave a message with Professor Birdsell, 725-3197.

Donors Wanted

Seminars will be used for artificial insemination for couples who cannot have children due to male infertility.

All donor types are needed.

Accepted donors are paid

For Information Call

idant Laboratories

At 935-1450

WOMEN'S HEALTH CENTER

WE OFFER SAFE QUALITY GYNECOLOGY & ABORTION
SERVICES. OUR CENTER, A MODERN FDA LICENSED FACILITY, OFFERS EXPERT CARE BY PROFESSIONAL PERSONNEL.

PREGNANCY TESTS ARE FREE

(212) 756-8110

MON.-SAT., AND EVENING APPOINTMENTS

CENTRE FOR REPRODUCTIVE AND SEXUAL HEALTH, INC.

10 EAST 21st STREET

NEW YORK, N.Y. 10010

BLUE CROSS AND ALL HEALTH INSURANCE COVERS ABORTION

MEDICARE - VISA - MASTERCARD

ALL SERVICES

DEBATE:

One of the most important skills for success in school and business.

All students interested in starting a debate club at Baruch should meet during club hours, Thursday, September 3, in Room 1420, 23rd Street building.

The meeting will begin at 12:45 and run for approximately one hour.

If you would like to debate, but cannot attend, leave a message with Professor Birdsell, 725-3197.
Helpline’s Doors Are Open

Since 1975, Baruch students have come to Helpline when they’ve needed someone to talk to about their problems, or just someone to talk to. Helpline is a peer counseling and referral service run by students. Its staff undergoes training and regular supervision with the counselors of the Department of Student Personnel Services.

Helpline offers the following services to all members of the Baruch community:

Information
- A confidential mechanism to talk about Baruch, but you are asked to talk about your problems, not your personal life. First in the school for special assistance.

Peer Counseling
- Helpline members are there to listen to any concerns you may have. We are here to help.

Housing Assistance
- We manage files of vacant apartments and rooms. If you’re looking for housing, talk to us, and we’ll assist you in finding what you need.

Resources
- Pamphlets and brochures on health topics, student aid, resources, and more. We can help.

Referrals
- Where to go in the community for support services such as health services, legal advice, or help groups.

Drop-In
- Everyone is welcome to chat, meet us or just say hi. No Nheels.

Helpliners are also involved in other activities including:
- Staffing the information booth at registration
- Freshmen Orientation
- Student Government
- Clubs and Organization Leadership
- Awareness, Commitment and Freshmen and Transfer Student Convocation

Come To Our Open House

Thursday, September 12
12:35 to 2:40—room 520 of 46 E. 26th St. Bldg.

Refreshments will be served and the Helpline staff will be there to answer your questions.

Helpline is always looking for new members to maintain the quality of its services and will be an integral part of the Baruch Community.

So if you’re interested in joining and you hope we are, or just want to ask a question, we encourage you to drop in at the Open House. It could be one of the most important things you’ll ever do in college.

The Movies of Summer

By MARTIN STARKEY

Beverly Hills Cop

Before May 13 and August 13, 32 movies were released. Of those, 11 have been nominated for Best Picture at the Academy Awards. (That’s half of this season’s movies so far.)

The recent anniversary of the 1940s, the 1950s, and the 1960s that became the 1970s, and the recent Hollywood blockbuster, Beverly Hills Cop II, BFC, If It Has Given more than a fleeting glimpse of the film you’ve ever seen, it’s mainly because Eddie’s next movie—a concert film called Richard Pryor’s December, filmed during the summer of 1984 and released during the summer of 1985—was not a summer hit.

THE FAVORITES:

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. And it’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE BEST:

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PLEASANT SURPRISE:

Streets were lined with people. The crowd was singing. The crowd was dancing. The crowd was happy. The crowd was satisfied.

THE HINTS:

The audience was humming along to Thank You, for Everything, which has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE HINTS:

The audience was humming along to Thank You, for Everything, which has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PROBLEMS:

It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE HINTS:

The audience was humming along to Thank You, for Everything, which has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PROBLEMS:

It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE BEST:

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PROBLEMS:

It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE BEST:

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PROBLEMS:

It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE BEST:

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PROBLEMS:

It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE BEST

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PROBLEMS:

It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE BEST:

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PROBLEMS:

It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE BEST

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PROBLEMS:

It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE BEST

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PROBLEMS:

It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE BEST

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE PROBLEMS:

It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.

THE BEST

No surprise about Beverly Hills Cop, which has been nominated for Best Picture. It’s been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times. The story is about the real-life sleuth, the tough-talking, tough-talking detective who has been nominated for Best Picture, which has won the award seven times.
BETA ALPHA PSI
NATIONAL ACCOUNTING HONOR SOCIETY

CORDIALLY INVITES YOU TO JOIN OUR CLUB.

INFORMATIVE, INTERESTING

Guest Speakers On Topics Such As:

- Babson Fellows - Briefcases
- Mock Interviews
- Public Accounting Fact & Fiction
- PLUS

SUPPORTIVE, FRIENDLY PEOPLE!!
COME TO OUR OPEN HOUSE
Thursday September 3, 1987
Club hours: 12:35-2:40
Room 722

Droning Whine

Richard Lloyd: Real Time

Listening to Richard Lloyd's new album, Real Time makes me think of the people in front of me at a Mat game. You know, the ones who are real fans-looking, well aware of the context and who do the right thing. Lloyd's first real bass, real-time album is certainly as classy to the man as it is accessible to the casual listener. His style of playing is so original that it's hard to imagine anyone else being able to play quite like he does.

The man lives and breathes, constantly. His playing is in your face, his whiny, complaints about life, plus the noise he makes. The noise, I mean Lloyd is a great guitarist. He can play guitar. He's fast and has a good sound. The noise he makes with a rock and a bottle, slowly, sensually moving, puts everyone in the mood to do his best.

Lloyd's style of playing is so original that it's hard to imagine anyone else being able to play quite like he does.

Richard Lloyd's style of playing is so original that it's hard to imagine anyone else being able to play quite like he does. He's fast and has a good sound.

The man lives and breathes, constantly. His playing is in your face, his whiny, complaints about life, plus the noise he makes. The noise, I mean Lloyd is a great guitarist. He can play guitar. He's fast and has a good sound. The noise he makes with a rock and a bottle, slowly, sensually moving, puts everyone in the mood to do his best.

Lloyd's style of playing is so original that it's hard to imagine anyone else being able to play quite like he does.

Richard Lloyd's style of playing is so original that it's hard to imagine anyone else being able to play quite like he does. He's fast and has a good sound.

The man lives and breathes, constantly. His playing is in your face, his whiny, complaints about life, plus the noise he makes. The noise, I mean Lloyd is a great guitarist. He can play guitar. He's fast and has a good sound. The noise he makes with a rock and a bottle, slowly, sensually moving, puts everyone in the mood to do his best.

Lloyd's style of playing is so original that it's hard to imagine anyone else being able to play quite like he does.

Richard Lloyd's style of playing is so original that it's hard to imagine anyone else being able to play quite like he does. He's fast and has a good sound.

The man lives and breathes, constantly. His playing is in your face, his whiny, complaints about life, plus the noise he makes. The noise, I mean Lloyd is a great guitarist. He can play guitar. He's fast and has a good sound. The noise he makes with a rock and a bottle, slowly, sensually moving, puts everyone in the mood to do his best.

Lloyd's style of playing is so original that it's hard to imagine anyone else being able to play quite like he does.
FRENCH PARFUME AND MAINE'S MISERY

Missy

By Stephen King

330 pp., Hard Cover, $18.95

Review by

by Patrick Suddard

Stein & Suddard
330 pp., paperback, $4.95

By John Greco

Poor Paul has the task of writing the next best-selling novel that will be on the Missy series with one small hitch—he must marry Missy Chastain. Missy's dead husband was brought back to life by Leigh, an SSS (Secret Scent Society) expert. Leigh's book has been a hit, but a strange desire begins to assert itself on Missy. It is a desire that can only be satisfied by marriage. Leigh is the only other person who seems to share this desire. Missy, exhausted and at her wits' end, turns to Paul. She is sure that he is the perfect candidate, and he is willing to try anything in order to have her.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.

Paul is more than willing to help Missy. He agrees to marry her, but only if she promises to help him with his case. Missy agrees, but she begins to have doubts. She starts to wonder if she really wants to be married to Paul. She begins to see that he is not the perfect candidate.

Paul is a lawyer who has been working on a case involving the death of a teenager. The family of the dead teenager has been gloating over her death, and Paul wants to get his hands on that family. Missy, on the other hand, wants to be able to tell her husband that she is pregnant. She believes that if she can have Paul, she can have the baby.
INTRODUCING STUDENTPLUS.
ONE OF THE CHEAPEST WAYS TO SPEND MONEY.

Where college students are concerned, the smart money is on--or should we say in--Chemical Bank.

Because Chemical is introducing StudentPlus, a convenient, low-cost banking package that includes checking, credit, and high-interest savings options that specifically meet a college student's special financial needs.

With StudentPlus, you only pay $1 a month for checking while you're a student and nothing during the summer. And if you maintain $1,000 in combined account balances, there's no monthly fee.

When you open up StudentPlus, you'll immediately receive a ChemicalBank card which lets you get cash at over 18,000 Chemical, NYSE, MAC, and CIBUS machines in New York and nationwide. Getting to your money won't cost you money either, because there are no teller, cash machine transaction, or per charge charges.

To top it all off, you can get credit by applying for a MasterCard or Visa card and Privilege Checking* a line of credit attached to your checking account that gives you cash whenever you need it.*

So be smart and open a StudentPlus account today. Just bring the coupon into any one of our over 230 branches. Or call our toll-free hotline at 1-800-643-6226.

CHORUS

STUDENTPLUS
(Continued from page 14)

StudentPlus has a special feature available upon request, the bullion. Which brings us to the question of what reaches the bullion. It's not just the gold or silver but the silver and gold that come from the mine and are refined in the smelting process.

By JOHN GRECO

From Agoraphobia to Claustrophobia

By JOHN GRECO

Agoraphobia is not a subject that is often given the attention it deserves. This false belief about the disease has led to a lack of awareness and misunderstanding. However, the disease is not a mental illness. It is a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder. People with agoraphobia are not mentally ill. They are physically ill. The disease is caused by a physical disorder.

By JOHN GRECO

Boozers, Lushes and Poetic Justice

In a very cute spot of Los Angeles, in a bar called the Golden Horn, sits a class of people that I'd like to see more of concerned alcohol. Fearing that perfectly content person is Henry Bukowski played by Nicky Lowery, a slyly young man who possesses a relentless charm and an on-going dilemma. For Bukowski, who finds joy in picking fights every night with the bar's head barmaid, Trudy (Frank Fincher) persistent and fast-paced, and the film is supported by a perfect cast. Mickey Rourke delivers the finest perfor- mance of his career as the central character, Henry. However, there are also other fine performances by John Ritter as Bukowski, who is a bubbling, good-natured alcoholic who is perfectly happy living in his world.

END OF PAGE
The Ticker will host an OPEN HOUSE

On Thursday, September 10th
during club hours in our office,

Room 301 F of the Student Center.

Stop by and meet the staff.
We are looking for writers and photographers to work for The Ticker.

Refreshments will be served.