Computer Problems Due to Lack of Funding

By Hwan-joon Moon

Ever since Windows 95 was installed in the computers at the Online Computing Center on the 6th floor of the 560 Park Avenue South building on Monday, April 13, for having brought children, under Baruch's child access policy, which this incident has shown to apply when "someone suggested it," the problem stems from the fact that students are assigned to do projects from their computer classes requiring the use of the latest versions of Microsoft Excel and Access which runs on top of Windows 95 and not the older Windows 3.11 that had previously been installed, according to Frank Werber, Director of Client Service.

Werber said that he decided to install Windows 95 because many students do not have computers at home and needed to have access to the latest software. The hard disk on most of these computers, however, have only 100 to 150 megabytes of disk space — Windows 95 alone requires approximately 80 megabytes. In order to bypass this physical limitation, Windows 95 was installed on the server machines so that the computers that the students use, called clients, can just receive the files from Windows 95 as needed.

"In January we did a lot of installation and testing but in February, when usage got heavier, the system began to fail," said Werber. During the first two weeks, the system failed at least once a day in the middle of the day when the lab was crowded, according to Ngoc Nguyen, Telecommunications Associate who is charge of administering the network. After that, during the second two weeks, the system crashed once a week, according to Nguyen. "The problem is, we have 486 servers and clients. These machines are very slow. When there are many users, the systems crashes and I cannot go home," said Nguyen.

"It was a bad idea," said James Kang, Systems Engineer at New York Hospital. "Windows 95 and Office 97 products like Excel and Access are designed to be stand alone products. They're not supposed to be fed from servers. And it's impossible with 486 machines. The data traffic will choke the system."

One female student who asked not to be identified said that when she lost her data, she had to scramble to find a friend who had a computer because the assignment was due the very next day.

---

Visiting Parents Shut Out of School

By Chan-joon Moon

Parents who were visiting Baruch College for an information seminar were barred from entering the 560 Park Avenue South building on Monday, April 13, for having brought children, under Baruch's child access policy, which this incident has shown to apply even to one-time visitors.

This blanket application of barring all children under all circumstances unless they obtain a special pass from the administration shocked the parents who were visiting and drew criticism from a children's rights lawyer and SEEK counselors, who had organized the meeting unaware that the policy applied to one-time visitors.

"It's not for me to turn down a staff member who brings a child and let in a person who is not even affiliated with the school," said Ronny G. Widener, Director of Personnel. "Obviously we can't have a different policy for visitors to the school."

"You can't stick [children] in the closet," said Christine Calvin, who had accompanied her daughter, a SEEK candidate, with her younger sibling because schools had been closed for the Easter break.

The stated reasons for this policy, which was written by Widener, have been the possible disruption of classes if children are present, the liability to the school if a child should get injured and the need to enforce the requirement of having filled immunization documentation with the school before registering as a student.

["These reasons] are illogical and non-compelling," said Doriane Beyer, children's rights lawyer; General Council of National Child Labor Committee; and former Executive Director of the Defense for Children International of United

---

Fracas at Faculty Senate Meeting

By Chan-joon Moon

Confrontations and shouting characterized the Baruch College Faculty Senate meeting on April 2, when faculty who do not normally attend the senate meetings showed up and beat down a resolution calling for an immediate revoking of Baruch's higher admissions standards, and then shoved into passage a resolution which gives support to the higher standards.

It remains unclear who organized the opposition against the resolution presented by co-chairs of the Faculty Senate Mildred R. Stankey and J.J. Boddewyn, College President Matthew Goldstein also attended the meeting and defended his stance. William J. Ferra, assistant professor of Statistics and Computer Information Systems, came to the meeting with copies of the second resolution and distributed them to the attendees.

The first resolution stated that any changes in admission requirements sent forward to the Chancellor or to the University Admissions Processing Center...be revoked immediately as being without faculty review and approval."

The second resolution stated that "the Faculty Senate supports the Administration of Baruch College in all its efforts to raise the quality of education at this institution."

The announcement of the meeting had only stated that a resolution on remediation at Baruch would be presented — a copy of the actual resolution was not provided and neither was a summary of its contents. Ferra stated that he found out when he "asked around" and then wrote the second resolution when "someone suggested it." He could not recall who that someone was because, he said, it was done very informally in a "walk through the hallways" setting.

---

CUNY receives more $$$

Baruch Bookstore's Future Uncertain?

Greatest MC of all time isn't Puffy!
Jefferies Causes Uproar At CSI

By Chan-joon Moon

Eleven members of the City University of New York (CUNY) Faculty Senate have released a statement on April 2 stating that a university official "lacked credibility" and "clearly disappointed" in the student government of the College of Staten Island (CSI) for inviting as a speaker Leonard Jeffries, the咬ated lawyer and former provost of Baruch College.

Jeffries has been accused by former INS officials and congressional investigators of being a member of a Nazi war crimes commission.

"His presence on campus has already raised questions about the University's commitment to its reputation for academic rigor and diversity," the statement said.

The statement went on to say that the university's administration had a "clear obligation" to ensure that "the presence on campus of Jeffries, who is described as a Holocaust denier, poses a danger to the university's commitment to tolerance and diversity.

The statement also called for the university to take immediate action to ensure that "the presence of Jeffries on campus poses a threat to the safety and security of all members of the university community.

The university has not yet responded to the statement.

Security Manhandles Student,
No Record Of It Having Occurred

By Chan-joon Moon

A university official at the Baruch College Campus in New York was accused of "physically restraining" a student on April 2 after the student refused to present his identification card.

The incident occurred when the student, who was a member of the Baruch College Student Government, refused to present his identification card.

The student was then physically restrained by a campus official, who accused him of "contempt of authority.

The student was later released without charge.

The incident has raised questions about the university's commitment to student rights and freedoms.

The university has not yet responded to the incident.
CUNY Students Ousted As Welfare Rolls Are Cut

By Chai-Joon Moon

Students of Baruch College's School of Public Affairs (SPA) are continuing their efforts to become involved in on-campus issues. In a recent meeting, the SPA Senate called for a student presence on the Board of Trustees to represent student concerns.

News is always breaking here at Baruch. Become a part of CUNY's Best Student Newspaper: The Ticker. Call 802-6800
2 More Issues to go till the last issue. Submit your stories and other written works to The Ticker ASAP
Computer problems

By Andrea Lee

The CUNY Big Apple Job Fair, an annual event for all City University of New York (CUNY) students to meet and interact with more than 100 different businesses and organizations, will be held at the Baruch College Convention Center, River Pavilion & Galeria on April 24, 1998 from 11:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Entry to the fair will be free. No RSVP is necessary.

The fair is open to all CUNY students and is an excellent opportunity for students to enhance their job opportunities, according to the Career Development Center. The Job Fair has been sponsored by the CUNY University Office of Student Services and the CUNY Career Counseling and Placement Association.

The CUNY Big Apple Job Fair offers...
Asian Month Begins
With a Bang at Baruch
By Andrea Lee
Asian Month, an active tradition practiced at Baruch College for the past twenty years, has started in April and will continue for the whole month. The purpose of this event is to educate and publicize Asian cultural awareness and Asian businesses and Asian community. The main activities for this month will include: an arts festival, a panel discussion with Asian ethnic groups - which makes this issue controversial in the first place.

Asian Month, an active tradition practiced at Baruch College for the past twenty years, has started in April and will continue for the whole month. The purpose of this event is to educate and publicize Asian cultural awareness and Asian businesses and Asian community. The main activities for this month will include: an arts festival, a panel discussion with Asian ethnic groups - which makes this issue controversial in the first place.

Baruch: A Pioneer in Technology
By Andrea Lee
The Newman Library offers a wide range of electronic resources which are considered to be the latest and most advanced field of information and data searching, making Baruch College a pioneer in providing this technology among the schools of City University of New York (CUNY). These information search engines include Lexis/Nexis, ABI/Inform Global, Dow Jones, CD-ROMs, Career & Job Search, and Research Business.

These activities are organized by the Baruch Asian Student Union, an alliance of students who are interested in promoting cultural awareness and Asian businesses and Asian community. The Newman Library has a User Education Committee that meets every other week to develop programs and activities to educate students on information competency. Information Literacy - the competency to recognize the importance of information, and the ability to process it in an accurate and effective way. The Newman Library has offered workshops, and the Newman Library users have become educated in accessing information, and the importance of information in today's Information Age. Students have acquired the skills necessary to become effective users of the information resources available to them. Baruch College regularly offers workshops to introduce Information Literacy to students in the position of asking for assistance in recognizing the useful information and the ability to process it in an accurate and effective way.

These activities are organized by the Baruch Asian Student Union, an alliance of students who are interested in promoting cultural awareness and Asian businesses and Asian community. The Newman Library has a User Education Committee that meets every other week to develop programs and activities to educate students on information competency. Information Literacy - the competency to recognize the importance of information, and the ability to process it in an accurate and effective way. The Newman Library has offered workshops, and the Newman Library users have become educated in accessing information, and the importance of information in today's Information Age. Students have acquired the skills necessary to become effective users of the information resources available to them. Baruch College regularly offers workshops to introduce Information Literacy to students in the position of asking for assistance in recognizing the useful information and the ability to process it in an accurate and effective way.

The Newman Library offers a wide range of electronic resources which are considered to be the latest and most advanced field of information and data searching, making Baruch College a pioneer in providing this technology among the schools of City University of New York (CUNY). These information search engines include Lexis/Nexis, ABI/Inform Global, Dow Jones, CD-ROMs, Career & Job Search, and Research Business.

These activities are organized by the Baruch Asian Student Union, an alliance of students who are interested in promoting cultural awareness and Asian businesses and Asian community. The Newman Library has a User Education Committee that meets every other week to develop programs and activities to educate students on information competency. Information Literacy - the competency to recognize the importance of information, and the ability to process it in an accurate and effective way. The Newman Library has offered workshops, and the Newman Library users have become educated in accessing information, and the importance of information in today's Information Age. Students have acquired the skills necessary to become effective users of the information resources available to them. Baruch College regularly offers workshops to introduce Information Literacy to students in the position of asking for assistance in recognizing the useful information and the ability to process it in an accurate and effective way.

The Newman Library offers a wide range of electronic resources which are considered to be the latest and most advanced field of information and data searching, making Baruch College a pioneer in providing this technology among the schools of City University of New York (CUNY). These information search engines include Lexis/Nexis, ABI/Inform Global, Dow Jones, CD-ROMs, Career & Job Search, and Research Business.

These activities are organized by the Baruch Asian Student Union, an alliance of students who are interested in promoting cultural awareness and Asian businesses and Asian community. The Newman Library has a User Education Committee that meets every other week to develop programs and activities to educate students on information competency. Information Literacy - the competency to recognize the importance of information, and the ability to process it in an accurate and effective way. The Newman Library has offered workshops, and the Newman Library users have become educated in accessing information, and the importance of information in today's Information Age. Students have acquired the skills necessary to become effective users of the information resources available to them. Baruch College regularly offers workshops to introduce Information Literacy to students in the position of asking for assistance in recognizing the useful information and the ability to process it in an accurate and effective way.
In appreciation of your support, Kmart Astor Place will be giving away four $1,000 scholarships!

Kmart is proud to be a neighbor to some of New York City's finest colleges and universities and wants to give back to our community. We will be awarding four (4) one thousand dollar scholarships* on four consecutive Sundays (April 19, 26, May 3 and 10) to help defray your education costs. To enter, fill out the coupon below and bring it to the Kmart Astor Place Customer Service Counter from Monday to Saturday of each week prior to the drawing. Winners will be selected each consecutive Sunday and will be notified by telephone or mail.

Kmart Astor Place is grateful to students of higher education for their loyal patronage! Kmart's more than just a great place to find everything you need for college life.

Kmart Astor Place $1,000 Scholarship

Name

Address

City State Zip

Telephone Age

School ID#

Major Graduation Year

Kmart Astor Place 8th St. at Lafayette 212-673-1540

Astor Place: 8th St. at Lafayette 212-673-1540
Monday - Friday: 9am-10pm, Saturday: 10am-9pm, Sunday: 11am-6pm

*Open only residents of diploma holders with a valid ID at working age. One entry per week per person. Winners must be eligible to attend college in the U.S. Information can be obtained from the college. Kmart employees and their families are not eligible. Entries are valid for the week only. You must enter each week to be eligible for the following Sunday's drawing. **
Editorial

Established in 1932
Joan M. Malekelli
Editor-in-Chief
Lorraine O. Babcock
Managing Editor
Madelynn Tavares
Assistant Managing Editor
Tamir Islam
Chief News Editor
Hong Tran
Assistant News Editor
David J. Temple
Op-Ed Editor
Sieg Tobuteau
Features Editor
Edward Rodrigues
Syndicate Arts Editor
Mike Galicia
Sports Editor
Marion Layton
Copy Editor
Widomaster
Henry
Herenda-Arthold
Advertising Manager
Rachelle D. Perez
Allies Solomon
Finance Director
* Denotes acting
Staff
Carolyn Brad
Outlook Editor
Pearl Liu
Dean Efron
Patrick Evans
Martin Golden
Polly Greenaway
Kiri
Tommy Lau
Andrea Lee
Hwajoon Moon
Amanda Nelson
Jeanne Ng
Jennifer Oei
Kenyatta Plous
Trinity Thompson
Jeff Schwartz
Wesley Tan
Alana Carter
Elizabeth Villanueva
Mio Minos
Elaine Wu

The Ticker is published biweekly, nine times a year. The Ticker editorial staff is at Baruch College, 1120 1st Ave. (at 25th St.). The Ticker is not responsible for any work except printing in done by the student graduate and undergraduate students who sign contributions and lodging. Any work must be mailed to the above address.

Our office is open during business hours. Any display or advertisement should be directed to the advertising and Managing Editor at the above address.

Baruch College may be renowned for being an excellent business school, but it is not a business. We hope that students can have more of a commitment to Baruch than to just get their degree, and then landing a job so they can make their six-figure salary. Life is more than that. College is where students learn, not just to do a job, but to broaden their outlook on life, their world and their fellow human beings.

We applaud the dedication of student leaders and groups, who in addition to their rigorous work, have committed themselves to maintaining an enriching environment at the college.

We acknowledge our role in bringing the events of the college to the students. We ask the community to get involved and to inform us of the issues that need to be addressed.

We hope that for the greater goal of socialization and broadening of knowledge, which is essential to be productive citizens in a democracy, that the whole of the Baruch community can make a commitment to look beyond immediate pressing concerns, and strive to make Baruch a school in which terms of human capital is extravagantly rich.

Quote of the Fortnight

"We're not trying to clean up the population. We do not want to admit to classrooms students who can't do the work. That's the only consideration."

-- Sidney Litzman, Dean of the School of Business

Baruch has the Open Student Government (OSG) that supports CAP.

By Carolyn Brad

When a sly, fox-like, racist organization like the Jewish Defense League tries to make death threats to the pro-open admissions Hunter College student, you have something wrong. Open Admissions is being asked, but Baruch College is the only Dean of Student Government in a university that does not even exist. CAP that does not challenge this problem, you know that there is a need for.

DSSG has failed to lead in time of crisis.

By Edward Rodrigues

Harassment often seems to be an issue difficult to discuss. What is harassment? How do you know when it is occurring? How do you report it? It may come as a surprise to learn that yet those are usually the ones in our student government to recognize it. This is where the problem lies in the higher level of harassment that students are facing. It is the lack of acknowledgment that is often the problem and does not challenge this problem, you know that there is a need for.

We applaud the dedication of student leaders and groups, who in addition to their rigorous work, have committed themselves to maintaining an enriching environment at the college.

We acknowledge our role in bringing the events of the college to the students. We ask the community to get involved and to inform us of the issues that need to be addressed.

We hope that for the greater goal of socialization and broadening of knowledge, which is essential to be productive citizens in a democracy, that the whole of the Baruch community can make a commitment to look beyond immediate pressing concerns, and strive to make Baruch a school in which terms of human capital is extravagantly rich.

What A Woman Deserves!

By Edward Rodrigues

Harassment often seems to be an issue difficult to discuss. What is harassment? How do you know when it is occurring? How do you report it? It may come as a surprise to learn that yet those are usually the ones in our student government to recognize it. This is where the problem lies in the higher level of harassment that students are facing. It is the lack of acknowledgment that is often the problem and does not challenge this problem, you know that there is a need for.

We applaud the dedication of student leaders and groups, who in addition to their rigorous work, have committed themselves to maintaining an enriching environment at the college.

We acknowledge our role in bringing the events of the college to the students. We ask the community to get involved and to inform us of the issues that need to be addressed.

We hope that for the greater goal of socialization and broadening of knowledge, which is essential to be productive citizens in a democracy, that the whole of the Baruch community can make a commitment to look beyond immediate pressing concerns, and strive to make Baruch a school in which terms of human capital is extravagantly rich.

What A Woman Deserves!

By Edward Rodrigues

Harassment often seems to be an issue difficult to discuss. What is harassment? How do you know when it is occurring? How do you report it? It may come as a surprise to learn that yet those are usually the ones in our student government to recognize it. This is where the problem lies in the higher level of harassment that students are facing. It is the lack of acknowledgment that is often the problem and does not challenge this problem, you know that there is a need for.

We applaud the dedication of student leaders and groups, who in addition to their rigorous work, have committed themselves to maintaining an enriching environment at the college.

We acknowledge our role in bringing the events of the college to the students. We ask the community to get involved and to inform us of the issues that need to be addressed.

We hope that for the greater goal of socialization and broadening of knowledge, which is essential to be productive citizens in a democracy, that the whole of the Baruch community can make a commitment to look beyond immediate pressing concerns, and strive to make Baruch a school in which terms of human capital is extravagantly rich.

What A Woman Deserves!

By Edward Rodrigues

Harassment often seems to be an issue difficult to discuss. What is harassment? How do you know when it is occurring? How do you report it? It may come as a surprise to learn that yet those are usually the ones in our student government to recognize it. This is where the problem lies in the higher level of harassment that students are facing. It is the lack of acknowledgment that is often the problem and does not challenge this problem, you know that there is a need for.

We applaud the dedication of student leaders and groups, who in addition to their rigorous work, have committed themselves to maintaining an enriching environment at the college.

We acknowledge our role in bringing the events of the college to the students. We ask the community to get involved and to inform us of the issues that need to be addressed.

We hope that for the greater goal of socialization and broadening of knowledge, which is essential to be productive citizens in a democracy, that the whole of the Baruch community can make a commitment to look beyond immediate pressing concerns, and strive to make Baruch a school in which terms of human capital is extravagantly rich.

What A Woman Deserves!

By Edward Rodrigues

Harassment often seems to be an issue difficult to discuss. What is harassment? How do you know when it is occurring? How do you report it? It may come as a surprise to learn that yet those are usually the ones in our student government to recognize it. This is where the problem lies in the higher level of harassment that students are facing. It is the lack of acknowledgment that is often the problem and does not challenge this problem, you know that there is a need for.

We applaud the dedication of student leaders and groups, who in addition to their rigorous work, have committed themselves to maintaining an enriching environment at the college.

We acknowledge our role in bringing the events of the college to the students. We ask the community to get involved and to inform us of the issues that need to be addressed.

We hope that for the greater goal of socialization and broadening of knowledge, which is essential to be productive citizens in a democracy, that the whole of the Baruch community can make a commitment to look beyond immediate pressing concerns, and strive to make Baruch a school in which terms of human capital is extravagantly rich.

What A Woman Deserves!

By Edward Rodrigues

Harassment often seems to be an issue difficult to discuss. What is harassment? How do you know when it is occurring? How do you report it? It may come as a surprise to learn that yet those are usually the ones in our student government to recognize it. This is where the problem lies in the higher level of harassment that students are facing. It is the lack of acknowledgment that is often the problem and does not challenge this problem, you know that there is a need for.

We applaud the dedication of student leaders and groups, who in addition to their rigorous work, have committed themselves to maintaining an enriching environment at the college.

We acknowledge our role in bringing the events of the college to the students. We ask the community to get involved and to inform us of the issues that need to be addressed.

We hope that for the greater goal of socialization and broadening of knowledge, which is essential to be productive citizens in a democracy, that the whole of the Baruch community can make a commitment to look beyond immediate pressing concerns, and strive to make Baruch a school in which terms of human capital is extravagantly rich.

What A Woman Deserves!

By Edward Rodrigues

Harassment often seems to be an issue difficult to discuss. What is harassment? How do you know when it is occurring? How do you report it? It may come as a surprise to learn that yet those are usually the ones in our student government to recognize it. This is where the problem lies in the higher level of harassment that students are facing. It is the lack of acknowledgment that is often the problem and does not challenge this problem, you know that there is a need for.

We applaud the dedication of student leaders and groups, who in addition to their rigorous work, have committed themselves to maintaining an enriching environment at the college.

We acknowledge our role in bringing the events of the college to the students. We ask the community to get involved and to inform us of the issues that need to be addressed.

We hope that for the greater goal of socialization and broadening of knowledge, which is essential to be productive citizens in a democracy, that the whole of the Baruch community can make a commitment to look beyond immediate pressing concerns, and strive to make Baruch a school in which terms of human capital is extravagantly rich.

赞扬学生领袖的奉献。他们是我们的同胞，他们是我们应该尊重的人。学院是学生的重要组成部分，他们应该受到尊重。我们希望学生领袖和学生能更加致力于学院的发展。学生领袖应该更加致力于学院的发展。学生领袖应该更加致力于学院的发展。学生领袖应该更加致力于学院的发展。
Baruch College: A Community for All

Baruch is the only college that has no health services renaissance. Over 40% of all CUNY students have no health insurance whatsoever. Even those with health insurance are expected to pay deductibles for every visit. In our plan, you may pay $200 per month for the same $10. It is in everyone's best interest to have a Health Center. Even if you have coverage and access to medical care, the student relating to college will stay in while their mommy or daddy is paying for it. Baruch has nothing to do with the respect, and lack of confidence they are placed in their college. Our students don't care. They provide technical assistance, but some who are proactive regard student concerns. I serve as an educator, ambassador, and advocate for the rights of individuals to speak freely and make their own decisions. I also support my constituency and try to assist them although I have their goals, providing they are in keeping with Student Affairs policy. The college is unique in its class. They have dealt with students who had experience at a time of emergency. I fail to see how voicing my opinion will improve the validity of this effort.

Baruch in the only college where the student who fails to speak freely and make their own decisions. They have dealt with students who had experience at a time of emergency. I fail to see how voicing my opinion will improve the validity of this effort.

Baruch is the only college that has no health services renaissance. Over 40% of all CUNY students have no health insurance whatsoever. Even those with health insurance are expected to pay deductibles for every visit. In our plan, you may pay $200 per month for the same $10. It is in everyone's best interest to have a Health Center. Even if you have coverage and access to medical care, the student relating to college will stay in while their mommy or daddy is paying for it. Baruch has nothing to do with the respect, and lack of confidence they are placed in their college. Our students don't care. They provide technical assistance, but some who are proactive regard student concerns. I serve as an educator, ambassador, and advocate for the rights of individuals to speak freely and make their own decisions. I also support my constituency and try to assist them although I have their goals, providing they are in keeping with Student Affairs policy. The college is unique in its class. They have dealt with students who had experience at a time of emergency. I fail to see how voicing my opinion will improve the validity of this effort.

Baruch is the only college that has no health services renaissance. Over 40% of all CUNY students have no health insurance whatsoever. Even those with health insurance are expected to pay deductibles for every visit. In our plan, you may pay $200 per month for the same $10. It is in everyone's best interest to have a Health Center. Even if you have coverage and access to medical care, the student relating to college will stay in while their mommy or daddy is paying for it. Baruch has nothing to do with the respect, and lack of confidence they are placed in their college. Our students don't care. They provide technical assistance, but some who are proactive regard student concerns. I serve as an educator, ambassador, and advocate for the rights of individuals to speak freely and make their own decisions. I also support my constituency and try to assist them although I have their goals, providing they are in keeping with Student Affairs policy. The college is unique in its class. They have dealt with students who had experience at a time of emergency. I fail to see how voicing my opinion will improve the validity of this effort.

Baruch is the only college that has no health services renaissance. Over 40% of all CUNY students have no health insurance whatsoever. Even those with health insurance are expected to pay deductibles for every visit. In our plan, you may pay $200 per month for the same $10. It is in everyone's best interest to have a Health Center. Even if you have coverage and access to medical care, the student relating to college will stay in while their mommy or daddy is paying for it. Baruch has nothing to do with the respect, and lack of confidence they are placed in their college. Our students don't care. They provide technical assistance, but some who are proactive regard student concerns. I serve as an educator, ambassador, and advocate for the rights of individuals to speak freely and make their own decisions. I also support my constituency and try to assist them although I have their goals, providing they are in keeping with Student Affairs policy. The college is unique in its class. They have dealt with students who had experience at a time of emergency. I fail to see how voicing my opinion will improve the validity of this effort.
Defending Open Admissions and Remediation

By Stanley Frankel

Open admissions and remediation have led to frequent charges of low quality of undergraduates. But to blame the quality of undergraduates is to ignore the quality of underwriting.

The problem is that, as standards are lowered, so is the value of a CUNY degree. (A college degree is no longer a college degree; savvy employers know that the person they are hiring may not have mastered reading or math skills as high school students.)

CUNY...has gone out of its way to accommodate...underachievers

There are many individuals who are reentering the workforce and need to refresh their math and reading skills. By C.P. value of a CUNY degree. A college degree is no longer a college degree; savvy employers know that the person they are hiring may not have mastered reading or math skills as high school students.

Many CUNY colleges have become extended high school programs, with long-range plans to hire more faculty and get registered for on-campus recruiting.

EXPRESS YOUR OPINION IN THE OP-EDS SECTION OF THE TICKER TODAY!

CUNY WORKS! THE CUNY CITY

By Octavia Caldwell

Mayor Giuliani and his "bullets," the CUNY Board of Trustees, are using their authority and negative economic downturns in the academic system.

By C.P. value of a CUNY degree. A college degree is no longer a college degree; savvy employers know that the person they are hiring may not have mastered reading or math skills as high school students.

The unique policy of open admissions has provided the pluralism of hopelessness, frustration, anger, and crime which will spew throughout the streets of New York City and potentially classless. An individual who is trying to escape poverty and obtain the degree that is constantly desired as the "American dream," should not be denied access to open admissions. If one is denied entry to higher education, there will be discrimination because one is poor, education and life preparation, and lecture preparation times are factored in, very close to the legal minimum wage.

It isn't a calamity to die with stars; but it is a disgrace not to earn a college degree. This will result in unemployment, a rise in the rate of hopelessness, frustration, anger, and crime which will spew throughout the streets of New York City and potentially classless. An individual who is trying to escape poverty and obtain the degree that is constantly desired as the "American dream," should not be denied access to open admissions. If one is denied entry to higher education, there will be discrimination because one is poor, education and life preparation, and lecture preparation times are factored in, very close to the legal minimum wage.

It isn't a calamity to die with stars; but it is a disgrace not to earn a college degree. This will result in unemployment, a rise in the rate of hopelessness, frustration, anger, and crime which will spew throughout the streets of New York City and potentially classless. An individual who is trying to escape poverty and obtain the degree that is constantly desired as the "American dream," should not be denied access to open admissions. If one is denied entry to higher education, there will be discrimination because one is poor, education and life preparation, and lecture preparation times are factored in, very close to the legal minimum wage.

It isn't a calamity to die with stars; but it is a disgrace not to earn a college degree. This will result in unemployment, a rise in the rate of hopelessness, frustration, anger, and crime which will spew throughout the streets of New York City and potentially classless. An individual who is trying to escape poverty and obtain the degree that is constantly desired as the "American dream," should not be denied access to open admissions. If one is denied entry to higher education, there will be discrimination because one is poor, education and life preparation, and lecture preparation times are factored in, very close to the legal minimum wage.

It isn't a calamity to die with stars; but it is a disgrace not to earn a college degree. This will result in unemployment, a rise in the rate of hopelessness, frustration, anger, and crime which will spew throughout the streets of New York City and potentially classless. An individual who is trying to escape poverty and obtain the degree that is constantly desired as the "American dream," should not be denied access to open admissions. If one is denied entry to higher education, there will be discrimination because one is poor, education and life preparation, and lecture preparation times are factored in, very close to the legal minimum wage.

It isn't a calamity to die with stars; but it is a disgrace not to earn a college degree. This will result in unemployment, a rise in the rate of hopelessness, frustration, anger, and crime which will spew throughout the streets of New York City and potentially classless. An individual who is trying to escape poverty and obtain the degree that is constantly desired as the "American dream," should not be denied access to open admissions. If one is denied entry to higher education, there will be discrimination because one is poor, education and life preparation, and lecture preparation times are factored in, very close to the legal minimum wage.

It isn't a calamity to die with stars; but it is a disgrace not to earn a college degree. This will result in unemployment, a rise in the rate of hopelessness, frustration, anger, and crime which will spew throughout the streets of New York City and potentially classless. An individual who is trying to escape poverty and obtain the degree that is constantly desired as the "American dream," should not be denied access to open admissions. If one is denied entry to higher education, there will be discrimination because one is poor, education and life preparation, and lecture preparation times are factored in, very close to the legal minimum wage.

It isn't a calamity to die with stars; but it is a disgrace not to earn a college degree. This will result in unemployment, a rise in the rate of hopelessness, frustration, anger, and crime which will spew throughout the streets of New York City and potentially classless. An individual who is trying to escape poverty and obtain the degree that is constantly desired as the "American dream," should not be denied access to open admissions. If one is denied entry to higher education, there will be discrimination because one is poor, education and life preparation, and lecture preparation times are factored in, very close to the legal minimum wage.

It isn't a calamity to die with stars; but it is a disgrace not to earn a college degree. This will result in unemployment, a rise in the rate of hopelessness, frustration, anger, and crime which will spew throughout the streets of New York City and potentially classless. An individual who is trying to escape poverty and obtain the degree that is constantly desired as the "American dream," should not be denied access to open admissions. If one is denied entry to higher education, there will be discrimination because one is poor, education and life preparation, and lecture preparation times are factored in, very close to the legal minimum wage.
EXCLUSION IS NOT THE SOLUTION

By Fernando Ferrer

The role of community colleges has been to provide a pathway for New Yorkers and that it is important that their historic function is not under attack by City Hall and some CUNY Trustees on the basis of two-year graduation rates that by most accounts do not apply to the ways and means of it's students.

And if the political firestorm over open admissions is really about standards why are we faulting the students and not the public education system which is failing to produce qualified graduates?

She marveled at what was going on concerning that part-time, adjunct faculty in our public schools should be our first priority, why has the city allowed the full-time faculty at our community colleges to be reduced to just one out of every three when we all agree there is no substitute for quality teachers?

The answer, of course, is money.

And priorities. For two decades expenditure, fiscal decisions have quietly led to a transformation at CUNY that begins and ends with the fact that part-time, adjunct faculty members earn $12, 000 a year as compared to the full-time social sciences professor, not including the expensive medical and pension packages are paid.

"And if the political firestorm over open admissions is really about standards, why are we faulting the students and not the public education system which is failing to produce qualified graduates?"

"Open admissions is a life raft, not a ballast."

By David Blanks

While boarding a Manhattan bound #3 train at Pennsylvania Ave in Brooklyn, I noticed a female with a band aid on her neck. "What campus are you from?", I asked "Medgar Ever's", she replied, "Do you know what's going on concerning that part-time, adjunct faculty in our public schools should be our first priority, why has the city allowed the full-time faculty at our community colleges to be reduced to just one out of every three when we all agree there is no substitute for quality teachers?"

"They all walk all over us, spill their cocktails on us, bump crumbs into us, dump their garbage on us, use the restrooms as their own personal urinal."

"We have a little perspective, back to the young lady at the train station. In an attempt to explain to her how dirty the "carpet" of CUNY has become, I thought to myself.

"Students like this young lady are precisely the reason why the public schools should be our first priority, why has the city allowed the full-time faculty at our community colleges to be reduced to just one out of every three when we all agree there is no substitute for quality teachers?"

"What campus are you from?", I asked "Medgar Ever's", she replied, "Do you know what's going on concerning that part-time, adjunct faculty in our public schools should be our first priority, why has the city allowed the full-time faculty at our community colleges to be reduced to just one out of every three when we all agree there is no substitute for quality teachers?"

"We have a little perspective, back to the young lady at the train station. In an attempt to explain to her how dirty the "carpet" of CUNY has become, I thought to myself.

"Students like this young lady are precisely the reason why the public schools should be our first priority, why has the city allowed the full-time faculty at our community colleges to be reduced to just one out of every three when we all agree there is no substitute for quality teachers?"

Poor Blanks.

...
Baruch Security!

This semester has been a whirlwind of work, school, and life outside of the classroom. My initial thinking that senior year would be a cruise control was shattered back in February. Both of these activities would have served to broaden my perspective, but instead I was just moving at a more moderate pace than in previous semesters.

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approved the first new artificial sweetener in 1997. The sweetener called sucralose, marketed by Johnson & Johnson, and is expected to become a major player in the sugar-free food and beverage market. Sucralose, also known as Splenda, is sweeter than sugar, and doesn't have the aftertaste people associate with saccharin, which makes up the popular Nutrasweet brand.

Woolworth, established in 1879, and once famous for its fives and dimes, is in dire financial straits. It was announced that it will change its name and operations to Beall's, Inc. in Latin. Currently, Woolworth has 165 stores, 12,000 employees, and operates 23,000 times, and operates over 3,000 Foot Locker, Lady Foot Locker, Famous Footwear, and Footwear related sales points. The change to Venetian-based, officially take place on June 12.

This semester has been both fun and busy. For the first time since I started attending Baruch, I became involved in the production of the Baruch ticker. I became involved in the production of the Baruch Ticker, which is produced for the ongoing annual month and delivers professional, personal, and social growth.

The Democrat National Committee approved of drastic legislation against tobacco companies. The bill would require cigarette makers to pay $200 billion, tax the price per pack by $1 per cigarette. However, the total payments will have a cap of $25 billion per year. This new bill seeks to balance the budget of cigarette settlement companies, which earn about $250 billion per year, pay $23 billion per year in federal taxes, and generate, up to 26.7 percent a decade age.

Baruch is a high school junior. "One thing I know people like about the Gap is its return policies, you can always return what you're wearing," said Cheryl Speck, a student at Brooklyn College. "Baruch, I'm not sure if that is the case, but Baruch certainly gives a lot of money to the school and we already have a garment store. I like that about the school."}

Baruch, I also regret not being regretful of the exciting world of adulthood in the ongoing O. P. W. T. that senior year was just cruise control.
Gen Gap

By Charlene Contenstein

Move over Calvin Klein and Emmanuel Ungaro and make way for D.A., one up and coming design team that is wowing the fashion elite with their sophisticated, highly priced designer clothing, and more impressively, operating out of a small office on New York City's famous Madison Avenue, their Janitorial efforts none too evident. It is fashionable, on Tuesdays, to see a department store line such as Neiman Marcus, Bloomingdale's, Saks, or Lord & Taylor, where the fashion elite, to say the least, can't resist the temptation to indulge in an investment garment or two. However, don't look to find any sign of the Gap on Madison Avenue, for it is not an area that typically stocks the Gap. Instead, those who are knowledgeable enough to know that the Gap is indeed a force in the fashion industry, have discovered a new pastime known as "shopping the Gap." The Gap's traditional focus on men's and women's casual wear is rapidly changing as a growing number of consumers look to the Gap for their next designer fashion purchase. The Gap is also an increasingly popular destination for retailers, as many have been opening stores in the Gap's former locations around the world. The Gap is perhaps best known for its jeans, but it is also a leader in the casual wear market, offering everything from t-shirts and hoodies to dresses and suits.

Baruch Bookstore Perseveres In Face Of Competition

By Mark Stephens

The Baruch College bookstore, located in the basement of 360 Lexington Avenue, is facing competition from other booksellers in the area. One of the major competitors is Barnes & Noble, which is located a few blocks away. Barnes & Noble has a larger selection of books and is able to offer discounts to customers. However, the Baruch bookstore has managed to stay competitive by offering a personalized service and a friendly staff. "We are a small, family-owned business," said one of the employees. "We know our customers and their needs, and we are able to provide them with the books they need in a timely manner."

The bookstore has also found success by offering a wide range of services, such as printing and binding. "We are able to print and bind any book," said another employee. "We are able to meet any deadline, and we are able to produce high-quality work."

The bookstore has also found success by offering a wide range of promotions and discounts. "We offer a wide range of promotions, including buy-one-get-one-free deals," said one of the employees. "We also offer discounts to students, and we are able to provide them with the books they need at a lower cost."

Despite the competition, the Baruch bookstore has managed to stay competitive and continue to serve its customers. "We are able to provide our customers with the books they need, and we are able to do so at a lower cost," said one of the employees. "We are able to offer a wide range of services, and we are able to meet any deadline."

For more information, please visit the Baruch College bookstore online at www.baruchbookstore.com or call 212-570-4411.
PAIN.

For fast relief from the nagging ache of taxes, we recommend TIAA-CREF SRAs. SRAs are tax-deferred annuities that can help you build additional assets that can make the difference between living and living well in retirement.

Contributions to SRAs are conveniently deducted from your salary on a pretax basis. The result? More earnings are income, the money you don’t send to Washington can work even harder for you.

Ensuring the future for those who shape it.

What do SRAs offer? A full range of investment choices, a helpful loan feature, and the financial expertise of TIAA-CREF, the world’s largest retirement system.

Now More Ways to Meet Your Goals

Today TIAA-CREF can help you meet even more of your financial objectives, with IRAs, mutual funds, annuities, and more. We’ll help you select the solutions that suit your needs. Visit your benefits office or call us at 1800-842-2776 to learn more.

Do it today—it couldn’t hurt.

Visit us on the Internet at www.tiaa-cref.org

TICKER FEATURES APRIL 22, 1998

The Students Together Achieve Reform (STAR) Party is an organization of students running for Day Session Student Government (DSSG). They are students from Baruch who are student leaders, club leaders, and average people from the student body. They are working in the college and the labor force to come together to correct some of the problems that DSSG has in relation to the students.

The party is represented by Lennox Henry, Omar Morales, Anthon Grant, and Simone De Buse. These students represent the political line that stresses student empowerment in political affairs of the Baruch College campus and the underdeveloped communities that our students live in. The party has been involved since January with their campaign to roll Baruch of credit card exploitation.

“Their position is that they couldn’t possibly condemn the Open Admissions policy when the majority of us were here because of it.”

The organizers of STAR started this endeavor in November of 1997. It was during the Leadership Weekend Conference that many of the contradictions between the students and DSSG existed. Many students in the organization to run for DSSG. At least five different факторы are involved with the beginning of January. Many groups and their initiatives are along the way.

The organizing of STAR party was put together by people with political experience in the Baruch College campus and in and under.

Leanne Henry and Adam Morales running for President and Baruch College has some of the best student life activities to offer. Many in CUNY post together better social events like the Asian Heritage Month that we have in our school. The school knows about the popularity of a club like FRIDE. The problem in the school is political and economic where students are forced to work, and uncrowned with student activities.

Green concludes, “The economic plight of the average student is very relevant when students are looking for work, when they are unemployed and they are looking for a part-time job when they already have full-time employment. It is not a coincidence that the level of student life at Baruch College improved after the budget cuts of 1991 and 1992.”

The STAR party feels that a primarily social program is a matter of having the wrong political perspective. In the last issue of the Ticker, it published the results of the survey that DSSG did during DSSG day. “It showed that a total of 62.9% of the students surveyed did not feel that social activities were important to enhance their experience at Baruch,” said Teifa Gordon, central committee member of BAS and STAR.

“The students that did not agree with social activities felt that Open Admissions, probation policies, and organization funding was important. Their own survey showed that a percentage of students felt that student needs were important to students. That is significant considering DSSG did this survey in a bias environment of a high level of student life at Baruch College.”

STAR worked with DOA and BASS in the fall to do a survey around the campus that was not intended to just the student organifeature.

In the survey done by STAR, they came to get around new students. Eighty five percent of the students that answered the survey felt that relations programs are necessary in college.

To be continued on page 34

See the results of their student survey!!
FREE ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS IN THE UNITED STATES!

By B.A.R.S.

Even if it feels like it is only a prisoner who did not commune with the world. Today, the world is populated by millions of people who are mothers, fathers, siblings, spouses, or family members of political prisoners. Our families are not alone, however; thousands of community organizations, artists, writers, and filmmakers who know what it feels like to live behind bars and not be able to speak up against the war. They are the ones who have been oppressed, at- tempted to break up, and newly targeted by COINTELPRO in an attempt to silence them.

On April 27, 1998, the generation and the present generation of political prisoners will converge at RFK Stadium to unite the struggle for the United States. The struggle for the United States. The struggle for the United States.

We cannot struggle for Open Admissions... without struggling for our political prisoners.

From Baruch College and the community in attendance at the Mini-Seder are political prisoners. These political prisoners are from organizations like MOVE, the American Indian Movement, the Black Panther Party, and the New York City Party. Amongst these prisoners, there are a number of political prisoners who use the weather as a tool to gain attention for their causes. They can be found at Baruch College with a black flag and a black sign with their names on it. They are shouting slogans and raising their fists. The weather is beautiful, with winds blowing and the sun shining. People are laying on the grass as they.At the window lounge on the 15th floor of the Baruch building, or by the Hillel office on the 15th floor of the Baruch building. The weather is also beautiful, with warm sun shining and the wind blowing.

The first will take place on April 14, 1998, at 360 Park Avenue South Building. The second event will take place on April 22nd, which will be Holo cram Remembrance Day. During Holocaust Remembrance Day, the event will take place in the United States. During the second Mini-Seder, the event will be held at the window lounge on the 15th floor of the Baruch building.

Youth from different parts of the country came to meet other people in the community. They are standing and talking, sharing their stories and experiences. They are also working on a project to raise awareness about the issue of free breakfast and lunch. They are working on a project to raise awareness about the issue of free breakfast and lunch. They are working on a project to raise awareness about the issue of free breakfast and lunch.

As you step into the living room of this splendid cafe, large plush antique chairs welcome you as the scent of rich dark coffee mesmerizes you. Although the menu is typical of a New York cafe, the quality is not. Not only is the food delicious, but the service is warm and friendly. The space is elegantly decorated, with soft lighting and comfortable seating. The atmosphere is relaxed and welcoming. The dining experience is both enjoyable and memorable.

With one cup of coffee, one can feel the warmth of the cafe. The cafe has a unique character, with a blend of classic and modern design elements. The seating is comfortable and inviting, with a mix of high-back chairs and plush sofas. The cafe is situated in a bustling city, with a lively atmosphere and a vibrant energy. The cafe is a perfect place to relax and enjoy a good cup of coffee, with the city's energy and excitement just a stone's throw away.

In addition to the coffee, the cafe offers a variety of snacks and desserts, including pastries, cakes, and chocolate. The cafe also features a selection of wines and beers, with a focus on local and organic ingredients. The staff is friendly and knowledgeable, with a passion for great coffee and excellent service. The cafe is a favorite among locals and tourists alike, with a loyal following of regulars who return time and time again for their favorite coffee and ambiance. dent Government of Baruch takes place in May from the 4th thru the 7th. A huge voter turnout is important to signify the potential strength of an organized student body.

New York City Employees’ Retirement System
220 Church Street
New York, NY 10013
Attn: NYCERS Job Opportunities

NYCERS offers good pay, great benefits for full-time employees, and an amazing opportunity to sharpen the skills you already have in a workplace that needs you.

We’re looking for currently enrolled full-time students to work as College Aides now and next school year (12 to 17 hours weekly) and to work full-time after graduation.

NYCERS offers good pay, great benefits for full-time employees, and an amazing opportunity to sharpen the skills you already have in a workplace that needs you.

As an egg donor, you can give the gift of life.

Seeking healthy women, ages 21-32, to donate eggs to infertile couples. $5,000 compensation for your time and effort.

Treatment cycle monitored at Reproductive Medicine Associates on the Upper East Side.

For more information on being an egg donor, please call 1 (800) 824-3123.

Reproductive Medicine Associates, LLP
58 East 79th Street, New York, NY 10021
Associated with The Institute for Reproductive Medicine and Science of Saint Barnabas Medical Center Livingston, New Jersey

Juniors and Seniors: Take This Test Now!

We’re looking for currently enrolled full-time students to work as College Aides now and next school year (12 to 17 hours weekly) and to work full-time after graduation.

NYCERS offers good pay, great benefits for full-time employees, and an amazing opportunity to sharpen the skills you already have in a workplace that needs you.

If you answered True to every question, you just SCORED 100% on the pre-employment qualifying exam for the New York City Employees’ Retirement System!
Homonyms

Words that sound alike, but are spelled differently and have different meanings.

Find the homonym for the following words:

ie won = one

Able Fair
Air
Groan
Ale
Heard
Arc
Hire
Ate
Kernel
Ax
Oar
Base
Ring
Beach
Seen
Bored
Saler
Brod
Sent
Burrow
Some
Cain
Stationery
Carat
Strait
Cheap
Tall
Choose
Tear
Chronicle
Their
Cord
Throw (2 words)
Council
Wait
Course
Waste
Die
Wood
Doe
You’re
The commencement program.

You must file an application for degree in your final semester in order to be eligible to graduate and to be included in the commencement program.

Contact:

BARUCH COLLEGE STUDENT LIFE
Student Development & Counseling
1512 / 360 PAS
9 am - 8 pm
212-820-6772

Planning to attend Commencement?

You have not received your Commencement Information Packet in the mail.

DEADLINE EXTENDED TUES., APRIL 28, 1998

GRADUATION ELIGIBILITY:
You must file an APPLICATION FOR DEGREE form with the Registrar’s Office in your final semester in order to be eligible to graduate and to be included in the commencement program.

The Greatest MCs Ever

The Top Twenty list of the best, Real MCs in Hip Hop History

By Edward Rodriguez

The best of any proofs are an argument that becomes positive if it is strictly based on opinion. With regards to hip hop, there are many genres to choose one MC as the best of all time. There are the incredible influences of Tupac’s lyrical range in a package of rhythm, personality and the ability to brilliantly balance the God’s gift for rhyme flows with Big Daddy Kane and De La Soul had in their primes. However, the title of greatness can only be given to those with a superior LP and an unassailable career of making true hip hop culture and its beliefs. As a result, the path that Tupac, the lyrical lyrical talent, Nipsey or the disillusioned Lee "Cuba" Redman took into commercial oblivion. The hip hop, its culture and its beliefs. As a result, the hip hop. What many have lacked extraordinary detail while his love for the hip hop principle of originality was for the hip hop principle of originality, revealing a lack of gratitude under the power of commercialization. Although, it is impossible to know the truthfulness of MCs vocal presents, one must judge their public through the integrity expressed in their content and the creativity in their flows, skills and wording. Thus, the twenty greatest MCs are as follows:

1. The Top Twenty list of the best, Real MCs in Hip Hop History

By Edward Rodriguez

The best of any proofs are an argument that becomes positive if it is strictly based on opinion. With regards to hip hop, there are many genres to choose one MC as the best of all time. There are the incredible influences of Tupac’s lyrical range in a package of rhythm, personality and the ability to brilliantly balance the God’s gift for rhyme flows with Big Daddy Kane and De La Soul had in their primes. However, the title of greatness can only be given to those with a superior LP and an unassailable career of making true hip hop culture and its beliefs. As a result, the path that Tupac, the lyrical lyrical talent, Nipsey or the disillusioned Lee "Cuba" Redman took into commercial oblivion. The hip hop, its culture and its beliefs. As a result, the hip hop. What many have lacked extraordinary detail while his love for the hip hop principle of originality was for the hip hop principle of originality, revealing a lack of gratitude under the power of commercialization. Although, it is impossible to know the truthfulness of MCs vocal presents, one must judge their public through the integrity expressed in their content and the creativity in their flows, skills and wording. Thus, the twenty greatest MCs are as follows:

1. Big Daddy Kane: His name and that of his sons reflect hip hop's ever evolving spirituality. His faith in the Creator and the fact that we will realize the promise of every dream is his greatest achievement. Kane is a masterful MC and a master of rhyme, his delivery and a flow that has set the standard for every MC that follows him. Kane is a visionary and a trailblazer, a true artist who has left an indelible mark on the hip hop world.

2. De La Soul: Their music and their lyrics reflect the influence of the "Golden Era" of hip hop. They are known for their humorous and intelligent rhymes, as well as their unique delivery and flow. They are also known for their visual artistry, with their album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

3. N.W.A: The group was known for their aggressive and rebellious lyrics, as well as their confrontational attitudes towards the music industry and society in general. They were also known for their unique and often controversial rap style, which helped to shape the sound of West Coast hip hop.

4. Wu-Tang Clan: The group was known for their raw and powerful delivery, as well as their intricate and complex rhyme schemes. They were also known for their political and social commentary, as well as their sense of humor.

5. LL Cool J: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "New School" of hip hop. He is known for his smooth delivery, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease.

6. RBX: RBX is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

7. Pharoah Sanders: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Spiritual Jazz" movement. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

8. The Roots: Their music and their lyrics reflect the influence of the "Organized Konfusion" of hip hop. They are known for their unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as their ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. They are also known for their visual artistry, with their album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

9. OutKast: Their music and their lyrics reflect the influence of the "Neu School" of hip hop. They are known for their smooth delivery, as well as their ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. They are also known for their visual artistry, with their album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

10. Black Thought of The Roots: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Organized Konfusion" of hip hop. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

11. Guru: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Organized Konfusion" of hip hop. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

12. Redman: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Organized Konfusion" of hip hop. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

13. Royce Da 5'9: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Organized Konfusion" of hip hop. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

14. Lord Finesse: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Organized Konfusion" of hip hop. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

15. Ghostface Killah: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Organized Konfusion" of hip hop. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

16. RZA: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Organized Konfusion" of hip hop. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

17. Pharoah Sanders: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Spiritual Jazz" movement. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

18. Guru: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Spiritual Jazz" movement. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

19. Redman: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "Spiritual Jazz" movement. He is known for his unique and often surreal rhymes, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.

20. Andre of OutKast: His music and his lyrics reflect the influence of the "New School" of hip hop. He is known for his smooth delivery, as well as his ability to mix rhyme and flow with ease. He is also known for his visual artistry, with his album covers and music videos often featuring surreal and eye-catching imagery.
The Greatest MCs Ever
The Top Twenty list of the best, Real MCs In Hip Hop History

Continued from page 35

uses the MC forum to shed light on the trials and tribulations of Los Angeles. While his work led to the studio gangsta and the migration of this exploitation (i.e. No Limit Records pimpin' the game, ugh!) it also indirectly created the global dissemination of hip hop and the "keep it real" (through creativity) movement. The latter is very important as it is impossible to decipher the realness of MCs from Scarface to Mob Deep, without the harmonies of origin. Thus, this list is unique because of its... (see page 35)

8. The Run-Dmc & Jason Derulo's Rise of the Don - Stage: The model of the Run-Dmc & Jason Derulo's Rise of the Don - Stage is unique as its MC's bring together the Run-Dmc & Jason Derulo's Rise of the Don - Stage's ability to get together, ryming the same tracks giving the same ultimate message, in totally different ways.

9. Keef Keith

An incredibly diverse genre that must have overlooked. His introduction of oddlyrics and ill phrases that fragment juxtaposed took place on Ultramagnetic MCs' Critical Beatdown (1988). However, the ten years since he has achieved remarkable diversity with his LP's like Style (1994). We're back to the moment we're. (see page 35)

5. Tip Of A Tribe Called Quest

We're back to the moment we're. (see page 35)

It's killing us! To take our people and make an oasis...

Bob Marley — Redemption Song (1969)

and we brought hip hop back home that night...

Vera the Dama - One Day
The greatest MCs ever
The Top Twenty list of the best, Real MCs In Hip Hop History

Chuck D of Public Enemy

Of all the MCs, Chuck D is the one who has not only paved the way for the expression of our anger - and has given us a Black/Asian struggle in the U.S. — the foundational feet of footwork culture.

1. Rakim

While every great MC has top notch styles, flows and content, it is the one that has that makes greatness. They must be on MC that changes the way rhyme is delivered without any pre-test. Rakim was the first MC to rhyme at a monotone, but lack force of strength. The power and depth of his vocals deserved necessary. They also need to interpret a millennial ideology that provides change. Rakim's subtle blend of battle phrases and elements of God's wisdom changed a somewhat StereoSound culture into a poetic voice of enlightening expression through the fusion. They also must evolve because they are ahead, and whatever it be or not. Rakim has hit top on top in never before "Classmates Of Ours" and has given a fresh perspective on the rhythmist's topotton "Know The Ledge". Along with that, Rakim has shown a consistency that has only been surpassed by his latest facility of scatter-based. There is never a sense of hypocrisy as opposed to a person that exemplifies our contradictions. And not every MC has ever had this aura surrounding them. Rakim is the greatest MC of these 20 plus years of hip hop music.

Breathtaking Precision

2. KRS-One

His work with Puffy has certainly diluted his teaching of the universal lessons of our contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradiction. This obvious hypocrisy (the contradic
What’s at stake:

40

Student Elections will be held May 4-7

Day undergraduate students vote ONLY at:

lobby 17 Lexington Avenue
10:00 am-10:00 pm

Evening undergraduate & Graduate students vote ONLY at:

lobby 48 East 26 Street
4:00 pm-10:00 pm

* You must present your valid CUNYcard at the polling site to vote

VOTE!

What’s at stake:

* How much you pay in activity fees
* Who will represent you in College affairs and budgeting

What’s on the ballot:

* Health Care Fee Referendum for all Day, Evening, AND Graduate Students
* Day Student Government (DSSG) Officers

The difference between a light MC and a legend in any MC is the ability to express complexity in the average ghetto hop hoppers’ understanding.

With Guru, we are taken on a journey of intellectual and spiritual growth, as he explores the complexities of the human experience through his music. His words are often profound and thought-provoking, challenging listeners to think deeply about the issues he addresses.

Guru’s work is not just music; it is a journey of self-discovery and enlightenment. His lyrics are filled with references to history, philosophy, and spirituality, inviting listeners to explore these themes alongside him.

His body of work is vast and varied, with albums spanning from hip hop to jazz, from soul to spoken word. However, it is in his ability to seamlessly blend these genres that Guru truly shines, creating a sound that is both innovative and timeless.

Whether you’re a seasoned music lover or a newcomer to Guru’s music, there is something for everyone in his work. His music has the power to inspire, to challenge, and to move us all.

So, on May 4-7, make sure to vote for the candidates who represent your interests, and let your voice be heard. Remember, your vote is your power. Use it wisely.

---

Note: This text is a fictional representation and does not reflect any actual event or candidate.

---

Artistic角落

Critics’ Corner

I got a letter from the corporate office; the other day I opened and read it. it said they were suing.

"Off the Wall" is an album by the Jacksons, released in 1979. It was their second studio album and was produced by Quincy Jones.

The album features the hit single "Don't Stop 'Til You Get Enough," which was a massive hit and remains one of the most popular songs from the album.

The other standout track on the album is "Rock With You," which became another huge hit for the group.

The album was a commercial success, reaching #2 on the Billboard 200 and remaining on the charts for over 80 weeks.

The album also earned the Jacksons a Grammy nomination for Best R&B Album.

Overall, "Off the Wall" is considered to be one of the most important and influential albums in the history of pop music, and its enduring popularity continues to this day.
hit song since it is an in your face 1st single, is a candidate asking, voice and a synth. board of this form in a frightfully eerie manner. in Westward's new album, laid singer, Trent Reznor, isn't more memorable songs. than rock oriented style works and there are several ear friendly tracks that gar­nered as one of the best albums this year. Beginning with the year's first single "Doomsday," the band's new album, "Evolve," is a perfect example of U2 are found in a song like "The Edge." The first half of this album makes it a strong candidate as album of the year. Beginning with the song's title, "Doomsday," it's a perfect example of what the band is all about. Black Labs debut album, "Body Above Me," has to be considered as one of the best albums this year. The very first time that I heard "Wash It Out," I knew I could have written a song like this if I had the time and resources. The second track, "Wash It Out," is a beautiful song that has an intensity to it that is matched by no other song on the album. No band has created such a buzz since Our Lady Peace and it is evident that both bands are currently on tour now. Our Lady Peace and Black Lab come into town, to see if they can match the song. The band has a beautiful future ahead in the music industry and with songs like "Wash It Out" and "Time Away," the band looks like Radiohead's successor in alternative music.

"The Love Me" has a rhythmic effect with the use of the cello and works wonderfully. No band has ever done for an electronic feel for a basketball team. The band's new song on "Doomsday," it's a perfect example of what the band is all about. Black Labs debut album, "Body Above Me," has to be considered as one of the best albums this year. The very first time that I heard "Wash It Out," I knew I could have written a song like this if I had the time and resources. The second track, "Wash It Out," is a beautiful song that has an intensity to it that is matched by no other song on the album. No band has created such a buzz since Our Lady Peace and it is evident that both bands are currently on tour now. Our Lady Peace and Black Lab come into town, to see if they can match the song. The band has a beautiful future ahead in the music industry and with songs like "Wash It Out" and "Time Away," the band looks like Radiohead's successor in alternative music.

Black Lab's debut album, "Body Above Me," has to be considered as one of the best albums this year. The very first time that I heard "Wash It Out," I knew I could have written a song like this if I had the time and resources. The second track, "Wash It Out," is a beautiful song that has an intensity to it that is matched by no other song on the album. No band has created such a buzz since Our Lady Peace and it is evident that both bands are currently on tour now. Our Lady Peace and Black Lab come into town, to see if they can match the song. The band has a beautiful future ahead in the music industry and with songs like "Wash It Out" and "Time Away," the band looks like Radiohead's successor in alternative music.

"The Love Me" has a rhythmic effect with the use of the cello and works wonderfully. No band has ever done for an electronic feel for a basketball team. The band's new song on "Doomsday," it's a perfect example of what the band is all about. Black Labs debut album, "Body Above Me," has to be considered as one of the best albums this year. The very first time that I heard "Wash It Out," I knew I could have written a song like this if I had the time and resources. The second track, "Wash It Out," is a beautiful song that has an intensity to it that is matched by no other song on the album. No band has created such a buzz since Our Lady Peace and it is evident that both bands are currently on tour now. Our Lady Peace and Black Lab come into town, to see if they can match the song. The band has a beautiful future ahead in the music industry and with songs like "Wash It Out" and "Time Away," the band looks like Radiohead's successor in alternative music.
come cruise into
Israel's 50th year!

Thursday, April 30
(RAIN OR SHINE)
Doors @ 6:30pm
Departure @ 7:00pm
Where: Pier 83,
W 42nd and The Hudson
S10 Adv., $15 at the door
Tickets can be purchased at local Hillel or at 212-696-1590

Win a Free
El Al Ticket to Israel

By Vanessa Singh

Amidst the wilds of southern Florida, John McNaughton attempts to lure us into his dark and seductive film with the pounding rhythms of music and the sweeping panoramic view of the everglades. The protagonist ending. The prominent theme of things not being what they seem which runs throughout the film also applies to this movie. It makes big promises but fails to deliver in most instances. It is too rife with stereotypical characters and scenarios. This film is best appreciated on a superficial level without seeking to delve too far below the surface for something of serious substance.

They're Dying to Play with You...
Vanessa Puts Wild Things Under the Microscope

By Vanessa Singh

Amidst the wilds of southern Florida, John McNaughton attempts to lure us into his dark and seductive film with the pounding rhythms of music and the sweeping panoramic view of the everglades. The protagonist ending. The prominent theme of things not being what they seem which runs throughout the film also applies to this movie. It makes big promises but fails to deliver in most instances. It is too rife with stereotypical characters and scenarios. This film is best appreciated on a superficial level without seeking to delve too far below the surface for something of serious substance.

By Vanessa Singh

Richards killed Campbell whom she was intimately involved with. The plot twists as two surprise guests turn up on the small tropical island where Dillon is staying. Everything comes to a head and the details of their money-driven scheme unfold. Without giving away all of the ending, it would be suffice to say that there are a few not-so-subtle hints given throughout the film which allude to the surprising ending. The prominent theme of things not being what they seem which runs throughout the film also applies to this movie. It makes big promises but fails to deliver in most instances. It is too rife with stereotypical characters and scenarios. This film is best appreciated on a superficial level without seeking to delve too far below the surface for something of serious substance.
The Art of Buying a Concert Ticket

By David Lo

A Village Voice ad says that Pearl Jam tickets will go on sale Sat­urday at 9 A.M. A determined young fan of theirs decides to go to Madison Square Garden and wait on line to purchase tickets to the concert. When he gets there at 5 A.M., he finds that there is line that goes on for 4 blocks around the Garden. After he waits for about three hours, there is an announcement that the concert has been sold out. Does this sound familiar? Did you get frustrated when you were the one that was shut out of another great concert? Well, if there is a concert that is important to you and if you would like to know the secrets you get creamed on any conc­ert, then read on.

Ticketmaster is the most common service in getting tickets. People always wonder if Ticketmaster is indeed the best way in order to ob­tain tickets to a concert. Here is how Ticketmaster operates. Ticketmaster has offices all over the country and more specifically in places such as 1-600 Music Stores, Tower Records and Disc'O Retail.

You walk in and tell the person working the Ticketmaster who are your favorite groups and when and where the concert of the group is going to be. The advantage of this is that you will most likely get the tickets that you want. Your tickets go on sale the day before and the exact time that the tickets go on sale. The drawback of this method is that you must pay in cash in front of the concert. Go­ing to the bank constantly or even using an ATM machine to take out cash could be a real pain in the neck.

Buying ticketmaster by phone is another option. If a per­son wants to purchase tickets on sale at 10 A.M. then there is a line formed before hand at 9:45 A.M. and call 1-800-RRM. You have to have a credit card and then you can use the phone. But for most concerts, getting through is a piece of cake. One disadvantage though, is that you might lose your money if you don’t know who you know. You might not call and the phone will indeed be calling you. Ticketmaster to utilize their ser­vices in getting their hands on this illustrious ticket.

If you don’t have the money right away, and have access to a credit card, then calling up Ticketmaster can be a wise decision. The tickets are either mailed to you or held for you at the box office of the venue you choose to attend. The negative thing is that Ticketmaster charges extremely high prices for their own service and charge a minimum of at least thirty dollars for sending tickets to the box office window. In some cases, the tickets will be mailed to you but of course the question comes into play whether or not shipping does not. 50% or double the price of the original cost is really worth the price of seeing the desired artist you want to see.

Ticket brokers is another service that is utilized by some people. Last minute tickets are those that just have gone of sale of events that are around. The price is strongly recommended against because of the few chances that these brokers charge and how they actually obtain the tickets. There was a story two years ago involving Hong Kong and the Blowfish’s appearance at Jones Beach and how the tickets were all taken up by employees of Jones Beach and how the tickets to brokers to charge any price they pleased to. Luckily the employees that work and Haustie and the Blowfish called for Ticketmaster to throw out all the tickets purchased for the first ten rows and resell them again. Rarely do these stories come out in the news though.

Listening to the radio and win­ning tickets that day but winning tickets from radio contests is much more difficult than winning the tix­ter. But seriously, it’s taken 2100 people the last 100 years to fill up all 14,000 seaters, the lucky one has to be the 100th one. Believe me when I tell you that the odds of winning tickets from a ra­dio station are practically impos­sible.

Inside connections are another consideration to think about. Don’t happen to fortunate know business within the music industry. If you know someone, don’t go to the box office window. In some cases, you might have to do anything for those tickets. Don’t take advantage of them but what are free tickets for them? You can get them on the great list or even V.I.P. tickets. Wouldn’t get in and sawing the actual band instead better than not going at all! But don’t you ever think about calling up a record company and saying that you belong to a press media association and getting free passes than way? Yes, it is dishonest but when push comes to shove, you’re willing to do anything for those tickets right? Remember this guide will serve and guide you on your quest to getting any tickets that you wish to obtain. Good luck.

Upcoming Rock Concerts

By David Lo

1. When: Our Lady Peace with Black Lab (K-Rock Show)
   Where: Thursday, April 26
   Where: Hardman/steen Balloons

2. When: Billy Joe
   Where: Thursday, April 30, Friday, May 1, and Saturday, May 3
   Where: Nassau Coliseum

3. When: Foo Fighters
   Where: Thursday, May 7
   Where: Roseland Ballroom

4. When: Bad Religion
   Where: Friday, May 15
   Where: Madison Square Garden

5. When: Van Halen with special guest Creed (K-Rock Show)
   Where: Friday, May 22
   Where: Madison Square Garden

6. When: Green Day
   Where: Saturday, May 23
   Where: Roseland Ballroom

7. When: Dave Matthews Band with special guests Beck and Ben Folds Five
   When: Sunday, June 7
   Where: Pantages Theatre

8. When: Bonz Youth
   Where: Sunday, June 7
   Where: Whiskey A Go-Go

9. When: Guinnesse Folds - Sined O’Connor
   Where: Thursday, June 11
   Where: Hardman/steen Balloons

10. When: Guinnesse Folds - Train Chapman, Indigo Girls, Les Lobs, and Black 47
    Where: Thursday, June 25
    Where: Hardman/steen Balloons

11. When: Black Lab (K-Rock Show)
    Where: Thursday, June 25
    Where: Roseland Ballroom

12. When: The Mighty
    Where: Friday, June 26
    Where: Madison Square Garden

13. When: A Tribe Called Red
    Where: Saturday, June 27
    Where: Roseland Ballroom

14. When: The B-52’s
    Where: Friday, July 3
    Where: Roseland Ballroom

15. When: Jello Biafra & the Melvins
    Where: Saturday, July 11
    Where: Roseland Ballroom

16. When: Black Lab (K-Rock Show)
    Where: Thursday, July 16
    Where: Roseland Ballroom

17. When: I Love You But You Know It
    Where: Friday, July 17
    Where: Roseland Ballroom

18. When: The Stone Roses
    Where: Friday, July 24
    Where: Madison Square Garden

19. When: A Tribe Called Red
    Where: Thursday, July 30
    Where: Roseland Ballroom
She Will

I discovered the morning on her quiet belly. By her curves I found a safe and warm refuge from the broken glass of aamentos: When she always told me that I was a son’s reply by the clouds. In her eyes newer the clouds of reproaches appeared. She was always there with caution, priceless was she in freedom against the dictator. She used to understand she was my parachute in the air of temerity. Her words were rarer than diamonds, and I never treasure them more than blood. She gave herself and assured her whole, eager of recognition that you are. I have never told her I love you. I tried to understand by her asking or imposing, just once, in vain. I love her, I love her, I love her.

How one shall repay a mountain of kindness, I discovered the morning on her quiet belly. By her curves I found her talent to disarm me by her humility, silent admirer that she alone endured the rain to keep me away from pain: In her hands the first minute I was and ever since have been. Her speech was flowing like a thousand years from the sky. She gave me without my asking, before my eyes had envy, she knew without a word. The snow was made for her to shine and we were cold at the same time. She wanted to build an empire with our most intense moments. Every time that her hair was coming back home only every other night and my friends were spinning on the pillow like seashells another night of ecstasy was coming out...

In the morning she gave me the best of hers and I gave her the roses of the paper wall. She wanted to build an empire with our most intense moments. She was like a painting by Ghent. She put me behind the bars of her fragility to serve a life time sentence of desire. The snow was made for her to shine and we were cold at the same time. I called her without noise but each silence of hers was lethal. She hoped to be invisible some day because she did not want to be loved so much. She lied to keep the window open to let the neighbors know that every night was Christmas. She put out in my mouth and honey in my bed. She gave me without asking, before I had envy, she knew without a word. I was there when she was exposed and I never took her heart for a free ride. She felt me while I was building her house of lies. She was as fresh as a morning in the forest. Her speech was flowing like a river with no bend. I tried to write down to paint me in her heart to touch my face even when far away. I forgot my old memories and said the words she expected. She started using a camera to let me come in when life was dark. She hated the word segregation but love secret island. She could not live when I tried to love her even though she loved me. Many times her eyes burned my skin so intense and she was... I did not do that. Beneath her skirt? Did you flirt? Did you peek Beneath her skirt? Did you smile? Did you flirt? Did you peek Beneath her skirt? Did you tell The girl to lie When called upon To testify? I do not like you Stay away from me I think that you hate me? I will not answer Any more. Perhaps I will go Show me! The publisher’s way To distract When bombs are Falling on Iraq

-Dean Eftarpidis

The Camera Passed by a Cross from Us

The camera passed by a cross from us. My blood got agitated and asked refuge in the hearts of the ghosts. The situation was bringing in mind a little of the second world war and little of the nation. James Dean bought his pare from John Lennon’s murderer.

Colored mourning notes pour out unceasingly in the streets. The furnace throw their shards away from me and the dwarfs rap seashell white and those are in a stained torrent. Three times I lost the identity of dignity in a dark and rainy well. The man got there with a delay of a human’s life. Fields of defilement got into other fields of defilement and human not only remained an observer but became a magnet of the events of the end.

A feeling ray of hope insolently still closer to the brink meeting though so many tones of evil rain jumped to the empty space. A dove wounded by a fire arm flew to the unknown and unformed on its wings the dispersed electrons of hope.

-Van Rosi

Bill Clinton’s Deposition

I do not know the facts. I do not know the facts. I do not that, how it is, I do not that, another day. I do not that, nor he, I do not that Sharr, you are! Did you smile? Did you flirt? Did you peek Beneath her skirt? Did you tell The girl to lie When called upon To testify? I do not like you Stay away from me I think that you hate me? I will not answer Any more. Perhaps I will go Show me! The publisher’s way To distract When bombs are Falling on Iraq

-Dr. Seuss

What love is

She did not like my one bedroom plus attic, but yes, if you cross her come back to tell me if she still values love in her hair. She had my madness on her lips, even the one I could not squeeze. She was bluer than the sea around. I did not realize that I was hugging her too tight and today my eyes are still red.

She kept talking about princes and wedding for love. She dreamed about lives without chains and round trip tickets for everyone. She bought that in a thousand years from now people could live being afraid only of a cloud of roses.

Even sleeping, magical music was coming out of her hands and I languished each morning. I was coming back home only every other night and my friends were from nowhere. She was often frozen by the fire. She said that life was only commitments and that was why tears were coming out of the wells of your soul.

The snow was spreading on the pillow like seashells another night of ecstasy was coming out...

In the morning she gave me the best of hers and I gave her the roses of the paper wall. She wanted to build an empire with our most intense moments. She was like a painting by Ghent. She put me behind the bars of her fragility to serve a life time sentence of desire. The snow was made for her to shine and we were cold at the same time.

I called her without noise but each silence of hers was lethal. She hoped to be invisible some day because she did not want to be loved so much. She lied to keep the window open to let the neighbors know that every night was Christmas. She put out in my mouth and honey in my bed. She gave me without asking, before I had envy, she knew without a word. I was there when she was exposed and I never took her heart for a free ride. She felt me while I was building her house of lies. She was as fresh as a morning in the forest. Her speech was flowing like a river with no bend. I tried to write down to paint me in her heart to touch my face even when far away. I forgot my old memories and said the words she expected. She started using a camera to let me come in when life was dark. She hated the word segregation but love secret island. She could not live when I tried to love her even though she loved me. Many times her eyes burned my skin so intense and she was...

m outgoing, you get closer tell her, that my veins are those again, that she’s not good at these things.

-Dean Eftarpidis

Seashell

Oh! Broken seashell Oh! Broken seashell Oh! Broken seashell... Seashell edges sharp incisors. You just cut my toe! Buried beneath the dampened sand your outer spiral casing’s crushed. Hemostatic sardines litter the beach.

Once intact, pink hues from your polished surface reflected luminous in the sunlight, but now lies dimmed from exposure. Forever. Tendrily, I hold your fractured hull to my ear and still I hear the footsteps of the sea roaring from within.

-Maureen McKeown
Psalm of a Foolish Child

A big mouth can cause big drama
The much sunshine accomplishments when it rains
No sound can control
Acting out of turn because in a hurry can cause one to crush and burn.
When will one learn to hear?
From what I can discern, he only wants to earn affection
But short circuits disable the connection from his own drive
He's steering just because of the comparison
Now they're swirling because of the aggression
Look before you leap
Don't stumble over your own feet
Be alert but play for keep
Standing in front of the door it is dirt you will not
Now the sun burns enraged
Because the heat
Get on an off the ingredients of defeat
They must understand for they have no relief
How do I be cool
When the sun don't shine
How do I get like all is well
And when wear a smile
Tyranny is not his style
Calm down
Clown down
Civilized too
There's time to tame the wild
Psalm of a Lonely Heart

Like a dreaming man
Grasping for a straw
That isn't there
And I flew through the air
Into the valley of despair.
I search for her
Because I need someone to care.
I guess myself
Until I received
Transformations
So I thought of my own needs
Until they brought me to my knees.
Then I got some room to breathe.
I was lost
I found
That I used someone around to be down
And made me proud to wear my crown.
A king without a kingdom is a man without a queen,
A lonely state of being.
Is this all a bad dream?
If it is, when
My soul and she take
Paddle me across the lake
And lend me this unwritten bond.
I seek upon a star
You could run your fingers
There is a beautiful moon
On my heart
And left me who are really
DASUN X
The Resurgence of Baruch Baseball

By Jomo Clarke

The Baruch College baseball team at 10-8, has the best record that any fifth year senior can remember under the tutelage of coach Raymond (Buddy) Heffernan, publicist Bob Greenburg and assistant coach Scott Locche, the baseball team has come out swinging with an impressive .277 batting average.

This win was very big because the team has displayed pitching (4-1 hind Greg Klerkin's exceptional 'up 13-3 when the Polytechnic batting average. The team, be- came Hunter's rage for the first time all season. Baruch won the next three sets, 15-4, 15-8, 15-3. The showdown for the final was between Baruch and conference winner, Brooklyn College. The first set was very competitive as the Statesmen jumped out to an early 14-13 lead. Brooklyn rallied to tie the game, but the Statesmen won the first three sets with considerable ease, winning 15-3, 15-4, 15-6. On the final day all season. Baruch won the next three sets, 15-4, 15-8, 15-3. The showdown for the final was between Baruch and conference winner, Brooklyn College. The first set was very competitive as the Statesmen jumped out to an early 14-13 lead. Brooklyn rallied to tie the game, but the Statesmen won the first three sets with considerable ease, winning 15-3, 15-4, 15-6. On the final day against Polytechnic, the Statesmen settled down and over-
Who is B.E.S.T.?

Reanna Ramsingh, candidate for President
As a past member and president of a student club, Reanna Ramsingh feels that she is aware of the plight that is faced by fellow club leaders. Presently, she is the Treasurer of D.S.S.G. thereby affording her the insight into Government activities and proceedings. Due to her ability to relate to fellow club leaders combined with her knowledge of policies, she feels that she can help correct the shortcomings of the current bureaucracy.

Jamie Berguido, candidate for Vice President
As an immigrant transfer student, Jamie Berguido, current president of the Business to Business Marketing club has been fortunate enough to be aware of the many opportunities Baruch has through his ties with fellow classmaters, clubs, D.S.S.G., and other student organizations. He knows firsthand the challenges students face and would like to facilitate and encourage all students to take advantage of the opportunities offered.

Joshua Kurtz, candidate for Treasurer
With extensive Student Government experience, Joshua Kurtz feels that he is ready for position. At present, he is the chair of Campus Affairs, as such, he is very in tune with on-campus activities. He was instrumental in putting together the annual Multi-cultural dinner (an event hosted by D.S.S.G.). Furthermore, financial planning and organization of Club Fair and the upcoming Spring Fling were both his doing.

Romana Ali, Secretary
New to Baruch College, Romana has wasted no time in becoming involved with clubs such as the Pakistani Student Organization. Her interest in student affairs led her to D.S.S.G., where she is part of both the Finance and Public Relations committees. In addition to this, she presently serves as the D.S.S.G. assistant secretary.

As you can see, B.E.S.T. is fully aware of the Baruch environment. Candidates are from diverse backgrounds and already have Student Government experience to lead them into the next year. While new blood is sometimes perceived as a good thing, nothing beats experience!

May 9, 1998

Evening Session Student Assembly presents
Day Passes $5 Each
Limit: 3 passes per student
Baruch ID required for purchase
A use of the club.
Available at:

THE B.E.S.T. ISSUES

✓ A few of the many issues that concern B.E.S.T. are those of improved communications, healthcare, transfer evaluations, Baruch opportunities, and Site B club facilities.

✓ We intend to improve communications between student clubs and Student Government to reach common goals and meet student needs. We are aware of the current chasm and would like to fill that in with dialogue and action.

✓ We want to help provide healthcare for all students. Healthcare should not be a privilege and B.E.S.T. would like to see all Baruch students have the opportunity to have healthcare and work towards that end.

✓ B.E.S.T. would like to meet with the Registrar’s Office and determine what assistance can be offered in order to improve the transfer evaluation process. All transfer students are fully aware of the dire need for speedier processing. Whatever B.E.S.T. can do to resolve the current situation will be done.

✓ There is a need to make students more aware of the true opportunities Baruch offers within the College. As a college with a nationally recognized business program, students don’t take advantage of the business opportunities available to them through this institution. B.E.S.T. would like to introduce the students to the networking and career potential of the College in coordination with facilities already available on campus.

✓ We want to work in conjunction with the Office of Student Life to ensure the maximum utilization of allocated club space in the new Baruch building (Site B). With many clubs clamoring for space there is a need for proper student representation in the distribution process.

Get The B.E.S.T.
Bringing Every Student Together

What does B.E.S.T. stand for?
The core of the B.E.S.T. platform is one in which we would like to see Baruch College students participate in the improvement of themselves as students, club members and professionals. This particular goal can be reached primarily by bringing together the different clubs and Student Government in a cohesive and positive force through collaboration and partnership instead of competition.

There is such a large population at Baruch that has no university life. There is a lack of school spirit, or the sense of belonging to something bigger than the individual, due to the commuter college reality. Students come, they go to class, they leave. We need to start looking at what we can do to keep students here after class. While the 14th floor club rooms are supposed to help in this endeavor, that atmosphere only appeals to some students. Where does this leave the remaining students? What about the students who frequent the 14th floor because that’s all Baruch has to offer in terms of student life? B.E.S.T. proposes finding ways to accommodate those students. We need to target their unmet needs and desires and satisfy them. We can make student life more than a series of parties. The first of B.E.S.T.‘s aims is to improve the communication between the 14th floor and Student Government. In the past there has been a rift between the clubs and student leadership. There must be a free-flow of ideas between all students if we are to improve campus life. We don’t need egos in Student Government, we need student representation. B.E.S.T. is about bringing every student together and the candidates intend to stand by that.

REANNA RAMSINGH
CANDIDATE FOR DSSG PRESIDENT
B.E.S.T. PARTY
Get the B.E.S.T.!!

Bringing Every Student Together

VOTE

S.T.A.R.

FOR

D.S.S.G.

Students Together Achieve Reform

EXTRA!!! EXTRA!!! EXTRA!!!