Baruch Faces $4 Million Budget Cut Next Year

Goldstein sets up Commission to advise on distribution of cuts

By Rafael A. Olmeda

Baruch College President Matthew Goldstein announced the formation of a special commission to deal with budget cuts of nearly $4 million for the 1992-93 academic year. In a meeting with student leaders on March 4, Goldstein said the committee will consist of the College's three vice presidents and eleven professors representing each of the three schools. The commission is charged with, among other things, sustaining enrollment, maintaining the structure of the College, and making "academic offerings for our students while maintaining sufficient support services for improved retention and sustained progress to graduation," according to a memo Goldstein circulated to the Baruch Community.

Goldstein says the goal of the commission is to develop both long-term and short-term strategy to deal with the impending cuts, which are subject to the approval of the New York State legislature in Albany. He points out that while the State legislature has repeatedly failed to adopt a budget on time in recent years, he expects that this year they will more closely follow the April 1 deadline. He adds that if the budget cuts proposed, and that student will have to pay an extra $50 above CUNY tuition.

"If this happens," Goldstein says, "when the ($4 million) cuts are approved by the legislature, or become law," he adds that it will be "just as painful and difficult to handle as the CUNY budget cuts." Goldstein says, "We have people working on the budget, and we are in the process of developing a strategy to deal with the cuts." He also said that the cuts will have a devastating effect on the University. In testimony before the State Senate Finance and Assembly Ways and Means Committees on February 11, Reynolds said that the CUNY budget cuts will have a devastating effect on the University. In testimony before the State Senate Finance and Assembly Ways and Means Committees on February 11, Reynolds said that the CUNY budget cuts will have a devastating effect on the University.

Mattress Catches Fire at 23 Street Building

Security and Fire Department keep blaze from causing any damage

By Sue-Peng Chua

A fire broke out behind the stage in the auditorium of the 23rd Street building on February 19, causing smoke to rise to higher floors and interrupting evening classes. The fire, which started at approximately 8 p.m., was caused by a cigarette butt carelessly thrown on a mattress—a stage prop that had been left there for about a year.

The fire was discovered by Dr. Quiroz, the cleaning supervisor of the building. He quickly notified the security guards who then called the Fire Command Station and 911. Fortunately, the fire was extinguished by the automatic sprinklers before the firefighters arrived.

Henry J. McLaughlin, director of security, says a "mattress fire is a very smoky one and the smoke went up through the venting system behind the auditorium." Fire alarms were not set off throughout the building for the reason that the minor fire had been contained within a short period of time. However, Assistant Director of Security Donald Barta was on the communication system to repeatedly announce that the fire was under control," said McLaughlin. A student at the scene claims not to have heard anything. McLaughlin responds, "Perhaps your source is not accurate.

Fireman Art Mezzano of Ladder Co. 7 says "Baruch's fire alarm system is good. For example, the sprinklers were already turned on by the heat when we got there."

"We have fire extinguishers, heat sensitive sprinklers and manual pull box alarm on every floor. We have smoke detectors that simultaneously turn on strobe lights that have dual purposes, to illuminate the smoky/hazy areas and to alert the hearing impaired on the emergency," said McLaughlin. Once the smoke alarms are set off, all elevators automatically return to the lobby while an emergency call is forwarded to a central fire station which monitors a specific geographic location and notifies the fire department.

According to the fire department, it is the job of colleges and universities to instruct and train students with drills. Drills should be held at least three times each year.

McLaughlin says, "Fire drills are religiously held for the day and evening students once per academic session in each of the six buildings. There are also weekly maintenance checks on the fire extinguishers and strobe lights. The fire drill signs and alarms are checked daily before school."
CUNY Board Votes to Eliminate USF Funding

By Farah Goh
The board of trustees of the City University of New York (CUNY) on Feb. 25, 1992, voted unanimously to eliminate a $5.5 million line item in the University Student Senate.

The money was to be used to pay for an endowment for the Senate. The endowment was to be used to cover the cost of the Senate's activities, which are currently funded by fees charged to students.

The vote was 13-0, with 2 members absent. The absent members were: Chairman John L. L. Maul, assistant to the president, and Vice Chairwoman Ann-Marie H. B. Reynolds, director of student affairs.

The vote came after a lengthy debate in which several members of the board expressed their support for the Senate and its activities.

One member of the board, however, was opposed to the vote. This member was the new member of the board, who had been appointed by Governor Mario Cuomo.

The new member, who is a member of the Senate, said that he believed the Senate was important and should continue to receive funding from the university.

The vote was seen as a victory for the Senate and its supporters, who had been fighting for years to get the endowment.

The board's decision is expected to have a significant impact on the Senate's functioning. The Senate is the representative body of the students of CUNY, and it has been working to provide services to students for many years.

The board's decision to eliminate the endowment will mean that the Senate will have to find other ways to fund its activities. This could include increasing fees, seeking grants, or finding other sources of funding.

The Senate is expected to respond to the decision by finding ways to continue to provide services to students. It is also expected to appeal the decision to the university's higher education board.

The Senate is a strong body with a long history of providing services to students. It has been successful in many areas, including student government, community service, and advocacy.

The Senate is also an important voice for students in the university's decision-making process. It is the only student body that has the power to vote on university issues.

The Senate's decision to appeal the board's decision is expected to be a long and difficult process. It is likely to be fought at every level of the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is expected to continue to provide services to students until the appeal is resolved, which could take several years.

The Senate is also expected to continue to advocate for the students of CUNY and to work to improve the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is a strong body with a long history of providing services to students. It has been successful in many areas, including student government, community service, and advocacy.

The Senate is also an important voice for students in the university's decision-making process. It is the only student body that has the power to vote on university issues.

The Senate's decision to appeal the board's decision is expected to be a long and difficult process. It is likely to be fought at every level of the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is expected to continue to provide services to students until the appeal is resolved, which could take several years.

The Senate is also expected to continue to advocate for the students of CUNY and to work to improve the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is a strong body with a long history of providing services to students. It has been successful in many areas, including student government, community service, and advocacy.

The Senate is also an important voice for students in the university's decision-making process. It is the only student body that has the power to vote on university issues.

The Senate's decision to appeal the board's decision is expected to be a long and difficult process. It is likely to be fought at every level of the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is expected to continue to provide services to students until the appeal is resolved, which could take several years.

The Senate is also expected to continue to advocate for the students of CUNY and to work to improve the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is a strong body with a long history of providing services to students. It has been successful in many areas, including student government, community service, and advocacy.

The Senate is also an important voice for students in the university's decision-making process. It is the only student body that has the power to vote on university issues.

The Senate's decision to appeal the board's decision is expected to be a long and difficult process. It is likely to be fought at every level of the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is expected to continue to provide services to students until the appeal is resolved, which could take several years.

The Senate is also expected to continue to advocate for the students of CUNY and to work to improve the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is a strong body with a long history of providing services to students. It has been successful in many areas, including student government, community service, and advocacy.

The Senate is also an important voice for students in the university's decision-making process. It is the only student body that has the power to vote on university issues.

The Senate's decision to appeal the board's decision is expected to be a long and difficult process. It is likely to be fought at every level of the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is expected to continue to provide services to students until the appeal is resolved, which could take several years.

The Senate is also expected to continue to advocate for the students of CUNY and to work to improve the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is a strong body with a long history of providing services to students. It has been successful in many areas, including student government, community service, and advocacy.

The Senate is also an important voice for students in the university's decision-making process. It is the only student body that has the power to vote on university issues.

The Senate's decision to appeal the board's decision is expected to be a long and difficult process. It is likely to be fought at every level of the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is expected to continue to provide services to students until the appeal is resolved, which could take several years.

The Senate is also expected to continue to advocate for the students of CUNY and to work to improve the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is a strong body with a long history of providing services to students. It has been successful in many areas, including student government, community service, and advocacy.

The Senate is also an important voice for students in the university's decision-making process. It is the only student body that has the power to vote on university issues.

The Senate's decision to appeal the board's decision is expected to be a long and difficult process. It is likely to be fought at every level of the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is expected to continue to provide services to students until the appeal is resolved, which could take several years.

The Senate is also expected to continue to advocate for the students of CUNY and to work to improve the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is a strong body with a long history of providing services to students. It has been successful in many areas, including student government, community service, and advocacy.

The Senate is also an important voice for students in the university's decision-making process. It is the only student body that has the power to vote on university issues.

The Senate's decision to appeal the board's decision is expected to be a long and difficult process. It is likely to be fought at every level of the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is expected to continue to provide services to students until the appeal is resolved, which could take several years.

The Senate is also expected to continue to advocate for the students of CUNY and to work to improve the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is a strong body with a long history of providing services to students. It has been successful in many areas, including student government, community service, and advocacy.

The Senate is also an important voice for students in the university's decision-making process. It is the only student body that has the power to vote on university issues.

The Senate's decision to appeal the board's decision is expected to be a long and difficult process. It is likely to be fought at every level of the university's decision-making process.

The Senate is expected to continue to provide services to students until the appeal is resolved, which could take several years.

The Senate is also expected to continue to advocate for the students of CUNY and to work to improve the university's decision-making process.
The Office of Counseling And Psychological Services can help you Achieve Your Goals

The Baruch College of counseling and psychological Services has a staff of experienced and professionally trained psychologists and counselors who can help you. Services are provided free of cost to all Baruch students. Every student’s contact with the office is strictly confidential!

A) ACHIEVING SUCCESS THROUGH LESS STRESS (Mr. P. Tribaudti)
Thursday: March 12, 1992; 12:45 - 2:15 PM
A fun and very soothing workshop that will help you to learn relaxation techniques and increase your overall success potential.

B) ASIAN STUDENTS WORKSHOP (Br. W.D. Cheng)
Thursday: March 26, 1992; 12:45 - 2:15 PM
Personal adjustment and growth - focusing, specifically on Assertiveness Training and Communication Skills.

C) ASSERT YOURSELF ART (Dr. E. Soto)
Thursday: April 2, and April 9, 1992; 12:45 - 2:15 PM
In this 2 - session workshop, we will use role-plays to help you speak better with friends, classmates and family. Especially helpful for those who want to improve their ability to communicate about themselves and with others.

D) DISCOVER WORKSHOPS (Dr. P. Imbimbo)
Tuesdays: February 25th, March 26th, and April 14th; 12:45 - 2:00 PM
Learn how to use the DISCOVER computerized career guidance program. Learn more about yourself and your career options.

E) ENTREPRENEUR WORKSHOP (Ms. B. Nivens)
Thursday, March 26, 1992; 12:45 - 2:15 PM
Learn how to take your business from idea to opening. Learn the business mechanics: Business Plan, form (single proprietorship, partnership, corporation), insurance, etc. Find out where to get help such as minority resources.

F) EXPLORING CAREERS
In these 2 - session workshops, students will learn what it takes to make a good decision about majors and careers. They will view a videotape, take a vocational test and discuss issues of concern. All workshops held 12:30 - 2:30 PM

Series A: (Dr. T. Heri)
- Thursdays: February 20th and February 27, 1992
- Tuesdays: March 10 and March 17, 1992

Series B: (Dr. P. Imbimbo)
- Thursdays: April 30th and May 7, 1992

G) LIFESKILLS FOR TE 90'S (Dr. J. Ruffin)
- Developing Intimate relationships and Safe Sex Practices
- Tuesdays: April 9, 1991; 1:00 - 2:30 PM; Globus Lounge; 360 park Avenue South; Room 1704
Come to see a video on college students and sex; assess your level of risk for sexually transmitted diseases (STD's); and participate in a discussion of how to develop intimate relationships and safe sex practices.

H) MANAGING TRANSITIONS (Br. S.S. Thien)
- Thursday: March 5, 1992; 12:45 - 2:00 PM
In today's highly competitive world, change is a fact of life. This workshop will focus on management of change as it impacts on the college years, career choice, relationships and the transition to adulthood.

I) TEST AND MATH ANXIETY VIDEO PRESENTATION (Mr. P. Tribaudti)
Tuesday, May 5, 1992; 12:45 - 2:15 PM
Avideo presentation and informal discussion will cover strategies to help you reduce your test and math anxiety.

Participants must come to Room 1737 prior to the day of the career workshop to register!

RESERVE YOUR SPACE!!!
All Workshops will meet in the Office of Counseling and Psychological Services, unless otherwise noted.

Counseling and Psychological Services
Room 1737
360 Park Avenue South
Evening hours are available
(between 25th and 26th St.)
By appointment only

Call (212) 447 - 3521; 5:45 - 5 PM

Attention Candidates

If you are planning to run for President or Vice President of the Day Session Student Government, contact The Ticker and register for the DSSG Presidential Debate. This year will be your best opportunity to speak to the students of Baruch College and let them know where you stand.

The Debate will be held on April 9, 1992 during club hours. Further information will be made available upon registration.

Register Now. If you don't participate in this debate, you might as well not run. To register, call Farah Gehy at 212-387-1182

Sponsored by The Ticker and WBMB

Baruch Faces $4 Million Cut

Continued from front page
mandates seriously under- mine our ability to carry out our mission as we would like," she said. The legislature that was critics of the Office of Counseling and Psychological Services, saying that the office is "no more than an illusion that is unlikely to be realized".

Goldstein, explaining why was this case, said that the reason he decided not to have a student on the larger council was to avoid packing it with active constituents.

Day Session Student Government President, Lauren Davis, who was present at the March 4 leading. "In order for there to be a con- sensus, there should be a balance at the council and the faculty and administrative representatives must be represented."

Davis, who made the opening statement, said that she saw there was no reason to have to have the entire Baruch Student Congress, always, also noting that she did not agree with Goldstein's view of the students as a "constitu- ent body."

Goldstein says he is not cer- tain how those will be imple- mented or what programs will be offered. He said that he would be the first to admit to the fact that there are many students who makes the ultimate decision on how much is cut from where. He reiterated during the meeting that he was interested in a three- school structure at the College, a view he made in an interview early last winter when he said he did not favor eliminat- ing the Office of Education and Educational Services.

It must also be the case that re- turnship is a real possibility for the CUNY and that such an emergency measure would not mean that all programs will be treated equally. One idea he mentioned for saving money was the possi- bility of revamping the "grid" of the CUNY. He reiterated that the CUNY would be best served by the addition of new programs.

In order for there to be a con- sensus, there should be a balance at the council and the faculty and administrative representatives must be represented."

Goldstein, who was present at the day session, disagreed.

The Ticker, that he, "must give us a new perspective on how we can help students to get out of College in four years."

CUNY Policy Changes

The Board has been looking at the proposal since the fall. We sent a memo regarding it to outside auditors to account for money, something never done before. The Board and vote on this issue March 27, 1992 when we, public hearings on the 16th.

Write for the Ticker
It's That Simple
212-387-1182

Baruch College of Counseling and Psychological Services has a staff of experienced and professionally trained psychologists and counselors who can help you. Services are provided free of cost to all Baruch students. Every student's contact with the office is strictly confidential!

A) ACHIEVING SUCCESS THROUGH LESS STRESS (Mr. P. Tribaudti)
Thursday: March 12, 1992; 12:45 - 2:15 PM
A fun and very soothing workshop that will help you to learn relaxation techniques and increase your overall success potential.

B) ASIAN STUDENTS WORKSHOP (Br. W.D. Cheng)
Thursday: March 26, 1992; 12:45 - 2:15 PM
Personal adjustment and growth - focusing, specifically on Assertiveness Training and Communication Skills.

C) ASSERT YOURSELF ART (Dr. E. Soto)
Thursday: April 2, and April 9, 1992; 12:45 - 2:15 PM
In this 2 - session workshop, we will use role-plays to help you speak better with friends, classmates and family. Especially helpful for those who want to improve their ability to communicate about themselves and with others.

D) DISCOVER WORKSHOPS (Dr. P. Imbimbo)
Tuesdays: February 25th, March 26th, and April 14th; 12:45 - 2:00 PM
Learn how to use the DISCOVER computerized career guidance program. Learn more about yourself and your career options.

E) ENTREPRENEUR WORKSHOP (Ms. B. Nivens)
Thursday, March 26, 1992; 12:45 - 2:15 PM
Learn how to take your business from idea to opening. Learn the business mechanics: Business Plan, form (single proprietorship, partnership, corporation), insurance, etc. Find out where to get help such as minority resources.

F) EXPLORING CAREERS
In these 2 - session workshops, students will learn what it takes to make a good decision about majors and careers. They will view a videotape, take a vocational test and discuss issues of concern. All workshops held 12:30 - 2:30 PM

Series A: (Dr. T. Heri)
- Thursdays: February 20th and February 27, 1992
- Tuesdays: March 10 and March 17, 1992

Series B: (Dr. P. Imbimbo)
- Thursdays: April 30th and May 7, 1992

G) LIFESKILLS FOR TE 90'S (Dr. J. Ruffin)
- Developing Intimate relationships and Safe Sex Practices
- Tuesdays: April 9, 1991; 1:00 - 2:30 PM; Globus Lounge; 360 park Avenue South; Room 1704
Come to see a video on college students and sex; assess your level of risk for sexually transmitted diseases (STD's); and participate in a discussion of how to develop intimate relationships and safe sex practices.

H) MANAGING TRANSITIONS (Br. S.S. Thien)
- Thursday: March 5, 1992; 12:45 - 2:00 PM
In today's highly competitive world, change is a fact of life. This workshop will focus on management of change as it impacts on the college years, career choice, relationships and the transition to adulthood.

I) TEST AND MATH ANXIETY VIDEO PRESENTATION (Mr. P. Tribaudti)
Tuesday, May 5, 1992; 12:45 - 2:15 PM
A video presentation and informal discussion will cover strategies to help you reduce your test and math anxiety.

Participants must come to Room 1737 prior to the day of the career workshop to register!

RESERVE YOUR SPACE!!!
All Workshops will meet in the Office of Counseling and Psychological Services, unless otherwise noted.

Counseling and Psychological Services
Room 1737
360 Park Avenue South
Evening hours are available
(between 25th and 26th St.)
By appointment only

Call (212) 447 - 3521; 5:45 - 5 PM

Attention Candidates

If you are planning to run for President or Vice President of the Day Session Student Government, contact The Ticker and register for the DSSG Presidential Debate. This year will be your best opportunity to speak to the students of Baruch College and let them know where you stand.

The Debate will be held on April 9, 1992 during club hours. Further information will be made available upon registration.

Register Now. If you don't participate in this debate, you might as well not run. To register, call Farah Gehy at 212-387-1182

Sponsored by The Ticker and WBMB
Sorority of the Chapter of the Baruch College Community

Editorial

We are concerned about the recent statement made by President Goldstein regarding the budget cuts and the effect on the university. We believe that the university administration should have consulted with the students before making such decisions. Furthermore, we call for the establishment of a commission to review the budget and its impact on the university.

We also urge the administration to consider the long-term strategies to counter the effects of the cuts. This includes maintaining the three-school structure and the academic departments that are vital to the university.

The Ticker

The Ticker is published bi-weekly, seven times a semester. The Ticker's editorial staff is at 137 E. 25th Street, New York, N.Y. 10010, Room 301F. All work and printing is done by Baruch undergraduate and graduate students. All typed and signed contributions and letters are welcomed, and should be mailed to the above address. Our masthead includes the student bodies from the African American History, the Finance, Accounting, and Economics, the Business and Economics, the Social Sciences, and the Science and Technology.

The Ticker is a free publication of the Baruch College Community. It is printed on recycled paper and is distributed to each student free of charge. The views expressed in the Ticker are those of the students and do not necessarily reflect the views of the administration.

Letters

Somebody, Anybody, Validate Me

To The Editor

I need a spring 1993iddle I.D. sticker so I can renew my Baruch I.D. card. Baruch, in its infinite wisdom, has set up a commission to validate me. Even if no student has a vote on this matter, I want to be sure that not only the college administration, but also the students have their say. The Baruch students are not the only ones affected by this decision. We are looking for some guidance from the Baruch community.

Our strategy is to contact the vice president of the student government and request that a record be kept of all the students that request a validation. This will ensure that all students have their say and that the college administration is aware of the concerns of the students.

The Ticker

Get Out the Vote!

Register for your party's primary

The Ticker is a free publication of the Baruch College Community. It is printed on recycled paper and is distributed to each student free of charge. The views expressed in the Ticker are those of the students and do not necessarily reflect the views of the administration.

The Ticker is a free publication of the Baruch College Community. It is printed on recycled paper and is distributed to each student free of charge. The views expressed in the Ticker are those of the students and do not necessarily reflect the views of the administration.
In a house in Jamaica, in a bedroom, one man is talking. He is sitting on a bed, his legs crossed, and he is wearing a white shirt and dark trousers. The room is dimly lit, with a small window letting in some light. The man is speaking in a quiet, measured tone.

"And I've just come back from a visit to the Caribbean. It was a riveting drama. I recall that in one of the matches at Sabina Park, there was a bowler who really put on a show. He was a young bowler from the West Indies, and his sheer speed was something to behold. For sheer speed, there would be none better than him. He would have Dwight Gooden, who happened to be there on his mission to liberate the Caribbean. He was doing something extraordinary, something that no one else could do. But he was not the only one. There were other players, too, who were equally fast. But it was he who stole the show, with his sheer speed and his ability to control the ball."

"I think it's important to remember that cricket was once only a pastime, a way of life, for people in the Caribbean. But now it's become a professional sport, with players making a living from it. And it's not just the players who are benefiting. The fans also feel a sense of pride and excitement when their team wins."

"The game has brought people together. There was a feeling of unity and camaraderie among the players, and the fans were cheering them on. It was a truly joyous word picture."

"But despite the success, there are still challenges. The game is not well-funded, and the players are not well-paid. There are also issues of corruption and match-fixing. But the players are fighting hard to overcome these challenges."

"I think it's important to support the game, to support the players, to support the teams. For without the fans, the game would not exist."

"And I think it's important to remember that cricket is not just a game. It's a way of life, a way of expressing oneself. And the players are not just playing for the sake of it. They're playing for the love of the game, and for the love of their country."
From The Archives...
The German Club's Back
By Phillip D. Armenian
On Thursday, Feb. 27th, the Baruch German Club held its first meeting with one thing in mind: to outlive its predecessor.

The German Club is in pursuit of forming and dissolving many ties in the current country but this time around the students are determined to succeed seven times.

German-teacher Mr. Dominick M. DeFeo, crowds the German Club.

The club has offered the opportunity to all Baruch students to interact with the German language and culture, addressing the international business in a practical way.

The first meeting of the club was designed to facilitate faculty and students with German and its speakers as well as to create a more inclusive and relaxed environment for German-learners.

In order to achieve this goal, the club not only offers language classes but also invites guest speakers who are passionate about the culture and traditions of Germany.

Watch Out for Lonnie!
The Ticke's proud to announce that we will be featuring a column called "Dear Lonnie" in which students will have the opportunity to ask about their personal lives.

You may start dropping off your letters at Hefline's mailbox on the first floor of the Student Center where they will be collected and answered in the following publication of The Ticke.

No names will be published unless specifically requested.

Dominican Celebration
By Kathryn Garcia
Dominican Independence Day was celebrated at Baruch in the Marble Lounge of the Student Center on Thursday, Feb. 27, 1992.

The celebration was organized by the Dominican Student Association, a group that represents students from the Dominican Republic and shares their culture and history.

The event included guest speakers, traditional music, and dance performances. Attendees had the opportunity to learn about the rich culture and contributions of the Dominican community.

Word Around Baruch
By Kathryn Garcia
This week's question: What do you think of last month's verdict in the Mike Tyson rape trial?

Antonio Torres, senior:
I think that the verdict was fair, but I also think that the system has problems. I believe that the judge should have considered the evidence and the testimony of the witnesses more carefully.

Malcolm Lartey, freshman:
I don't like it. I think that the decision was arbitrary and unjust. I don't think that the justice system is fair to all individuals.

John the Greek, Alvertishpoles, junior:
I think that the verdict was fair, but I also think that the system has problems. I believe that the judge should have considered the evidence and the testimony of the witnesses more carefully.

Niall O'Brien, sophomore:
I feel that the verdict was fair, but I also think that the system has problems. I believe that the judge should have considered the evidence and the testimony of the witnesses more carefully.

Write for Perspectives
Ask Kathy About It 212-387-1182
Addison Gayle (1932-1991)

The closing event was a tribute to the late distinguished professor of English. The event was held last year as a way to honor Gayle, a leading authority on African American literature. Gayle was the author of many books, including "Richard Wright: Ordeal of a Native Son" (1980), "The Way of the New World: The Black Novel in America" (1989), "The Black Situation" (1975), "The Black Experience: Essays by and About Black Americans in the Creative Arts" (1969). He also wrote his autobiography "Wayward Child: A Personal Odyssey" (1977). Gayle had recently completed his last book, a biography of W.E.B. Du Bois which has yet to be published.

The closing event was celebrated by a group of friends. Back row (l to r): Anthony Harvey, Michelle Payne, Sabrina Desruisseau, Anthony Harvey, Michelle Payne, Sabrina Desruisseau, Anthony Harvey, Michelle Payne, Sabrina Desruisseau, Anthony Harvey, Michelle Payne, Sabrina Desruisseau, Anthony Harvey, Michelle Payne, Sabrina Desruisseau; front row (l to r): Tony Medina, Daphne Leroy, Sonia Sanchez, Lou Ethel Rollston, Dr. Gayle's widow, Dr. Juanita Howard, Dr. Martia Goodson; seated: Robert Ellis.

Dr. John Todd, chairman of the English Department, spoke about the contributions of Addison Gayle to a multicultural curriculum at Baruch. At the tribute to our late professor Addison Gayle, featured speaker Sonia Sanchez read from her poems. She also reminisced about her and Gayle's long established friendship and their love of literature and writing.

Monica Mokkombe, president of Southern Africa Network, presented a slide show of recent footage from South Africa in her discussion of "The Issue of Black-on-Black Violence in South Africa."
Take a faculty member to lunch.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.

Continued from page 9

Students who are interested in the field of law and would like to know more about that career should contact the Pre-law Center, two weeks in advance of the lunch date or show up with the receipt and get reimbursed for the lunch. A fee of $30 for the fee to be paid in for the law students, and $15 for the student. The fee will be refunded to those students who sign up for a law school class wanted to take a course in this field. So, let's get started! You'll need a law school to start. I would recommend that you take a course and then come back and meet with a professor or staff member in the law school to see if you would be interested in taking a course there.
Thurman is Uma Uma Good

Hollywood Profile

Actress Uma Thurman

Standing five feet eleven inches tall, the blonde Adrian, who is also known as Uma Thurman, a Columbia University graduate, is aACCESS GUIDE TO HOLLYWOOD AND TV. NEW FOR 1991 ACCESS GUIDE TO HOLLYWOOD AND TV. NEW FOR 1991

Please Stand By

Thanks for tuning in tonight. If you're watching FOX 1, this is our 1991 ACCESS GUIDE TO HOLLYWOOD AND TV. NEW FOR 1991. We're going to talk tonight about Uma Thurman, a Columbia University graduate, who is also known as Uma Thurman. She is five feet eleven inches tall, and she is a beautiful woman. Tonight, we're going to talk about her career and her accomplishments.

In her latest film, "Final Analysis," the role of Hannah, a dancer in the New York City ballet company, was played by Uma Thurman. She is known for her dancing skills and her ability to move gracefully. In this film, she is seen performing some stunning dance sequences.

The show has been called "The Dating Game," and Uma Thurman is one of the contestants. The host of the show, who is also known as "The Stud," selects contestants from the audience and asks them questions about their personal lives. Uma Thurman is one of those contestants, and she is asked a series of questions about her life.

The "stud" then selects one contestant to go on the show with him. Uma Thurman is chosen, and she goes on the show with the host. During the show, Uma Thurman answers questions about her personal life, and she also gets to hear about other contestants who are on the show.

The show does not have a set script, and the contestants are free to talk about any topic they choose. Uma Thurman is very comfortable on the show, and she is able to talk about her personal life, as well as her professional life.

One of the most interesting aspects of the show is the fact that Uma Thurman is able to talk about her personal life in a way that is different from the way she talks about it in interviews. She is able to be more open and honest on the show, and she is able to share more personal stories.

Another interesting aspect of the show is the fact that Uma Thurman is able to interact with the other contestants. She is able to get to know them, and she is able to talk to them about their lives.

Overall, Uma Thurman is very comfortable on the show, and she is able to talk about her personal life in a way that is different from the way she talks about it in interviews. She is able to be more open and honest on the show, and she is able to share more personal stories. She is also able to interact with the other contestants, and she is able to get to know them better.

If you're interested in Uma Thurman, be sure to check out "The Dating Game" on FOX 1. It's a great show, and Uma Thurman is one of the contestants. You won't want to miss it!
Remember When
1987
"A Momentary Lapse Of Reason"
Pink Floyd
Produced by Bob Ezrin & David Gilmour
Grade: A

Columbia Records

By Danny Gosselin

Remember the year 1987? That was the year when Hollywood declared war on Arab terrorists in such cinematic masterpieces as 'The Door of No Return', 'Don't Look Back', 'The Last Temptation of Jesus'. The use of Pink Floyd's music in the films was more than just a passing fad, it was a strategic move to show the world that these are the sounds of their generation. The word recession referred to a man-challene in many areas to the imagination and records were on vinyl. Yes, vinyl! Anyone who does not remember any of this, especially the record part, should consult a history text.

1987 also marked the return of Pink Floyd minus Roger Waters. "A Momentary Lapse Of Reason" was the first studio album without him. The album seemed to be actually one song. The instrumental "Signs" created 11 tracks of mindbending power. The album was released on vinyl! Anyone who does not remember this should consult a history text.

In 1987, Pink Floyd released their album "Signs". The album was a collection of 11 tracks of mindbending power. The instrumental "Signs" was created by the band. Anyone who does not remember this should consult a history text.

The album was released on vinyl! Anyone who does not remember this should consult a history text.

It's A Fact!

1) Who is the only New York Ranger goalkeeper to be involved in two 0-0 games during his Ranger career? "It's A Fact!

2) Who was the first running back to be defeated by Buster Douglas? "It's A Fact!

3) In 1978 Bucky Dent helped put the Yankees in the World Series by hitting a homerun off of Mike Torrez in the fifth inning. How many home runs did Bucky hit in the regular season including the one that day? "It's A Fact!

4) George Foreman was defeated by Evander Holyfield. "It's A Fact!

5) Who is the only New York Ranger who gets more ice time this season than his Ranger fans? "It's A Fact!"
Baruch Goes Down

In Semi-Final

By David A. Amir

The Baruch College Men’s Basketball team ended their quest for a CUNY Championship with a defeat of 72-67 to CCNY (ranked 7th in CUNY Division). Baruch lost to CCNY after beating third-ranked Medgar Evers in the opening round 77-71.

Baruch was up virtually the entire second half but just couldn’t put CCNY away. CCNY took control of the game in the last seven points and too couldn’t put CCNY away. CCNY took control of the game in the last seven points and too couldn’t put CCNY away.

The Baruch College Men’s Basketball team ended their quest for a CUNY Championship with a defeat of 72-67 to CCNY (ranked 7th in CUNY Division). Baruch lost to CCNY after beating third-ranked Medgar Evers in the opening round 77-71.

Baruch was up virtually the entire second half but just couldn’t put CCNY away. CCNY took control of the game in the last seven points and too couldn’t put CCNY away.

Some Good News:

- A ball, all the way down the left field line, made the jump to the outfield.
- Hunter
- CUNY
- Champs

Eric Grossman’s Column

I have cut Steve Howe, Randy Velarde, Tim Leary, or any number of other pinstripe flops. Mills made the jump from class A ball, all the way to the big leagues. Look for Mills to become an all-star in a few years. I also think Mills can hit better than Hayes.

After the Yankees took batting practice for the first time this spring, Yankee coach Buck Showalter was very impressed. I want to remind Buck that his pitching staff was doing the throwing. Who will Yankee phenom Brien Taylor get traded to? Boston? Carlos Quintana, crashed his car, breaking his arm and leg while driving his two brothers to the hospital after they were shot. Things could have been worse, Carlos could have crashed into Julio Machado.

There is a special breed of hockey players that have no scoring ability. They are not playmakers. These guys don’t play hockey. These guys are killers. There are many more just like them. Hockey is a high speed contact sport and fighting is a part of the game, but how about continued on page