Former Rivals Join Forces to Reform USS

By Farah Gehy

Charles Weisenhart and Simon Herelle, opponents in last year's Day Session Student presidential race, have forged an alliance, and they are now working together to reform the University Student Senate.

Herelle, the DSSG president as well as Baruch's delegate to the USS, said that Weisenhart was his first choice to be the alternate delegate.

"If we had to get anything done in government this year, the elections had to end," said Herelle, regarding the fiercely contested race for D.S.S.G. president last year.

Herelle said he chose Weisenhart because, "Charlie was involved last year in trying to work out the USS constitution. He had the background."

Herelle had not considered anyone else for alternate delegate because, "I want to get the best people in positions. Charlie is one of them."

The position of D.S.S.G. Treasurer was offered to Weisenhart earlier in the semester. Weisenhart refused the position citing an already busy schedule. The position of treasurer was vacated by the elected treasurer, Karlene Scotland, who cited personal reasons.

The two had already worked together on the USS. They worked, along with other delegates to the USS, to curtail the elections of the USS Chair. The election, which was to be held October 11, was rescheduled for November 8.

Herelle, Weisenhart and other delegates worked to postpone the election because they feel the USS should be reformed.

"We should be able to implement reforms before the elections," said Herelle.

The delegates are looking to implement specific guidelines, which have not yet been set, to avoid the scandal that surrounded last year's chairman, Jean LaMarre.

In 1991 LaMarre was discovered to have used money collected for the USS from the students of CUNY for personal use such as renting limousines, a trip to Africa for three, and many other questionable expenses. His expenditures were later found to be within the guidelines of CUNY.

Ron Quaterman, the delegate from John Jay College and Vice Chair of Legislative Affairs of the USS, was voted by his peers, to replace LaMarre, as the interim chair. Although he was legally voted in, the Board has yet to acknowledge him.

Quaterman said he is the "legal interim chair. If they don't recognize me [at the Board meetings], they're in violation of the Higher Education Law, Section 6234.

The law states that there must be consecutive student representation at Board meetings. The job of Chair is to vote and participate at Board meetings. The Chair is the only student vote in CUNY.

The majority of the delegates want reforms "in order to avoid the scandals of the previous year," said Quaterman. "We're trying to change the image of the USS before the elections. We want a clean slate."

One of the revisions the USS is looking to implement is a restriction on financial accountability. This means that in order for a check to be approved it will need two signatures — those of the Chair and Vice Chair of Fiscal Affairs, said Weisenhart.

Quaterman plans to run for the position of Chair in the November election. Ron Navy, the Hunter College delegate and LaMarre's unrecognized appointee for Chair upon his resignation, is also expected to run.

Weisenhart plans to run for the position of Vice Chair for Fiscal Affairs, the position held by last year's USS president LeVonda Davis. Herelle has not yet decided if he intends to run.

"I would want to see how many reforms were met before the reform period ends on November 11," added Herelle.

Forecasting the elections, Weisenhart said "more than likely [Quaterman] will be elected on the eighth. He's seen as a responsible person."

Multicultural Debate Is Revived At Forum

By Rafael A. Martinez

A forum on Cultural Diversity and Ethnicity took place on October 25 to discuss how far along Baruch College is moving in diversifying its curriculum.

The forum, which was sponsored by the Baruch African Student Senate, featured student speakers from the Jewish Students Alliance, Latin American Students Organization, the Asian Students Association and BASS.

According to co-moderator Dawn Steele, of the Evening Session Students Assembly, the forum was created to see how far Baruch is moving towards a diversified curriculum.

Steele led off the meeting with the history and description of BASS as an organization set up to bring together all of Baruch's African American clubs.

Baruch President Mathew Goldstein was the first speaker of the evening. He began by commenting on the presidential election and said, "unless there is a major change in the government's policies towards cities, we are doomed as a people."

Goldstein then compared his days at City College to today saying that when he attended City College it was a predominately white male institution, thus everyone had the same background and that managing the institution was no problem. The president then began discussing the new Learning Laboratory story page ( ).

When he completed his remarks each student leader was given an opportunity to present an opening statement.

Hillel Caplan of the J.S.A. began: "I will keep my remarks brief because I believe that you can learn more from interaction."

He described how he attended an all Jewish high school in Long Island and that he came to Baruch not only because of its good business program but because it would give him a chance to interact with different cultures.

Kenly John of BASS, said how happy he was to see that things are happening at Baruch concerning multicultural education.

John described the history of the multicultural forum as being brought about in response to a speech at Baruch by Professor Leonard Jeffries, then Chair of the Department of Black Studies at City College. He added that the resulting friction between Jewish and black students over Jeffries lead to the creation of a forum that allowed the students to air their grievances.

Sue-Peng Chua of A.S.A. said that she pictured America as a big melting pot, but discovered it to really be a vegetable soup. Chua added that the forum was taking place because it would help people to understand and not just tolerate each other.

The rest of the forum was devoted to a group discussion by the audience focusing on different aspects of racism and how to combat racism. The general consensus of the audience was that education in general and multicultural education in particular would be the first step in resolving the problem of racism by helping everyone understand one another.

"Baruch has helped get us out of the ghetto and into the mainstream. In the Hispanic community, you have poverty and undereducated parents; Baruch shows us that we can make it," said Parades.
IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN!

RETAIL TRADE SOCIETY
FASHION SHOW AUDITIONS

TUES., NOVEMBER 3
26TH ST. RM 814
1:00 - 2:40 PM

THURS., NOVEMBER 5
23RD ST. AUDITORIUM
1:00 - 2:40 PM

SAT., NOVEMBER 7
26TH ST. RM. 814
2:00 - 5:00 PM

RETAIL TRADE SOCIETY
46 E. 26TH STREET
RM 814 (212) 447-3260

Jazz At Baruch

Dr. Juanita Howard, singing a soulful "Autumn Time" with the Jazz Premiere Concert Performance.

Photos courtesy of Zelphia Phillips.

Master of Ceremonies Wynton Marsalis playing "Sweet Embraces You."

The Milt Hinton Jazz Perspective was held on October 10, due to a generous gift to the Baruch College Fund from Aaron Silverman of the class of '48.

Other performers included: Derek Smith on piano, Seldon Powell on sax, Mike Walters on flute and Michael Grey on trombone.

Learning Lab for Baruch?

By Rafael A. Martinez

Baruch College President Matthew Goldstein announced a proposal to create a learning laboratory in which Baruch students will assist people in small businesses, while receiving hands-on experience and getting involved in the community.

According to Teresa Kostaras, director of College advancement, the proposal has been submitted as part of the University budget request for 1993-94.

Goldstein announced the idea of the laboratory while speaking at a Baruch African Student Senate sponsored multicultural forum on the evening of October 22. The idea for the lab developed during a Baruch African Student Senate sponsored multicultural forum on the evening of October 22. The lab will be open from 1:00 to 2:40 PM on November 3rd and 5th, and from 1:00 to 2:40 PM on November 7th.

Reynolds brought the request back to the presidents of the CUNY colleges and the idea of small business learning laboratory was formed.

Goldstein said that many small businesses fail because the people starting them do not have the capital or may not have gone to Baruch, so they don't know business fundamentals such as writing business plans.

So why not?

Baruch will be the core, and people in the community will have access to Baruch students free of charge. The exact details of the program have not yet been worked out pending the state's approval.

President Matthew Goldstein

Sections
Editorials: 4
Letters/ Op-eds: 5
Features: 11
Arts: 13

Next Issue: October 13
Ad Deadline: October 7
The Jewish Students Alliance presents

Kosher Chinese Cooking Class demonstrated by

Rabbi Robert Kaplan

Thursday, October 29, 1992
1:00 p.m. - 2:40 p.m.
Room 1323, 23 Street Building

Refreshments will be served

Tickers Takes

Discount Parking available for Baruch
Discounted Parking Rates are available at Valid Parking Garage for the Baruch Community at 301 E. 25th Street, between 1st and 2nd Avenues. Discounted daily rates are $7.00 or $14.00 per month, payable upon entering.
For further information, call 639-8145.

"The Black West"
The Department of Sociology and Anthropology presents "The Black West," a dramatization and slide presentation featuring George Troika, Fred Owens, Ken Little Hawk and Kim Tokes. It will be held on Oct. 29 in Room 114 of the 24th Street building from 1:00 - 2:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Choosing a Major and Career (I)
Come to a workshop in Expanding Your Options. During the fall semester, there will be four 2-hour workshops in the Global Lounge at 360 EARS, Room 1704. During these workshops, you will view a videotape, complete self assessment exercises, and take a vocational interest inventory. These are designed to help you get a clear idea about what major or career would be best for you.
The dates and times for the workshops are:
- Club Hours (1:00-2:00 p.m.) Oct. 29, Nov. 12 & 19, Dec. 3 & 10.

Media Panel
The placement Office of the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences will offer a panel discussion on Thursday, Nov. 5, 1992 from 1:15 - 2:30 p.m. in Room 1604, 17 Lex. Ave. on "Careers in Graphic Media/Communications & Publishing Industry." Speakers will include a graduate and faculty from the Business Communications program and an assignment editor for CNN.
For more information call, 367-1570.

Attention Clubs, Funds Available!
The Baruch College Alumni Association periodically allocates funds to further the accomplishment of student organizations and also to enhance the image of Baruch College, our Alma Mater.
An organization considering a project relating to an academic subject that would meet the above stated criteria and would benefit from limited funding, should request an Application for Funding from the Baruch College Alumni Association Office (Room 907, 135 E. 22 St.)
In order to be eligible for funding consideration, the following application deadlines have been established:
1. Nov. 9, 1992 for programs scheduled to take place prior to the end of February, 1993.
2. Feb. 1, 1993 for programs scheduled to take place the balance of the spring semester.

Scholarship Fund
The Scholarship Trust Fund is accepting applications for Nicaragua. The scholarships are for fall tuition and are renewable while the student is an undergraduate attending CUNY.
Candidates must have over 16 credits and a GPA of 3.75 or over.
Applicants must submit four letters of recommendation attesting to their academic performance and service to the college and/or community.
Applications are available through the office of the Dean of Students. Deadline is Dec. 7, 1992.

Essay Contest
The Socialist magazine, Monthly Review is having an essay contest for people under 25. Topic: "Progressive Social Change in the 1990s." Entries should be 2,000 words or less, written in English and typed double spaced. The prizes are: first prize $500, second prize $300 and third prize $100.
Submit to Essay Department, Monthly Review, 122 W. 27th Street, New York, NY 10013. For more information call (212) 691-2550. All participants will receive a free one year subscription to Monthly Review. Deadline is March 1, 1993.

New York Women's Bar Association
INTERNATIONAL LAW COMMITTEE
HONG KONG AS A BUSINESS CENTER
AND A BRIDGE TO CHINA
Tuesday, November 10, 1992 6:45-8:30 p.m.
Conference Room 305, 30th Floor
Weil, Gotshal & Manges
767 Fifth Avenue
New York, New York 10153

Panelists:
DAVID WONG, Vice President Citibank, N.A.
LOUIS KRAAR, Board of Editors Fortune Magazine
GLORIA WONG (Alumni of Baruch MBA Program
Hong Kong Industrial Promotion Office

Moderator: "Julia Chin, Weil, Gotshal & Manges

FREE ADMISSION! ALL WELCOME!
“...youths see elders as obstacles in their quest for a decent life.”

entertain themselves until they drop out. The drug trade to some seems more promising than a career in Wall Street. As these valleys and the sea, the ghetto children are at the same time being raised on a mixture of drugs, violence and the oppressive society. They are raised in a world that teaches them by example to repeat its habits. They are also raised in a world that teaches them how to be more aggressive in order to survive and make their own territory. This is why communication breaks. It makes them feel isolated and out of place. The more time they spend in the streets, the more they feel they are losing control over their own lives. They cannot escape the fact that their children are not the same as the elder generation. The younger generation does not accept the values of the elder generation. The younger generation is more open to new ideas and more willing to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.

The conflict between the young and the old is not new. It has been going on for centuries. The younger generation is always looking for ways to express their individuality and to challenge the status quo. The older generation, on the other hand, is more set in its ways and is not as open to change. The two generations do not see eye to eye and this creates a lot of friction.
Irreplaceable Ada!

By Kathryn Garcia

Sitting in her former supervisor's position, Ada Perez feels she's on top of the world in the marketing department of Baruch, where she never thought she'd be.

Perez started working in the department in 1984 as an administrative assistant. She had been attending Baruch full-time for two years, and was soon promoted to administrative assistant until her promotion.

"When I was first here, there was a lot of stress. I thought I was going to be the boss," said Perez. "I thought it was going to be a lot of work, and I was going to be over my head. But it turned out to be the opposite." She said she was grateful for the opportunity to continue her education.

Perez feels she's on top of the world in the marketing department, where she now works as an administrative assistant. She said she's always been interested in fashion, and she loves the opportunity to interact with students and faculty.

The new administration of the department has been a rewarding experience for Perez, she said. "I feel more comfortable because I know I can do it all," she added. "I feel like I'm a part of the team." She said she's grateful for the opportunity to continue her education.

Perez is a part-time student at Baruch, where she has been attending since 1982. She is majoring in finance, and will be graduating in 1986. She is also working full-time as an administrative assistant in the department.

"I'm responsible, courteous and hard work, dedication, and persistence," she said, "So I was able to get my GED and enter Baruch University.

"I'm responsible, courteous and hard work, dedication, and persistence," she said. "I'm responsible, courteous and hard work, dedication, and persistence." She said she's grateful for the opportunity to continue her education.

Perez feels she's on top of the world in the marketing department, where she now works as an administrative assistant. She said she's always been interested in fashion, and she loves the opportunity to interact with students and faculty.

The new administration of the department has been a rewarding experience for Perez, she said. "I feel more comfortable because I know I can do it all," she added. "I feel like I'm a part of the team." She said she's grateful for the opportunity to continue her education.

Perez is a part-time student at Baruch, where she has been attending since 1982. She is majoring in finance, and will be graduating in 1986. She is also working full-time as an administrative assistant in the department.

"I'm responsible, courteous and hard work, dedication, and persistence," she said. "I'm responsible, courteous and hard work, dedication, and persistence." She said she's grateful for the opportunity to continue her education.

Perez feels she's on top of the world in the marketing department, where she now works as an administrative assistant. She said she's always been interested in fashion, and she loves the opportunity to interact with students and faculty.

The new administration of the department has been a rewarding experience for Perez, she said. "I feel more comfortable because I know I can do it all," she added. "I feel like I'm a part of the team." She said she's grateful for the opportunity to continue her education.

Perez is a part-time student at Baruch, where she has been attending since 1982. She is majoring in finance, and will be graduating in 1986. She is also working full-time as an administrative assistant in the department.

"I'm responsible, courteous and hard work, dedication, and persistence," she said. "I'm responsible, courteous and hard work, dedication, and persistence." She said she's grateful for the opportunity to continue her education.
The Muslim Student Association

By Shanneck Supreme Allah

A Muslim organization has once again been formed in Baruch College for all students to enjoy a Brotherhood of peace and spiritual guidance. The Muslim Students Association began the past school year with the aim of letting students know that Islam is present in the world and needs representation somewhere in the United States.

The M.S.A. is actually a national organization with chapters campuses from coast to coast, including CUNY colleges. There was a chapter at City College of New York, but no one seemed to know about its existence. Now the M.S.A. has moved to Baruch College.

The idea of starting a Muslim organization at Baruch was brought up by Ms. Qadir, a junior majoring in mathematics. She spoke to the President of the College Student Association and asked for a spot on the agenda. She was told that Muslim students should form a club and Qadir was put in charge of forming the organization.

After a couple of meetings, Ms. Qadir decided to start the organization. She held a meeting in the Student Center where she introduced the club. She gave the members an idea of what the group would be about. The group was called the Muslims Student Association, and members were encouraged to come to meetings and participate in the organization.

The club has now become a reality, and Ms. Qadir is the President. Now that the club is formed, Ms. Qadir is planning on forming a chapter of the organization at Queensborough Community College. She is in the process of finding other members to help her with this goal.

Ms. Qadir says that she hopes to have a chapter at Queensborough Community College and to establish a chapter on the CUNY campus in the future. She is working hard to get the organization off the ground and to make it successful.

If you are interested in joining the Muslims Student Association or in learning more about Islam, please contact Ms. Qadir or Ms. Qadir's assistant, Ms. Ollie, at 212-354-7777. They are always happy to answer any questions you may have about Islam and the organization.

Ms. Qadir says that the club is open to all students, regardless of their religious beliefs. She says that she hopes to have a diverse membership and that the club will be a place where students can learn about Islam and discuss the issues that affect Muslims worldwide.

Ms. Qadir says that she hopes to have a chapter at Queensborough Community College and to establish a chapter on the CUNY campus in the future. She is working hard to get the organization off the ground and to make it successful.

If you are interested in joining the Muslims Student Association or in learning more about Islam, please contact Ms. Qadir or Ms. Qadir's assistant, Ms. Ollie, at 212-354-7777. They are always happy to answer any questions you may have about Islam and the organization.

Ms. Qadir says that the club is open to all students, regardless of their religious beliefs. She says that she hopes to have a diverse membership and that the club will be a place where students can learn about Islam and discuss the issues that affect Muslims worldwide.

Ms. Qadir says that she hopes to have a chapter at Queensborough Community College and to establish a chapter on the CUNY campus in the future. She is working hard to get the organization off the ground and to make it successful.

If you are interested in joining the Muslims Student Association or in learning more about Islam, please contact Ms. Qadir or Ms. Qadir's assistant, Ms. Ollie, at 212-354-7777. They are always happy to answer any questions you may have about Islam and the organization.

Ms. Qadir says that the club is open to all students, regardless of their religious beliefs. She says that she hopes to have a diverse membership and that the club will be a place where students can learn about Islam and discuss the issues that affect Muslims worldwide.

Ms. Qadir says that she hopes to have a chapter at Queensborough Community College and to establish a chapter on the CUNY campus in the future. She is working hard to get the organization off the ground and to make it successful.

If you are interested in joining the Muslims Student Association or in learning more about Islam, please contact Ms. Qadir or Ms. Qadir's assistant, Ms. Ollie, at 212-354-7777. They are always happy to answer any questions you may have about Islam and the organization.
ZENTEK·

Monochrome System

- 18-bit SVGA card
- 33% monochrome monitor

- Eight expansion slots
- Super 10240 controller
- Compact Desktop or Mini Tower case
- 1.2MB 5.25" drive
- Socket for Intel or Weitek Math Coprocessor

Super VGA System

- Enhanced keyboard
- Watt power supply
- Game Ports
- Parallel & 1 Game Ports
- 200 Watt power supply
- 42 256K RAM
- One Megabyte of high speed 70ns RAM

Discount

- New York
- Savings of from $100 to $500
- Zentek system at the same price

For inquires please contact

- Phone: 718-365-4769, leave message.

Classifieds

TUTORING

If you need help in: Algebra, Precalculus, Calculus, Stats, Probability, Finite & Discrete Math, Physics, Chemistry, French, Spanish, German, Span Com, Corres. & export proc., GMAT & GRE prep. Offer preferred one-on-one tutoring $15/hr.

BETA GAMMA SIGMA

APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP IN BETA GAMMA SIGMA, THE NATIONAL BUSINESS HONOR SOCIETY ARE AVAILABLE AT THE FOLLOWING LOCATIONS: 46 EAST 26TH STREET:

- UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS
  - ROOM 902
  - 9:00 - 6:30 M-TH
    - 9:00 - 4:45 F
- GRADUATE STUDENTS
  - ROOM 910
  - 9:00 - 6:00 M-TH
    - 9:00 - 5:00 F
- DOCTORAL STUDENTS
  - ROOM 928
  - 8:30 - 4:30 DAILY

STUDENTS or ORGANIZATIONS

Promote your Florida Spring Break packages. Earn MONEY and FREE trips. Organize SMALL or LARGE groups. Call Campus Marketing. 800-423-5264

BE A SPRING BREAK REP!

Earn FREE TRIPS and the HIGHEST COMMISSIONS! Cancun, Daytona, & Jamaica from $199. Call Take A Break Student Travel today! (800) 92-TRAVEL

VALUABLE INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY!

For Student Preparing for Career in Advertising

1 or 2 Students Mon and/or Wed Oct. - Dec. 1992

Prepare yourself for an advertising career working 1 or 2 days a week as a non-paid intern in lively small ad agency on 5th Ave. & 20th St., NYC. Work as a direct assistant to busy Presidents. Good typing skills and excellent phone manner required. Learn agency methods, procedures & terminology, client relationships, media research marketing planning, working with data & copywriters, etc. You receive help in planning your job hunt strategy and a working credit on your resume (Internship also available Spring & Summer, 1993)

Phone today! ADS UNLIMITED 929-4299

STUDENTS or ORGANIZATIONS

If you need help in: Algebra, Precalculus, Calculus, Stats, Probability, Finite & Discrete Math, Physics, Chemistry, French, Spanish, German, Span Com, Corres. & export proc., GMAT & GRE prep. Offer preferred one-on-one tutoring $15/hr.

BETA GAMMA SIGMA

APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP IN BETA GAMMA SIGMA, THE NATIONAL BUSINESS HONOR SOCIETY ARE AVAILABLE AT THE FOLLOWING LOCATIONS: 46 EAST 26TH STREET:

- UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS
  - ROOM 902
  - 9:00 - 6:30 M-TH
    - 9:00 - 4:45 F
- GRADUATE STUDENTS
  - ROOM 910
  - 9:00 - 6:00 M-TH
    - 9:00 - 5:00 F
- DOCTORAL STUDENTS
  - ROOM 928
  - 8:30 - 4:30 DAILY

STUDENTS or ORGANIZATIONS

Promote your Florida Spring Break packages. Earn MONEY and FREE trips. Organize SMALL or LARGE groups. Call Campus Marketing. 800-423-5264

BE A SPRING BREAK REP!

Earn FREE TRIPS and the HIGHEST COMMISSIONS! Cancun, Daytona, & Jamaica from $199. Call Take A Break Student Travel today! (800) 92-TRAVEL

VALUABLE INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY!

For Student Preparing for Career in Advertising

1 or 2 Students Mon and/or Wed Oct. - Dec. 1992

Prepare yourself for an advertising career working 1 or 2 days a week as a non-paid intern in lively small ad agency on 5th Ave. & 20th St., NYC. Work as a direct assistant to busy Presidents. Good typing skills and excellent phone manner required. Learn agency methods, procedures & terminology, client relationships, media research marketing planning, working with data & copywriters, etc. You receive help in planning your job hunt strategy and a working credit on your resume (Internship also available Spring & Summer, 1993)

Phone today! ADS UNLIMITED 929-4299
Record Reviews

Moodswings
Moodfood

By Danny Gesslein

You have now been able to experience a wide range of emotions have achieved a higher state of consciousness. No, you do not have a bottle of Absolut in your hand. Rather, you are in the presence of Moodswings’s debut album, Moodfood, on the C.D. player. Yet it’s true. There are still some musicians left who actually want to try something completely different. The group goes for it, says it, originality. My God, how odd.

Moodswings does not dwell on the past. The two were allowed a lifetime free grant. The results? Not much. The group handpicks several musical numbers with forms of their own. The minimalist style ranges from the powerful guitar wail of "Something" to the Churchian sounds of "Spiritual High." "Something" has a central theme as many different notes and styles possible. The main thread of this album is the central thread from "Something." This is like "A New Machine" from John Farnham’s Moment of Reason. This tune gives the album a central point which contains all the different styles. Moodswings is the E.O.Q. of the 90’s. For those who don’t know what E.O.Q. is, hide your green back in shame. Using the standard rock equipment, the group is able to hand and create new sounds that are as diverse as they are enlivening. "Something" is a stirred up. "Something" is a hard guitar, high keyboard, high background. The guitar solo was performed by none other than the legendary Jeff Beck.

"Spiritual High" is a Gasm Mix into the main thread. The song is in fact three songs in one similar to the Generation X song on the Beef’s Abby road. The first part is comprised of only a soloing guitar and no other parts. "Part III" (which is a little later, with The Pretenders’ Chrissy Hynde on vocals) is worth it. The song leads parts one and two into the final section. This time, however, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.’s words stage out. Dr. King’s "I Have a Dream" speech is played in the background and re-introduced for the next generation.

The songs will unite one another with the lived-in Pattinowords that were worth it. This method of continuous parts contributes to the music and the words. The group’s ability to sway your words with their music makes the music very good. What do you have? The group’s ability to sway your words with their music.

By the way, you will find that this album is just as hard as the rest of us. This track has a bass line that is sure to be heard. The bass line is as important as the guitar line. With just the right amount of bass, the song has the ability to sway your words with their music. What do you have? The group’s ability to sway your words with their music.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

Still not convinced? For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.

For those of you who love the old school freestyle sound, it has the ability to vibrate your woofers without bottoming them out. Right when your tweet goes "I say what I say," this is the moment. Just go by the chart and "I say what I say." You know this is the moment.

The lyrics? Come on, if they and their wonderful music lovers like myself), In fact, this was a popular full production. The funky fusion really makes you dance.
A Reminder from D.S.S.G. and The Ticker

THE DAY IS COMING
THE TIME IS NOW
VOTE!

ON NOVEMBER 3RD

Day Session Student Government
& The Ticker
Urges You to demand change and

SHAPE YOUR FUTURE!!!