Middle States Team Chair Says "No Conflict of Interest" Misinterprets Rules

BY KENNETH E. BROWN

The chairperson of the Middle States Association evaluation team denies there was a conflict of interest when he applied for the position of Baruch College provost and vice president of academic affairs in January 1990. The provost search committee accepted T.H. Bonaparte’s application, but he withdrew it after MSA notified Baruch College of the deferral of its accreditation.

Bonaparte chaired the eight-member MSA evaluation team that visited Baruch College on November 12-13, 1989. The team issued a 37-page report which praised Baruch’s academic environment but recommended changes in the college’s student retention policies and hiring practices.

According to the MSA Handbook for Chairing & Hosting An Evaluation Team, no member of an evaluation team can result or be otherwise employed at an institution which he or she visited, “for a period of one year.”

“I don’t see it as a conflict,” said Bonaparte in a telephone interview. “My interpretation of the standard was that it referred to an academic year.”

Bonaparte maintained that if he was appointed as provost at Baruch it would be in the Fall of 1990, the next academic year after reporting his recommendation to the MSA’s Commission of Higher Education, and almost one calendar year after the end of the MSA’s evaluation team at Baruch. Bonaparte is currently the provost and vice president of academic affairs at Bentley College in Massachusetts.

In the April 25 issue of The Ticker, it was reported that Professor James Guyot of the public administration department had charged that the MSA report on Baruch College and its subsequent actions were tainted by his view of a conflict of interest caused by Bonaparte’s application. In Guyot’s note to Bonaparte, the MSA council regarded this as taking advantage of the fact that his team’s report recommended the hiring of more black and Latino administration staff.

“I was not involved in misusing any information used in the reports,” said Bonaparte. “My position was not possible because he applied well after he submitted the team’s report to the MSA central staff on December 19, 1989. Bonaparte submitted his application to Baruch on January 13, 1990, but withdrew it on or about April 6, 1990.

“I withdrew the application when I found out that Joel Segall resigned as president,” he said. “I was not asked to withdraw by Segall or by Middle States.”

Continued on Page 5

Baruch College, CUNY

CUNY OKs Black, Latino Alumni Group

Fear of Drop in Big Donations from Alumni

BY EDWARD ASANTE

The Board of Trustees of the City University of New York has agreed to grant recognition and a separate charter to the Black and Latino Alumni Association amidst fears that major contributors to the Baruch College fund will withdraw their support to the school.

The decision comes after seven years of litigation between the BLAA and Baruch college over the use of the college’s name for the formation of a not-for-profit, separate alumni association that will operate independent of the existing Baruch College Alumni Association.

A decision was reached on April 25, the board agreed that Baruch College will provide general support for the new organization in terms of office space, meeting room, a telephone number, a secretary and a $5,000 advance account. The college will also pay litigation fees of $15,000 and attorney’s fees of $22,000. It was also agreed that the BLAA adheres to all CUNY and Baruch by-laws, policies, rules and regulations applicable to all Baruch College Alumni Associations including the policy that any significant fund raising be done by and through the Baruch College fund and not by the BLAA.

Continued on Page 5

Intergroup Relations Commission Divided; Smith Resigns in Protest Group Will Criticize B-School’s Curricular Guidance Department

BY KENNETH E. BROWN

Donald Smith, chairperson of the Department of Education, resigned on May 1 from the Intergroup Relations Commission in protest of what he perceives as the department’s unwillingness to place blame for the college’s race relations situation at the highest levels of the administration.

Commission chairperson Addison Gayle, a distinguished professor of English who could not be reached for comment by press time, said: “The chairperson would not let us interview Vice President Wertheimer or even let us discuss the infamous “Off-white Paper.”

Gayle was widely criticized early this semester for writing this document which in several places questioned the significance and motivations of the Black and Latino Alumni Association leaders.

“This just proves that Addison (Gayle) is a company man,” Smith said.

Administrative sources and other members of the Commission said that Gayle wanted to remain strong and support by all members.

Donald H. Smith, chairperson of the Education Department, the president of the commission. “He felt that a number of minority reports would take away from the hard work of the Commission and would decrease the integrity of the main report,” said one member.

Continued on Page 5

Student Forum Becomes Smith for President Rally

Professors Lead the Cheers

BY RAFAEL OLMEDA

Arthur Lewin, a professor in the department of philosophy, decided to install Donald H. Smith as president of the Student Forum. Smith, the chairperson of the department of Education, is the next president of Baruch College at a student rally on May 1.

The rally was organized by members of the Black and Latino Alumni Association to protest the college’s decision to withdraw support for the new alumni association.

Lewin and other professors at Baruch in the legal battle to establish the Black and Latino Alumni Association, who may be the pilot,” Lewin said, “but (Smith) is the captain” of the movement to eliminate bias at Baruch.

Continued on Page 5

Baruch College, CUNY

Professors Lead the Cheers

BY RAFAEL OLMEDA

Arthur Lewin, a professor in the department of Black and Hispanic Studies, called for the installation of Donald H. Smith, the chairperson of the department of Education, as the next president of Baruch College at a student rally on May 1.

The rally was organized by members of the Black and Latino Alumni Association to protest the college’s decision to withdraw support for the new alumni association.

Lewin and other professors at Baruch in the legal battle to establish the Black and Latino Alumni Association, who may be the pilot,” Lewin said, “but (Smith) is the captain” of the movement to eliminate bias at Baruch.

Continued on Page 5

Program Board, the University Student Senate, and several of Baruch’s cultural and ethnic clubs.

Several members of faculty also attended the rally, including Dean of Students Samuel Johnson and Acting Provost John McGarraghy, who was recommended by Michelle Payne of the African Students Association, the moderator of the rally, to serve as acting president until a selection committee appoints someone to the position.

Over the past seven years, Smith has worked closely with Lewin and other professors at Baruch in the legal battle to establish the Black and Latino Alumni Association, who may be the pilot,” Lewin said, “but (Smith) is the captain” of the movement to eliminate bias at Baruch.
BARUCH TO GET NEW PHONE SYSTEM

By EDWARD ASANTE

The Baruch College Alumni Association will honor the director of the transition management office, who oversees all telephone system updates. The new system will improve the efficiency and productivity of the school's services.

Some banks offer incentives for undergraduate student borrowers. The change was made to encourage students to consider lifestyle changes.

The Baruch College Alumni Association will honor the director of the transition management office, who oversees all telephone system updates. The new system will improve the efficiency and productivity of the school's services.

The Baruch College Alumni Association will honor the director of the transition management office, who oversees all telephone system updates. The new system will improve the efficiency and productivity of the school's services.

The Baruch College Alumni Association will honor the director of the transition management office, who oversees all telephone system updates. The new system will improve the efficiency and productivity of the school's services.

The Baruch College Alumni Association will honor the director of the transition management office, who oversees all telephone system updates. The new system will improve the efficiency and productivity of the school's services.

The Baruch College Alumni Association will honor the director of the transition management office, who oversees all telephone system updates. The new system will improve the efficiency and productivity of the school's services.
BARRON COLLEGE STUDENT CENTER
137 E. 22nd Street Lobby

D.S.S.G.
PRESENTS
SENIOR CRUISE
ON
MAY 29, 1990
FROM 6:30 PM - 9:00 PM
aboard

SPIRIT OF NEW YORK

COST: $35.00
buffet dinner and live music included

TICKETS ARE AVAILABLE AT DOROTHY'S DESK

Eight CUNY Students Apprehended at Protest
Second Round of Protests Begin

By MARY ELIZABETH HENRY

York students were apprehended by police during a protest at the World Trade Center on Wednesday. Several of the students were injured in the melee. The incident occurred when a group of approximately 500 CUNY students marched along with students from several organizations. Mayor of John D. Feisz said, "Police without warning arrested several of our brothers and sisters, refused to tell us where they were taking them, and just picked them up like dogs."

The students were arrested for "public order disturbances" and "disorderly conduct." The charges were later reduced to "unlawful assembly." It was reported that between 15 and 20 students were arrested.

The protest was called by the CUNY Student Action Committee, the Student Union of the City University of New York, and the New York City Coalition of Higher Education. The groups are protesting the loss of funds to the college as well as the lack of financial aid for students.

Math Grant

Continued from Front Page

This is one of the larger grants that the college has received in recent years. The intent of the grant is to improve student retention rates and to increase the number of students who graduate on time. The funds will be used to support the work of several faculty members who are working on innovative projects to enhance the learning experience of students.

Bonaparte Response

Continued from Front Page

Segal told the students that he would be "fully committed to the students' rights and to the principles that are enshrined in our constitution." He also stated that the students should not expect to be met with force or violence from the administration or police.

Smith Resigns

Continued from Front Page

Smith was the dean of the School of Business and Public Administration. He was also a member of the Board of Trustees. He has been a member of the faculty for over 20 years.

Baruch Rally

Continued from Front Page

There is going to be a new Baruch, Segal said, "and the students will be the ones who define it." He went on to say that the students must be involved in the decision-making process. "We need to work together to ensure that Baruch becomes the college of our dreams," he said.

BLAA

Continued from Front Page

Write for Tickcr News
Next Semester

Baruch College

Professor Arthur Levine

Baruch College

May 10, 1990

Ticker News

Eight CUNY Students Apprehended at Protest
Second Round of Protests Begin

By MARY ELIZABETH HENRY

York students were apprehended by police during a protest at the World Trade Center on Wednesday. Several of the students were injured in the melee. The incident occurred when a group of approximately 500 CUNY students marched along with students from several organizations. Mayor of John D. Feisz said, "Police without warning arrested several of our brothers and sisters, refused to tell us where they were taking them, and just picked them up like dogs."

The students were arrested for "public order disturbances" and "disorderly conduct." The charges were later reduced to "unlawful assembly." It was reported that between 15 and 20 students were arrested.

The protest was called by the CUNY Student Action Committee, the Student Union of the City University of New York, and the New York City Coalition of Higher Education. The groups are protesting the loss of funds to the college as well as the lack of financial aid for students.

Math Grant

Continued from Front Page

This is one of the larger grants that the college has received in recent years. The intent of the grant is to improve student retention rates and to increase the number of students who graduate on time. The funds will be used to support the work of several faculty members who are working on innovative projects to enhance the learning experience of students.

Bonaparte Response

Continued from Front Page

Segal told the students that he would be "fully committed to the students' rights and to the principles that are enshrined in our constitution." He also stated that the students should not expect to be met with force or violence from the administration or police.

Smith Resigns

Continued from Front Page

Smith was the dean of the School of Business and Public Administration. He was also a member of the Board of Trustees. He has been a member of the faculty for over 20 years.

Baruch Rally

Continued from Front Page

There is going to be a new Baruch, Segal said, "and the students will be the ones who define it." He went on to say that the students must be involved in the decision-making process. "We need to work together to ensure that Baruch becomes the college of our dreams," he said.

BLAA

Continued from Front Page

Write for Tickcr News
Next Semester
DOLLARS and SENSE
Baruch College
Business Review

May 1990
Volume 12

The face of America is changing.
So is the face of business.

This year,
it's everybody's business to read
Dollars and Sense.

Pick up your free copy

WANTED:
Layout designers for next semester to work on
Aldus Pagemaker and Microsoft Word

No experience necessary

We will train you on state of the art equipment.

Three positions available.
Add something impressive to your resume.

Don't miss out!
This is the opportunity of a lifetime and it's FREE!

Easy mobility into editorial positions

The Ticker
137 E. 22nd St.
(Student Center)
Room 301F
725-7620/7622
Baruch now has a new black and Latino alumni association to accommodate those graduates who fit into either category. The formation of such an association had been the subject of much speculation. Suddenly, there is a fear of losing contributions from those alumni who opposed the BLaA. Each graduate who is considering this course of action should keep in mind that they too are students. Their zeal for the spirit of this endeavor is what is likely that other ethnic groups will follow in the spirit of this endeavor and this is what gives our city its distinctive flavor. It's what makes their group unique instead of trying to follow in the record straight. When it is more then enough to say that the integration of their students, the Quick Response Act, the school, must now recognize that the students that they had. There are many of us who are new to this campus but President goes?"
Baruch: A Step Towards Change

By COLIN ROACH

Like Sofia stepped down from the throne of the 19th century, so did the late Adolph A. Lambert from the throne of the 20th. Sofia and Lambert were born from different worlds. Sofia was the 1707 daughter of the land who had left the land to Baruch. Lambert was the 1902 son of the land who had taken the land from Baruch. Sofia, Lambert, and the successors of Sofia and Lambert, have had a history of turmoil and strife.

Sofia and Lambert were both born from the land of Baruch. Sofia was born from the land of Baruch and Lambert was born from the land of Baruch. Sofia and Lambert were both born from the land of Baruch and the successors of Sofia and Lambert, have had a history of turmoil and strife.

Sofia and Lambert were both born from the land of Baruch. Sofia was born from the land of Baruch and Lambert was born from the land of Baruch. Sofia and Lambert were both born from the land of Baruch and the successors of Sofia and Lambert, have had a history of turmoil and strife. Sofia and Lambert were both born from the land of Baruch. Sofia was born from the land of Baruch and Lambert was born from the land of Baruch. Sofia and Lambert were both born from the land of Baruch and the successors of Sofia and Lambert, have had a history of turmoil and strife. Sofia and Lambert were both born from the land of Baruch. Sofia was born from the land of Baruch and Lambert was born from the land of Baruch. Sofia and Lambert were both born from the land of Baruch and the successors of Sofia and Lambert, have had a history of turmoil and strife.
At War! Continued from Page 11 and we rent and we rent and we don’t shut it down and we don’t shut it down. But Matt and Kevin, the creators of the comic book “Maus,” the Pulitzer Prize-winning graphic novel about the Holocaust, were right when they said, “The battle was won before it was fought for the survival of Black people, and once we know this, we cannot win the victory.”

Bob Marley has said, “How long will you let your enemies fool you. Don’t let the enemy’s war end up being your war. Don’t buy into his lies. Put yourself in the shoes of the enemy. Put yourself against your brothers and sisters. Don’t let the enemy win.”

Bob Marley also says: “Don’t let the enemy win. Put yourself in the shoes of the enemy. Put yourself against your brothers and sisters. Don’t buy into his lies. Put yourself in the shoes of the enemy. Put yourself against your brothers and sisters. Don’t let the enemy win.”

Continued from Page 11

Innocence Continued. All the time an emperor bears anything he imagines to be within his power to do, and all the time he is not in reality able to do it, he is constantly achieving it. He is never worse off than when he is doing a good job. That would make things better. It does not come through a New York City theater. After a few years of this, you really begin to feel like you’re being used, and you know he’s using you, and you may have received some psychological and emotional and emotional damage. In any case, I can’t list my job, but I respect the fact that my family and my friends also respect my friendship. I was not being paid. I was being paid for the one who was paying me. And Bob Marley also says: “Don’t let the enemy win. Put yourself in the shoes of the enemy. Put yourself against your brothers and sisters. Don’t buy into his lies. Put yourself in the shoes of the enemy. Put yourself against your brothers and sisters. Don’t let the enemy win.”

6 months of free checking. Something else to celebrate on graduation day.

Congratulations. You finally made it. And now you that you’re graduating, Chemical Bank has a great way to help you get started.

Just sign up for our affordable account, ChemFulx™ Banking for Young Professionals™, and you’ll receive six months’ free checking. And we’re offering a $2,000 personal credit to help you get started on your new career.

To open your account, stop into one of our many branches, or call our convenient phone service at 1-800-CHENBANK.

ChemicalBank

THE FINANCIAL EDGE

THE HUMAN TOUCH

6 months free checking...Something else to celebrate on graduation day.

Congratulations. You finally made it. And now that you’re graduating, Chemical Bank has a great way to help you get started.

Just sign up for our affordable account, ChemFulx™ Banking for Young Professionals™, and you’ll receive six months’ free checking. And we’re offering a $2,000 personal credit to help you get started on your new career.

To open your account, stop into one of our many branches, or call our convenient phone service at 1-800-CHENBANK.

ChemicalBank

THE FINANCIAL EDGE

THE HUMAN TOUCH

6 months free checking...Something else to celebrate on graduation day.

Congratulations. You finally made it. And now that you’re graduating, Chemical Bank has a great way to help you get started.

Just sign up for our affordable account, ChemFulx™ Banking for Young Professionals™, and you’ll receive six months’ free checking. And we’re offering a $2,000 personal credit to help you get started on your new career.

To open your account, stop into one of our many branches, or call our convenient phone service at 1-800-CHENBANK.

ChemicalBank

THE FINANCIAL EDGE

THE HUMAN TOUCH

ARTS & FEATURES

JACKSONIAN WISDOM

By Tom Baby

We need leaders who have a clear understanding of our rich diversity and who can lead us to that diversity. We also need leaders who have a clear understanding of our rich diversity and who can lead us to that diversity.

He emerged from the tumultuous and complex period of African history to become the leader for the future, and with his vision, his leadership, he has become the leader for the future.

To open your account, stop into one of our many branches, or call our convenient phone service at 1-800-CHENBANK.

ChemicalBank

THE FINANCIAL EDGE

THE HUMAN TOUCH

ARTS & FEATURES

JACKSONIAN WISDOM

By Tom Baby

We need leaders who have a clear understanding of our rich diversity and who can lead us to that diversity. We also need leaders who have a clear understanding of our rich diversity and who can lead us to that diversity.

He emerged from the tumultuous and complex period of African history to become the leader for the future, and with his vision, his leadership, he has become the leader for the future.

To open your account, stop into one of our many branches, or call our convenient phone service at 1-800-CHENBANK.
EXPERIENCES AT THE JOB: WHAT EMPLOYEES WANT YOU TO KNOW BEFORE YOU ENTER INTO AN INTERVIEW

By SULSAN KIRAN

Expect your potential employer to expect that you expect him to expect you. Simultaneously, think what he might think you should think, before you think of thinking about entering the lark of business world. What exactly does he want? Do you respect his every request? Do you respond to every request? Do you perceive his requests as important? Do you understand his requests? Do you consider his requests reasonable? Your responses, if any, will provide valuable insights into your future employer. Mr. Thomas Mairan of Great Thermo says, "An interview is an art. It can be a valuable tool in predicting the success or failure of your performance. Abilities are important, but most companies will reject you." Mr. Wagner explains, "The interview is an evaluation of the candidate's potential for future responsibilities in the company. Abilities are important, but most companies will reject you." Mr. Bach, in his interview, said, "We are looking for someone who has a 4.0 GPA. If you have been involved on campus and . . . doesn't have any work experience. This individual might be pulled over in our offices."

The day has finally arrived. Your heart is pounding and your pulse is racing. Do you feel excited? Are you ready? Are you ready for the big interview? Do you feel... did you feel the Big Bang? Don't forget to PROTECT YOURSELF. Some key tips to note:

1. Proper Dress: Make sure you are dressed appropriately. Your appearance is very important.
2. Arrive Early: Plan to arrive at least 15 minutes early to avoid any last-minute stress.
3. Research: Know the company well. This will help you prepare better.
4. Rest: Get a good night's sleep before the interview.
5. Relax: Deep breaths and positive affirmations can help reduce anxiety.
6. Ask Questions: Prepare questions to ask the interviewer. This shows your interest.

Remember, the interview is your time to shine. Don't forget to PROTECT YOURSELF.
Continued from Page 13

That became the conclusion. That's why you can't just react to real-life events of racism and police brutality. You have to react in a way that allows you out of jail and construct a movement that allows you to get out of that position. You can't ignore the reality of this situation.

The last issue that Reverend Jackson closed was with a call for action for Washington D.C. "If you can be concerned with injustice in South Africa, you can be concerned about justice in the United States. The oppressors in South Africa can get 30,000,000 votes, while we who are fighting for our freedom can get 50,000,000. We have to consider the difference in how this economy is run."

Jesse Jackson

The messenger, though fi nished with the words of the audience, the audience still wished to have him. By demanding to have him, the audience expressed their desire for more contact with the message of the messenger.

"Baruch would become the university it could be and keep hope alive."

"But I was in butt-cheek heaven."
Baruch Library Testing Hypermedia

By Lourdes Lomellina Parks

New York City. The event was held at CUNY, John Jay College of Criminal Justice.

The theme for the all day event was "Critical Perceptions of African American Writing: A Challenge to Theory and Practice in Literature and in Language," held at Baruch Library. The event featured presentations on definitions of African American writing.

Staff at left, right: Eleanor Lapaugh, Madeline Ford, Barbara Lam, Simone Cooper and Feather Simms.

New York City. The event was held at CUNY, John Jay College of Criminal Justice.

The theme for the all day event was "Critical Perceptions of African American Writing: A Challenge to Theory and Practice in Literature and in Language," held at Baruch Library. The event featured presentations on definitions of African American writing.

Staff at left, right: Eleanor Lapaugh, Madeline Ford, Barbara Lam, Simone Cooper and Feather Simms.

The theme for the all day event was "Critical Perceptions of African American Writing: A Challenge to Theory and Practice in Literature and in Language," held at Baruch Library. The event featured presentations on definitions of African American writing.

Staff at left, right: Eleanor Lapaugh, Madeline Ford, Barbara Lam, Simone Cooper and Feather Simms.

The theme for the all day event was "Critical Perceptions of African American Writing: A Challenge to Theory and Practice in Literature and in Language," held at Baruch Library. The event featured presentations on definitions of African American writing.

Staff at left, right: Eleanor Lapaugh, Madeline Ford, Barbara Lam, Simone Cooper and Feather Simms.
Not all college instructors wear tweed.

The men and women of the Army National Guard would like to give you an education. Lesson One: Economics. College isn't cheap. Lesson Two: Finance. But by serving in the Army National Guard you can qualify for the Education Assistance Program. Lesson Three: Psychology. The Guard will teach you things about yourself you never knew. Lesson Four: Philosophy. Whether you're preparing for college, returning to school, or planning to stay in the Guard, your education will be rewarded. For additional information on how to continue your education, return this coupon or please call 1-800-638-7600 or contact your local Army National Guard recruiting office.

The FINAL WORD

By MARTIN STARKEY

ABSOLUTELY, POSITIVELY, MOST ASSUREDLY, MOST UNequivocALLY, AND WITHOUT A DOUBT THE LAST INSTALLMENT OF

STARK'S ARTS

EMT Awards- Will always want to see the Gurians, but this year I don't know why.

The FINAL WORD ON THE GRAMMY AWARDS- I think FLAVOR-FLAV of the group Public Enemy is white and without Martyn's. This year's The Final Word on Elm Street. Freedy please go for US.

The FINAL WORD ON THE AMERICAN EXPOSITION- Not only is the movie's theme "The Final Word on America" due in July, contrary to popular belief, it didn't have a sure bet. Nominated for Rock of the Year, Monica will wrap up the BACK TO THE FUTURE series.

TURTLES are coming out this summer amidst really light traffic on me. Tell Eddie "Hi" from Randy, Wayne, Mona, Martin, and David. Like this ... And besides this is the absolute, positively most assuredly, most unequivocally, and without a doubt the last installment of STARK'S ARTS.

Not all college instructors wear tweed.
AT HOT 97, FREDDY COLON
SIZZLES ACROSS THE AIRWAVES AND THE STUDIO

By GEORGIA KONTOS

His high-school SAT scores told him he would go on to be a physician. Today, he's an American Bandstand dancer. "Retired," he might say, but he's nothing but trouble all his life because he was Hispanic. That's right; that Cybill Shepherd of the late jazz musician Gershwin.

But what do those dates hold in the weather Warrior, however, he's been programming and producing music and sound for years. A former disc jockey, he has been an associate producer at WCBS-FM, but still "can do anything."

One simple phone call from Freddy encouraged this young boy to seek help and encouragement. His name is met with respect, and his voice is heard in the studio. He's a star in the making, and his future looks bright.

Nelson told him this is what he told him. "RADIO is not a one-person show. It's a team effort." By getting to the point where I can "get a vision," he noted. "To make any listener want to know why everyone is having a house phase..."

You want to know why everyone is having a house phase... Why not just try something new? Why not just try it and see how it works? Why not just try it and see how it works? Why not just try it and see how it works? Why not just try it and see how it works?

In fact, Freddy feels differently. "It's not just about the music. It's about the message."

And off to California he was. Nineteen years old, scared to death, depressed and attributes the credit to his mother. "It's not just about the music. It's about the message."

His high-school SAT scores told him he would go on to be a physician. Today, he's an American Bandstand dancer. "Retired," he might say, but he's nothing but trouble all his life because he was Hispanic. That's right; that Cybill Shepherd of the late jazz musician Gershwin.

But what do those dates hold in the weather Warrior, however, he's been programming and producing music and sound for years. A former disc jockey, he has been an associate producer at WCBS-FM, but still "can do anything."

One simple phone call from Freddy encouraged this young boy to seek help and encouragement. His name is met with respect, and his voice is heard in the studio. He's a star in the making, and his future looks bright.

Nelson told him this is what he told him. "RADIO is not a one-person show. It's a team effort." By getting to the point where I can "get a vision," he noted. "To make any listener want to know why everyone is having a house phase..."

You want to know why everyone is having a house phase... Why not just try something new? Why not just try it and see how it works? Why not just try it and see how it works? Why not just try it and see how it works? Why not just try it and see how it works?

In fact, Freddy feels differently. "It's not just about the music. It's about the message."

And off to California he was. Nineteen years old, scared to death, depressed and attributes the credit to his mother. "It's not just about the music. It's about the message."

His high-school SAT scores told him he would go on to be a physician. Today, he's an American Bandstand dancer. "Retired," he might say, but he's nothing but trouble all his life because he was Hispanic. That's right; that Cybill Shepherd of the late jazz musician Gershwin.

But what do those dates hold in the weather Warrior, however, he's been programming and producing music and sound for years. A former disc jockey, he has been an associate producer at WCBS-FM, but still "can do anything."
GET.YER.ROCKS.OFF

By David Borg

When I first began to mentally outline this particular lifestyle article, I was going to list Los Angeles and Las Vegas as my favorite hot spots for rock and roll music. It was going to be a great, party-filled article. I was going to include the classics, such as The Strip, The historic clubs. You know, the ones that draw in crowds of 10,000 every night.

However, the more I thought about it, the more I realized that I had been ignoring the truth. There is no such thing as a typical, mainstream, Los Angeles rock and roll show. It is virtually impossible to please virtually all of the subcultures that make up the city of Los Angeles. And even if you did try to do so, you would end up pleasing no one.

Therefore, I decided to focus my article on the underground clubs and venues that are often ignored by mainstream media. These are the places where true rock and roll music is created. These are the places where new bands are discovered and nurtured. These are the places where the future of rock and roll lies.

I am going to start by introducing you to some of the most exciting bands in Los Angeles. These bands are not only exciting because of their music, but also because of their image. They are bands that are constantly changing and evolving, just like the city of Los Angeles itself.

One such band is The Ritz. They are a four-piece rock band that is known for their high energy shows and their unique sound. They have a mix of punk, metal, and rock influences, and they are always experimenting with new ideas.

Another band that is making waves in Los Angeles is Motley Crue. They are a heavy metal band that has been around for over 30 years, but they still manage to stay relevant and exciting. They are known for their wild performances and their ability to keep things fresh.

As I continue to introduce you to more bands, I hope that you will see the sheer variety and creativity that exists in the Los Angeles rock scene. These bands are the backbone of the city's music scene, and they are the future of rock and roll.
The Wayne Draino Chronicles
Written and Illustrated by Wayne Draino

Last week boys and girls we found out about the Wayne Artfiles who live 500 years in the future in a parallel universe. This week our story continues here on Earth in the year 1990 with our heroes Wayne and Jim working as roadies for the band Guns 'n' Roses to earn extra money.

---

Re-Cap The Rangers' Season

By DAVE CAPERS

Turn back the clock to April 1988. The Rangers were as good as gold. They had been swept out of the first round of playoffs by the Toronto Maple Leafs. The next round featured a record-breaking 91-point season by Scotty Bowman. The Rangers went on to win the 1988 Stanley Cup. In the process they managed to beat the Kings, Islanders, and Maple Leafs in the playoffs.

The Rangers took the Eastern Conference Finals in five games over the New York Islanders, winning the deciding game 5-1. They then went on to beat the Los Angeles Kings in six games for the Stanley Cup. In the series, Ray Bourque of Boston was shut down and the Rangers went on to win the Cup.

The Rangers were without a GM, a coach, and a GM. Now, they have a budding star in Tom Renney as their GM, Scotty Bowman as their coach, and a budding star in Bill Ranford as their GM. They will enter their second year with a fresh start.

---

Ticker Arts

May 10, 1990 • TickerSports.net • 27

---

TICKER CLASSIFIEDS

New York Exchange — Looking for ambitious people to plan and host parties/revues at New York City nightclubs for professional use. Great opportunity for those wishing to climb the social ladder. Call 212-487-6700.

---

The GAP

The GAP is seeking:

- Management Trainees
- Full/Part-Time Salespeople

Applicants should apply to the GAP at 131 E. 23rd Street Tuesday, May 15th or Thursday, May 17th.

---

Positions are available throughout the Manhattan area.

---

By STEVEN SCHEER

The season is over. May 10, 1990, the final time for the final game. The Patrick Division champions are the Rangers. The Patrick Division champions are the Capitals. The Patrick Division champions are the Rangers.

The year's edition of the Edmonton Oilers (Smythe), the Boston Bruins (Adams), the Chicago Blackhawks (Smythe) and the Washington Capitals (Wilson) have learned the hard way in the playoffs that the Eastern Conference is a tough one to win.

The Capitals, who were eliminated from the playoffs in the first round, have made it out of the Norris Division. The Capitals beat the Sabres in the first round, but were eliminated in the second round by the Rangers. The Rangers' victory was a 4-1 shutout. The Capitals then went on to lose to the Islanders in five games.

The Capitals' season was marked by a number of injuries and a lack of scoring. The Capitals' star was Mark Messier, who played in only 40 games. Messier had 23 goals and 26 assists. The Capitals' other leading scorer was Al Iafrate with 19 goals and 29 assists.

The Capitals' management is looking to make changes this off-season. The Capitals have a number of free agents who will be available. The Capitals' general manager is looking to improve the team's scoring and defense.

---

Team Comparisons

Chicago
Washington

---

Prediction

Chicago: The Blackhawks have a number of young players who can make an impact. They have a young goalie in Eddie Olczyk and a young forward in Pat LaFontaine. The Blackhawks have a strong defense in the back and a solid offense in the front. They have a chance to win the Stanley Cup.

Washington: The Capitals have a number of veterans who can make an impact. They have a solid goalie in Mikeسور and a solid offense in the front. They have a chance to win the Stanley Cup.

---

Participation

In the event of a tie, the Blackhawks would win.

---

Attendance

The attendance was 17,642.

---

Scoring

Chicago: Mikeسور scored the game's first goal. Chicago: Mikeسور scored the game's second goal.

Washington: The Capitals scored the game's third goal.

---

Final Score

Chicago: The Blackhawks defeated the Capitals 4-1.

Washington: The Capitals defeated the Blackhawks 2-1.

---

Next Game

Chicago: The Blackhawks will play the Islanders.

Washington: The Capitals will play the Islanders.

---

Summary

The Blackhawks' victory was a blowout victory. They scored four goals in the first period and never let up.

---

Notes

- The Blackhawks' victory was a blowout victory. They scored four goals in the first period and never let up.

---

Outcome

The Blackhawks' victory was a blowout victory. They scored four goals in the first period and never let up.

---

Interview

Mikeسور: "We're not hanging our heads, we're going to play our best game tomorrow."

---

Prediction

The Blackhawks will win the series.

---

Results

Chicago: The Blackhawks defeated the Islanders 4-1.

Washington: The Capitals defeated the Islanders 2-1.

---

Conclusion

The Blackhawks' victory was a blowout victory. They scored four goals in the first period and never let up.

---

Final Words

The Blackhawks' victory was a blowout victory. They scored four goals in the first period and never let up.
Puck You! And Other
Sport Thoughts

By MICKEY KRAMER

It has been a year of Tark The Shark, crumbling Co-Captains, a Yankee pitching coach lasting the entire season, the football Giants "failing" in overtime, the Jets being... Well, the Jets. It was a fall of the Athletics dominating everyone and everything, but a "Quake heard 'round the world." Leonard drew with Hearns, or did he?

Foreman dropped Cooney, oh did he. The New York Rangers won a division title, but left the playoffs with hardly a whisper. The Knicks underscored most of the year. The Nets just lost. Nolan Ryan, at 43, was and still is the biggest phenomenon in sports.

It's time for my semester ending, summer wishes;
To Coach K. at Duke: To finally win the last game of the season.
To the six Met starters: thirty-five starts each.
To the NHL: Just like last year, a whole new crop of referees.
To Joe Di Mag, whoever he may be: An offensive line.
To Oral Hershiser, the Bulldog: A complete recovery.
To the Chameleon: A new profession.
To David Robinson: More televised games.
To Keith Hernandez: An injury-free year to a fine career and a Cleveland Indian pennant.
To Big George Foreman: That coveted title shot. And to not be embarrassed by the outcome.
To Roy Hinson: Freedom from the Meadowlands.
To Gregg Jeffries: A baseball glove with Stickum and 200 ropes a year for ten years.
To Yogi Berra: To enjoy life after baseball.
To Ron Greschner, the 16 year vet: To carry Lord Stanley's trophy Thoughts.
To Pat Ewing, Charles Oakley, Trent Tucker and Mo Hernandez: To finally win the last game of the season.

STATESMEN PROGRESS, THEN REGRESS
Hit Rockbottom Versus Woeful CCNY in CUNY Playoff Opener Laughter

By STEVEN SCHEER

The views on the Florida trip differed but the hope was the same: start playing better for the final push towards the CUNY Conference playoffs.

"The trip was profitable because it brought the team together," Player Seen Barrow said. "Even though the trip was considered a disaster record wise, our team has bounced back in all areas of the game." They are both right. The team has become one big family and the Statesmen have been playing a lot better. Their hitting, pitching and defense have all improved. Defensively, Baruch didn't turn one double play before the trip. Since their return, the infield has turned eight.

On April 24, the Statesmen played a must win double header against Lehman College, a makeup of a rainout.

Baruch looked good as they banged out four homeruns (two by Jeff Straub, and one each by Jose Rivera and Alex Lopez) in taking a 6-4 lead into the final inning. All they needed was three outs and game one was theirs. Perfect, better, OUT! Two to go. Next batter reaches on an error. The next batter...BOOM! A two-run double followed by a solo homer. Baruch fell short in the bottom of the inning and lost a heartbreaker 9-8.

Lopez explained Baruch's woes. "We could have won all of our CUNY games," he said, "but there was no stopping out of the bullpen. We just needed one guy." One guy was a must. Armer Amido said, "We wanted to win both games but after the first game we knew we had to win the second game to make first place."

Baruch went out and won. This time they scored 10 runs early. Everyone was hitting. Lopez went 3-3 with three ribbies, Barrow had a couple of hits and Washington Zurita whacked a three-run homer. This game the pitching held up. Mark Krawiec (win) and Stephen Marx (save) combined to defeat Lehman 10-4.

In the two games Rivers went batted .500 with 3 RBIs and Lopez was a sizzling .850 with five RBIs. It was then time for the CUNY Conference Tournament at the College of Staten Island.

On this unusually hot day, Baruch was lucky, or unlucky, as it turned out, to play CCNY. Coming into this game, CCNY was 1-20 overall and 0-10 in the upcoming Knickerbocker Tournament which opens at Lehman College. The team urges fans to ring in and watch them play. It's warm and you can get a suntan, too. Barrow says, "We are fun to watch. We make every play and every pitch exciting."

The Statesmen have a chance to redeem themselves in the upcoming Knickerbocker Tournament which opens at Lehman College. The team urges fans to ring in and watch them play. It's warm and you can get a suntan, too. Barrow says, "We are fun to watch. We make every play and every pitch exciting."

The players give a lot of credit for their "excitement" to their coaching staff. Crespo is very high on pitching coach Kevin "Skip" McDermott. "He's made us better, teaching us the fundamentals of pitching. He's helped with mechanics and has good work ethics. He put us in an optimistic frame of mind." On Coach Dan Sheehan he continues, "He is very supportive of us and still believes that we have enough talent to win."

To win the CUNY Conference championship the Statesmen will have to wait until next year. The team is still young and 20 more games to go before we graduate (five are in the works). With an improved defense, pitching and team batting, the team is still young and 20 more games to go before we graduate (five are in the works). With an improved defense, pitching and team batting, the Statesmen may be the team to beat next season.

A defeated Patrick Rising after Knicks lose 157-138 in Game 2 of the first round of the playoffs against Celtics.

Crespo said, "Everything that could have gone wrong today went wrong."

"Barrrow continued, "We made too many mistakes. We included poor baserunning, misjudging of fly balls and not concentrating on grounders."

Baruch did give a lot of credit to CCNY: Crespo said, "They were the underdogs and we really psyched up. All of their hits were solid — not cheap, and their pitcher hit his spots well. He fooled everyone with his deceptive motion. Lehman and John Jay threw 'heat' too but this guy threw fast and slow."

The Statesmen have a chance to redeem themselves in the upcoming Knickerbocker Tournament which opens at Lehman College. The team urges fans to ring in and watch them play. It's warm and you can get a suntan, too. Barrow says, "We are fun to watch. We make every play and every pitch exciting.

The players give a lot of credit for their "excitement" to their coaching staff. Crespo is very high on pitching coach Kevin "Skip" McDermott. "He's made us better, teaching us the fundamentals of pitching. He's helped with mechanics and has good work ethics. He put us in an optimistic frame of mind." On Coach Dan Sheehan he continues, "He is very supportive of us and still believes that we have enough talent to win."

To win the CUNY Conference championship the Statesmen will have to wait until next year. The team is still young and 20 more games to go before we graduate (five are in the works). With an improved defense, pitching and team batting, the Statesmen may be the team to beat next season.