The Undergraduate Student Government has proposed to restructuring the student activity fees for all undergraduate students. USG's goal is to eliminate the differences between day and evening session students' fees by charging them based on full-time or part-time status.

Although day session students will be happy to find out that they might be paying $4.15 less, evening session students may not be too happy with the idea of paying $30.00 more. As of this semester, day full-time, day part-time, evening full-time and evening part-time students all pay different fees. Day full-time students pay twice as much as evening full-time students, $70.00 and $35.85 respectively. The fee for day part-time students is $40.85 and $23.85 for evening part-time students.

"I think we have to do it because now it's an undergraduate government, not day and evening any more so it makes a lot of sense to have a fee structure," said USG President Sara Garibaldi.

In April 1999, a new student government was elected to office when the student body voted to unify the two separate governments into one that would represent the entire undergraduate body. Prior to this election the student government was split into the Day Session Student Government (DSSG) and the Evening Session Student Assembly (ESSA).

The merging of DSSG and ESSA passed with new figures that will result in the proposed fee structure. "I agree with the fee structure but...now the evening fee has dramatically been increased. That's not fair to USG's few evening representatives. Are they crazy?" asked Valerie Muravitsky, an evening session student, after being informed of the possible fee hike. "I think it's unfair because most of my classes begin after four and I do not participate in clubs.

Muravitsky's concern raises the issue of evening students' desire not to pay fees for activities that they do not participate in. "There's a misconception that says that evening students are only on campus a few hours a week but there are a lot of day students who are on campus a few hours a week as well," said Carl Aylman, director of Student Life. "They pay their fees but they're working, they have family obligations or whatever the situation is. They may not be on campus much more than an evening student is and what this kind of does is recognize the fact that there are people in that kind of situation everybody pays the same thing based on how many classes you are taking," continued Aylman. "We don't care what hour you are there.

Before this new plan goes into effect, it first has to get on the ballot for the 2000 student elections. If the plan, 10 percent of the undergraduate student population must sign off petition that informs them of the proposed fee changes.

Students have already started collecting signatures in order to get the amount required by March 9. Assuming the proposal gets on the ballot, it will be up to the students to decide whether this plan will go into effect.

"I'm going to vote no to have it," said Muravitsky, perhaps revealing an idea of how evening session students will decide on the proposal.

Aylman encourages students to look at the positive aspects of the restructuring plan. "Were trying to have more money to play with here," said Aylman. "We're going to generate an extra $200,000 in totality across the board, which potentially means more programming and opportunities for people to get involved in.

Evening session students who believe that they will be wrongly charged the extra $30 will have the opportunity to vote the referendum down in the upcoming elections. Day session students will have the chance to vote affirmatively to save themselves some money.

According to Aylman, in Fall 1998, full-time day students numbered 6,664, part-time day was 1,531, full-time evening was 1,405 and part-time evening was 2,849. In spring 1999, 1,859 day and evening students voted the newly formed USG into office. An earlier referendum passed that semester had united DSSG and ESSA. As a result, the voting data was not broken down further into day and evening voters.

"That government was dying a slow death," said Aylman, referring to the low numbers of evening session candidates and members necessary to fill up ESSA.

"I believe all students should take this opportunity to vote and express how they feel," said Aylman. "Whether they agree with this or not, I urge all students to speak up. They should see this, however, not just as a decrease in a few dollars for some and an increase for others, but as an increase in funds for athletics, student clubs, student media and child care, which are currently programs that are underfunded.

Elections are scheduled for Apr. 10.
Free Money
For Students
on the Web

Interview with
The President

Baruch College
Student Government
Elections

Spring 2000
UNDERGRADUATE & GRADUATE
Campaign Dates & Deadlines

February 15
Declarations of Candidacy Forms and Election Guidelines Available.

February 25
Referendum Petition Review Deadline.

February 28
Acceptance of Declaration of Candidacy and Nominating Petitions Begins.

March 9
Final Deadline for Submission of Referendum Petitions & Declaration of Candidacy & Nominating Petitions.

April 10-13
ELECTIONS.

Election Guidelines and Declaration of Candidacy Forms Available at:

Baruch College
Student Development & Counseling
Suite 1512 / 360 Park Avenue South
212-802-6770

TICKER NEWS FEBRUARY 2, 2000

TICKER FEATURES FEBRUARY 9, 2000

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—BUSINESS WIRE via COLLEGIATE PRESSWIRE (Feb. 1, 2000) — FreeScholarships.com, a new internet service of Mannheim, Inc. (NASDAQ:IVIL), is dedicated to helping students and their families meet the rising cost of an education. The service was launched.

FreeScholarships.com (www.freescholarships.com) features valuable information that is up-to-date and comprehensive. It is the result of a cooperative project that combines Mannheim's expertise with our</noscript>
The Silent Voice

The voice of the student is slowly getting silenced. In a small move that seems insignificant, The Ticker has lost valuable time to present to their fellow students, the news they deserve to know.

One of our editors arrived on a Sunday to begin production on the Ticker. A security guard informed our editor that access to the 26th floor building will be denied to everyone between the hours of 6 p.m. on Saturdays to 6:30 a.m. on Mondays. Apparently, the order came directly from VP Dan Creange.

A memo from Creange that this act was done because of a leasing agreement with Cushman Wakefield. They are cutting back on their budget, so they don't want more security than they need. All "unnecessary" hours have been cut.

What does this mean? Well, besides teachers not being able to get an extra day to work on lesson plans or correcting tests, The Ticker is delayed. Without editing, a layout, and various other editorial duties, The Ticker can not come out every week, and new news becomes old news rather quickly.

We have been told to work around this problem, but that becomes hard when you have a full-time schedule all week, and who need to use the weekends to get their work done. A paper cannot be made to look good on six hours of work. In a rush, valuable information is forgotten, the paper looks shoddy, and it comes out late. Also, because security guards will not let us stay past midnight on weekdays, the paper comes out even later.

This problem causes people to look past our paper on the Thursday or Friday it comes out, because the news doesn't matter anymore. We lose ad revenue, because we're supposed to come out on a Wednesday, and with the security guards, we lose ad revenue, because we're supposed to come out on a Wednesday, and even when we do come out, it looks bad, and we give away news on our newsletter. People go to dating sites and other sites. Good for the school, but not for the students.

The Ticker is a vital part of the school community. For so many years, it has been a voice for the students, it has been your voice since you have been here, and it needs some help to be a timely voice for the future generation of Baruch students.
FEBRUARY EVENTS

Career Development Center

February 7
Macy's Information Session
151 East 25th Street
6:00 Room 763

February 9
IDENTIFY YOUR SKILLS
151 East 25th Street
3:00-5:00 Room 251

February 10
RESUME WRITING
151 East 25th Street
5:00-6:30 Room 251

Merrill Lynch Internship Information Session
151 East 25th Street
6:00 Room 750

February 15
TESTING ON TUESDAYS
151 East 25th Street
3:30 - 5:00 Room 251

INTERVIEWING I
151 East 25th Street
12:00 - 2:00 Room 251

INTERNSHIP FAIR PREPARATION WORKSHOP
151 East 25th Street
5:00-7:00 Room 251

Hannaford Brothers Information Session
151 East 25th Street
6:00 Room 306

February 16
MARKET YOUR SKILLS
17 Lexington Avenue, Skylight Lounge
3:00-5:00 Room 251

February 17
INTERNSHIP FAIR
151 East 25th Street (Pre-Registration Required)
11:00 - 5:00 Conference Ctr.

Abbott Laboratories Information Session
151 East 25th Street
6:00 Room 763

February 23
RESUME WRITING
151 East 25th Street
11:30 - 1:30 Room 251

PaineWebber Internship Information Session
151 East 25th Street
4:30 Room 763

Feb. 23, March 1 Alumni Workshop/How To Make a Successful Career Change 6:00-8:30
151 East 25th Street Room 415

February 28, 2000 Goldman Sachs Internship Information Session
17 Lexington Avenue, Skylight Lounge
6:00 Room 306

COUNSELING/RESUME REVIEWS/MOCK INTERVIEWS/BY APPOINTMENT

Biz Briefs

Mannesmann Surrenders To Vodafone

Vodafone AirTouch, a British-based mobile-phone operator has exceeded its three months hopes for the quarter, according to analysts. Germany's largest communication company. On Friday Mannesmann's supervisory board approved its stated strategy. The British-based company acquired Mannesmann for $18 billion to meet

Brazilian Internet Battleground

As Internet companies prepare to do battle over Brazil's Internet, America Online LatAm America Inc. says it will not offer free Internet access service. The company plans to focus on its existing 65,000 paying customers, leaving the rest of its users to pay for access to Internet Direct, SFN, and Terra Internet. 5,000

Unemployment Numbers Deceive

According to The Labor Department, unemployment rates are down, but actual unemployment rates are high. In the US, the job market is inflated and that overall unemployment rate is still less than the reported figure. The unemployment rate currently stands at 4 percent.

By Vanessa Stagg

Executive Editor

A new wave in business is trying to make a splash in cyberspace with an innovative new approach to promoting and planning events.

Several new companies are carving out a niche for themselves while catering to a niche for their services. The service providers, with the help of customers, make the most of what the Internet has to offer by using its tools to perform single tasks, such as sending out invitations and keeping track of responses. By using one of these new companies, you can quickly organize a party or event without much effort.

The homepage for tickr.com boasts that it is "the one-stop destination for planning events." According to company, they are " hassle-free event planning service designed to help companies and organizations plan more successful events while saving time and money."

A staff of easily navigable and offers pricing services for party-planners. All of the services for an event can be ordered online. In addition to the e-invitations, you can create your own page for the event.

It is difficult to say whether this rising trend of online event and party planning sites will continue past the early stages of a developing industry. Time will play a determining factor; for most of these businesses, they are yet to have established themselves, and very few are in position to make a public offering. Any Internet search engine can return approximately 180 hits on similar sites, but not all of these sites will be around in the future.

Business Writers Needed!

Are you a Finance, Economics or Business Journalism major?

Do you read the Wall Street Journal?

If you answered yes to any of the above questions then write for the Business Section today.

Contact Business Editor

Orianna Hall The Ticker Business Office

212-802-6680 or drop an Email to ticker_business@yahoo.com

Business Writers Needed!

Coasting the Cyberwave of Party Planners

By Vanessa Stagg

Executive Editor

A new wave in business is trying to make a splash in cyberspace with an innovative new approach to promoting and planning events.

Several new companies are carving out a niche for themselves while catering to a niche for their services. The service providers, with the help of customers, make the most of what the Internet has to offer by using its tools to perform single tasks, such as sending out invitations and keeping track of responses. By using one of these new companies, you can quickly organize a party or event without much effort.

The homepage for tickr.com boasts that it is "the one-stop destination for planning events." According to company, they are " hassle-free event planning service designed to help companies and organizations plan more successful events while saving time and money."

A staff of easily navigable and offers pricing services for party-planners. All of the services for an event can be ordered online. In addition to the e-invitations, you can create your own page for the event.

It is difficult to say whether this rising trend of online event and party planning sites will continue past the early stages of a developing industry. Time will play a determining factor; for most of these businesses, they are yet to have established themselves, and very few are in position to make a public offering. Any Internet search engine can return approximately 180 hits on similar sites, but not all of these sites will be around in the future.

Business Writers Needed!

Are you a Finance, Economics or Business Journalism major?

Do you read the Wall Street Journal?

If you answered yes to any of the above questions then write for the Business Section today.

Contact Business Editor

Orianna Hall The Ticker Business Office

212-802-6680 or drop an Email to ticker_business@yahoo.com

Business Writers Needed!
Statesmen Tied For First and Eye Playoffs!

By Konstanta Pissi

Sports Editor

On Saturday, the Baruch men’s basketball team celebrated another upset. Prior to the game against New York City Technical (NYCT), the Statesmen’s senior center, Terence Brooks, was named the National Athlete. Brooks would also earn in the place of Olvera Verzosa who will be unable to play due to a neck injury.

In the first half, the team had 13 assists and the half-time score was 48-22. Something the coaching staff could not effectively was the halftime run. The run was mainly due to turnovers by NYCT. The Statesmen’s defense was frustrated and unable to get into a rhythm. The run proved to be a turning point in the game.

The second half proved to be much better for the Statesmen. The team had 13 assists in the second half and tied the game at 60-60.

In the fourth quarter, the Statesmen’s senior guard, Trevor Brookins, was watching wrestling with his girlfriend, her daughter, and her son. When things got too racy, we changed the channel. They were watching wrestling with their kids. Amazing.

You can’t beat the philosophy that if we group does it, we can also do it. It’s like that the new witnesses for the turner are unstoppable. The game proved that anyone can do it.

We’ve had over 40 game this year. I don’t think they play like a freight team. In less time, they play four games a week, and from the top three starters and NYCT.

Oh, the Statesmen’s defense has been over the top. We can see it on the court.

Players work hard all day and still have time for their kids. Amazing.

You can’t beat the philosophy that if more groups do it, we can also do it. It’s like the new witnesses for the turner are unstoppable. The game proved that anyone can do it.

We’ve had over 40 game this year. I don’t think they play like a freight team. In less time, they play four games a week, and from the top three starters and NYCT.

In less time, they play four games a week, and from the top three starters and NYCT.

In less time, they play four games a week, and from the top three starters and NYCT.

In less time, they play four games a week, and from the top three starters and NYCT.

In less time, they play four games a week, and from the top three starters and NYCT.
Happy Lunar New Year! Yes, it is the year of the dragon, and that does not have to get under your skin for everyone - it does not? Read on.

Again, if you don't know what your family is doing, you can find an Asian (not hard to do) and make a friend.

RABBIT

Your fortune will go up and down this year. You will be born in 1939. You may find it difficult to trust your opportunites to your personal interests into action, and for those born in 1963 and 1975, consider your options carefully. In the meantime, you will need to make better moves. Your luck will improve in the second half of the year and you will do really well. Rabbits should not make any major decisions this year. A change in their environment is in order.

HEALTH

There may be bittersweet in the beginning, but sweetness will come through. In your view, society made a lot of mistakes. In my book, they were just a product of their environment. I started to feel bad for them, and I still do.

I bought Tupac's new CDs when they first came out. A lot of people need to learn that his family had to fight against a company that caused his death from profiteering. It was obvious that his family deserved the rights to his music. They bought Tupac's life. Suge Knight's philosophies still hold true.

Now, I bought the new B.G. CD, because I had to go a little bit out of line. Then I looked at some of the performers who were still using their golden image. Pac Daddy was trying to pump his earnings up and sale something. B.A.D. BOTY performers at us, I was sure to help you fix the assists and not bring any more trouble. It was just a quick way to make some money.

Rabbits tend to lose their balance. They usually have a strong stomach and are often very resilient. However, they can have a flat bottom when it comes to making plans. They are usually very quick to make decisions, which can cause them to lose sight of what they are trying to achieve.

GOAT

When you are a goat, you have a lot of potential to achieve success. In my opinion, you need to be careful not to let this potential go to waste.

HEALTH

Not too bad a year, in general. However, be very careful if you were born in 1989, 1953, or 1919. Be very careful if you were born in 1949 or 1915. Be careful if you were born in 1929, 1909, or 1905.

DRAGON

The year of the dragon is a year of great fortune. If you were born in 1995, 1947, 1939, or 1937, you have good fortune this year. You may even get a promotion or salary increase. You may want to study hard this year, but do not get burned out.

HEALTH

Make time for rest. Rabbits tend to lose their balance. They usually have a strong stomach and are often very resilient. However, they can have a flat bottom when it comes to making plans. They are usually very quick to make decisions, which can cause them to lose sight of what they are trying to achieve.

DRAGON

It's a great word, but it's not always easy to use. Take note of these little thingies.

I'm not too bad at my old job, and I'm sure I can use some of my experience in a new job as well. The road ahead is filled with unexpected twists and turns. There are a few things on the horizon for 2022, but I'm not sure how things will turn out. Just keep going - a smooth and stable road uncharted. If you were born in 1932, you may have good career prospects. Extra vitamin dosage will keep your body healthy for a long time. Those born in 1946 may suffer from fatigue and malnourishment. Keep an open mind, and don't let stress interfere with your work. You will find your love life and work to be more fulfilling this year. LOVE and FAMILY: Monkeys born in 1923 will be loved and respected by many. They may have arguments with partners over minor issues - especially if you were born with a goat. Monkeys are highly emotional and can make things difficult for you.

Extra vitamin dosage will keep your body healthy for a long time. Those born in 1946 may suffer from fatigue and malnourishment. Keep an open mind, and don't let stress interfere with your work. You will find your love life and work to be more fulfilling this year. LOVE and FAMILY: Monkeys born in 1923 will be loved and respected by many. They may have arguments with partners over minor issues - especially if you were born with a goat. Monkeys are highly emotional and can make things difficult for you.
Rear Window: A Classic Revisited

Alfred Hitchcock's Rear Window Universal Studios
by Kin Ping Koo

The restoration of 1954's Rear Window has maintained the brilliance of Hitchcock's original vision for the film, reproducing the great artificial sunsets over the Village sets to the purity of the Black and whites of Kelly's wardrobe to the last minute of her close-ups, as has been expected by Robert A. Harris and James C. Katz, and preserved for years to come.

Rear Window delivers the suspense that only Hitchcock can produce. The determined and sometimes plot of a man confined to his apartment with a broken leg who spends his days channel surfing his neighbors' windows into a hell that pulsates as a tense, gripping thriller.

It starts most seriously. Set in the Village, L.B. Jefferies (James Stewart) sits in his window that faces the back of a group of other apartments, affording him a different view of the lives of his neighbors. He gives them nicknames and loves to watch L. B. MacDonald for a woman caught having an imaginary date in her apartment that turns out he had destroyed a plant. Miss Lone is an uptown-socialite, constantly mumbling, and funny phrases. Very naive, always confiding, constantly mumbling, and funny phrases. Very naive, always confiding, never asking why. She even doubles as a Scotland.

The film's biggest flaw is the jokes, because theatres will drop this one faster than purchase a copy of the Sports Illustrated magazine issue. And critics canny by Drew Carey and David Hasselhoff (playing themselves) don't make this film any better. The Big Waste of Time, Martin arrives at the L.A. airport, gives a tour of the city, and Martin arrives at the L.A. airport, giving a tour of the city, which in fact was merely an invitation to attend and watch. Crawford becomes determined to enter the competition whatever it takes, including finding a sponsor and he is one of the settings where he must come up with a plan to enter the contest.

The film's biggest flaw is the jokes, because theatres will drop this one faster than purchase a copy of the Sports Illustrated magazine issue. And critics canny by Drew Carey and David Hasselhoff (playing themselves) don't make this film any better. The Big Waste of Time, Martin arrives at the L.A. airport, gives a tour of the city, and Martin arrives at the L.A. airport, giving a tour of the city, which in fact was merely an invitation to attend and watch. Crawford becomes determined to enter the competition whatever it takes, including finding a sponsor and he is one of the settings where he must come up with a plan to enter the contest.

The blessing part comes...
The World Wrestling Federation:

By Jon Minners

The World Wrestling Federation has taken over New York. The action, the music, the excitement! There’s so much action, fans to see their heroes, and now the WWF has some food for that, as well. On January 18, the WWF officially opened their restaurant in Times Square, aptly called WWF New York.

Crowds of fans gathered at the new restaurant in hopes of getting a glimpse of their favorite stars as they made their way through the doors and into a wrestling fan’s dream.

The crowd was huge; so huge that fans waiting for several hours had to turn away. It was a VIP-only night, and those lucky enough to get in received a treat as most of the WWF stars made an appearance, which also included a special performance from Sugar Ray.

It was one incredible night, capping off a tremendous week of restaurant openings. The stars were ready to soak up the action, hear the music, feel the atmosphere, and those lucky enough to get inside were in for a tremendous week of restaurant action. The stars made an appearance, which also included a special performance from Sugar Ray.

On January 18, the WWF restaurant was the site of a VIP-only night, and those lucky enough to get in received a treat as most of the WWF stars made an appearance, which also included a special performance from Sugar Ray.

The restaurant is pretty loud as rap, hip-hop, and techno fill the stage area, where Sugar Ray performed live only a few nights before. Watching the British Invasion dance, and techno shake the room. It is a must-see, and one incredible night, capping off a tremendous week of restaurant openings.

The Rock is wondering why he hasn’t bought his own football league yet. What are you waiting for? The Rock is a natural leader, and he has all the tools to succeed. He has the look, the charisma, and the drive to make it happen. It’s time to make your move and join the ranks of the WWE legends.

First New York, Then the World!

Vince McMahon held a press conference at the WWF Restaurant here in Manhattan, on February 4. The major news of the day was the announcement of a brand new football league that will play games after the NFL holds the Super Bowl. This new league is said to be more along the lines of old style football, with less rules and regulations. One of the things that will change game forever.

The Rock is the biggest name in the game, and he is ready to make his mark. He has the look, the charisma, and the drive to make it happen. It’s time to make your move and join the ranks of the WWE legends.

The Rock is a natural leader, and he has all the tools to succeed. He has the look, the charisma, and the drive to make it happen. It’s time to make your move and join the ranks of the WWE legends.

The WWF restaurant is the first of five promotional events at the restaurant the opening was WWF Event Day. Fans had an opportunity to get the autographs of some of their favorite WWF female stars. But the restaurant was more than a place to get autographs. It was a VIP-only night, and those lucky enough to get in received a treat as most of the WWF stars made an appearance, which also included a special performance from Sugar Ray.

It was one incredible night, capping off a tremendous week of restaurant openings. The stars were ready to soak up the action, hear the music, feel the atmosphere, and those lucky enough to get inside were in for a tremendous week of restaurant action. The stars made an appearance, which also included a special performance from Sugar Ray.

The restaurant is pretty loud as rap, hip-hop, and techno fill the stage area, where Sugar Ray performed live only a few nights before. Watching the British Invasion dance, and techno shake the room. It is a must-see, and one incredible night, capping off a tremendous week of restaurant openings.

The Rock is wondering why he hasn’t bought his own football league yet. What are you waiting for? The Rock is a natural leader, and he has all the tools to succeed. He has the look, the charisma, and the drive to make it happen. It’s time to make your move and join the ranks of the WWE legends.

First New York, Then the World!
And the Beat Goes On

I recently received the second installment of Bounce Back, and while I liked the first one, the second one immediately tops it in terms of content and overall adrenaline-pumping action.

Nate Torres continues his quest to get paid, to remedy the situation before it can get out of hand. Practicing until the very last moment, Nate steps at nothing to improve his game of basketball.

His feelings for Mizi are far more explored in this book. As you can see from the review at the front of the first book, Mizi is the basketball queen. She is more than just a pretty face; she has the skills to back up her looks.

A rather heady combo, her ability to articulate her feelings, her responsiveness, and her desire to improve her game, make her a truly memorable character.

I really enjoyed this book, and I look forward to seeing what happens next.

The Asylum Animation Archives

Spoof! Suddenly, a huge, muscular creations walks into the room and starts talking to the audience. He is dressed like a comic book hero, with a cape and a mask. He speaks in a strict, official manner.

"Ladies and gentlemen, welcome to the Asylum Animation Archives. Here, we present the premier source for all things Scooby Doo."

This character is actually played by a man named Bob, who is a huge fan of the show.

The reason for the existence of this character is to introduce the Scooby Doo universe to the audience. The Scooby Doo universe is a world of mystery and adventure, where a group of friends solve cases and fight monsters.

The Asylum Animation Archives is a place where fans can come to learn more about the show and its characters. The archives include everything from scripts to character designs to background information.

One of the most popular sections of the archives is the "Scooby Doo vs. The Unknown" section. Here, fans can read about the various cases that Scooby and his friends have solved, and see how they compare to other famous mysteries.

Another popular section is the "Scooby Doo vs. The Unknown" section. Here, fans can read about the various cases that Scooby and his friends have solved, and see how they compare to other famous mysteries.

The Asylum Animation Archives is a treasure trove of Scooby Doo information, and a must-see for any fan of the show.
Love Lost

By Blackheart

Thinking of love and the depth of its cost
When that love which was deep
Is eventually lost.
She had my heart
Until the day she would die
And when death did occur.
I could not understand why,
We played with the demon
It was only a game
Until it wasn't
And things weren't the same.
She got caught up
Let the demon live
It played with her mind
And soon consumed her soul.
It was too much
For her body to take
She fell into chaos
Never again would she wake.
How can you prepare
To lose that love so dear
To look around your world
And see she's no longer here.
Her death serves no purpose.
The demon lost its grip on me
I took one look at myself
And saw what my future could be.
The future I saw
Was a grim one for me
And I had to move on
I had to break free.
I was able to get away
I got away with my life
Get away from the misery
Do away with the strife.
Love lost is a sad day ruined with rain
It's a heart given over
But still feeling pain.

ODE TO MY LOVE, MINNIE

By Karl D. Bowles

My love you ask, why do I love you?
Because you are sweeter than a summer peach,
Ripened to perfection,
Tender, sweet.
Because you have the beauty of a classic kind
Outer and inner,
Strength and character,
A positive role model
Our romance is on an iceberg
My endless love for you can only begin
And when you are lonely,
And you are alone,
Tender, sensitive.
I adore everything that you are
And everything in it
My love you Minnie.

To write for the Asylum, come to room 1522 in the 360 building and ask for Kin Ping or Jon Minners. You can also send an e-mail to the Asylum at scps@nyu.edu. Write for the Asylum. Get free CDs.
Give Blood. Save a neighbor.

2000 Baruch College Blood Drive

Thurs., March 2, 2000 9:30 am – 3:00 pm
Room 1542 360 Park Avenue So.

To schedule an appointment clip the coupon below.

Name ________________________________
Address ______________________________
Area Code + Phone (________)___________

First Choice: __________________________
Second Choice: _________________________
Third Choice: __________________________

Thurs., March 2, 2000 9:30 am – 3:00 pm

Return to: Baruch College Student Life, Room 1512, 360 PAS, Box F-1512, 802-6770

Register online @ www.scsu.baruch.cuny.edu

Sponsored by:

Baruch College Student Life

Blood Center

CITIBANK

©can grafx